American Women in a World at War Judy Barrett Litoff,David Clayton Smith,1997 This title brings together twenty five writings by women who share their rich and varied World War II experiences from serving in the military to working on the home front to preparing for the postwar world By providing evidence of their active and resourceful roles in the war effort as workers wives and mothers these women offer eloquent testimony that World War II was indeed everybody s war Litoff and Smith combine pieces by well known writers such as Margaret Culkin Banning and Nancy Wilson Ross with important but largely forgotten personal accounts by ordinary women living in extraordinary times This volume is divided into the six sections listed below Preparing for War In the Military At Far Flung Fronts On the Home Front War Jobs Preparing for the Postwar World

The World at War Taylor Downing,2012-11-19 The World at War is the most successful history series ever produced by British television TV producer and writer Taylor Downing explores the style ethos television context and impact of the programme in a study that includes interviews with the producer Jeremy Isaacs and original research gathered from archives

The World at War, 1914-1945 Jeremy Black,2019-04-03 This text provides an innovative global military history that joins three periods World War I the interwar years and World War II Jeremy Black offers a comprehensive survey of both wars comparing continuities and differences He traces the causes of each war and assesses land sea and air warfare as separate dimensions He argues that the unprecedented nature of the two wars owed much to the demographic and industrial strength of the states involved and their ability and determination to mobilize vast resources Yet the demands of the world wars also posed major difficulties not simply in sustaining the struggle but also in conceiving of practical strategies and operational methods in the heat and competition of ever evolving conflict In this process resources skills leadership morale and alliance cohesion all proved significant In addition to his military focus Black considers other key dimensions of the conflicts especially political and social influences and impacts He thoroughly integrates the interwar years tracing the significant continuities between the two world wars He emphasizes how essential American financial industrial agricultural and energy resources were to the Allies both before and after the United States entered each war Bringing the two world wars to life Black sheds light not only on both as individual conflicts but also on the interwoven relationships between the two World at War II Dakota Wardle,2018-05-04 After turning eight teen Lesa is still travelling with Delilah Mike and Jake But they find something they didn't want to and now have to work with the saviors to stay alive All the World at War James Charles Roy,2024-05-31 While battles and wars and the clash of civilizations are as old as time itself there is little doubt that the conflagration of 1914-1918 was something unique and terrifyingly new There was not a corner of the globe that did not feel its effects some more than others but the scope of its impact on economies populations food supplies the character of governments in general and the day to day lives of numberless ordinary people were such as the world had never experienced nor expected Little did anyone dream that the assassination of relatively minor figures of the Habsburg royal family Archduke Ferdinand of Austria and his wife carried out by an unknown Serbian teenager on the street corner of an obscure town called Sarajevo that few had ever heard of could possibly provide a spark that would plunge the entire European continent into an industrialized war of catastrophic destruction But it did the two shots that youth fired were surely heard around the world and several million people would perish or be maimed as a result The story of World War I has been told by many different writers historians and participants in many different ways especially so before and during the centennial of its events that just concluded All the World at War stands apart from many of these standard studies It presents a familiar story from points of view that many readers might find surprising unexpected details different perspectives atypical and generally insightful observations from contemporaries often obscure to modern readers who witnessed the events and personalities that pushed the war along from phase to phase The narrative is chronologically arranged beautifully written with something new or intriguing on every page This is a unique and finely paced account of The War to End all Wars that didn't Civilians in a World at War, 1914-1918 Tammy M. Proctor,2010-08-30 World War I heralded a new global era of warfare consolidating and expanding changes that had been building throughout the previous century while also instituting new notions of war The 1914-18 conflict witnessed the first aerial bombing of civilian populations the first widespread concentration camps for the internment of enemy alien civilians and an unprecedented use of civilian labor and resources for the war effort Humanitarian relief programs for civilians became a common feature of modern society while food became as significant as weaponry in the fight to win Tammy M Proctor argues that it was World War I the first modern global war that witnessed the invention of both the modern civilian and the home front where a totalizing war strategy pitted industrial nations and their citizenries against each other Civilians in a World at War 1914-1918 explores the different ways civilians work and function in a war situation and broadens our understanding of the civilian to encompass munitions workers nurses laundresses refugees aid workers and children who lived and worked in occupied zones on home and battle fronts and in the spaces in between Comprehensive and global in scope spanning the Eastern Western Italian East African and Mediterranean fronts Proctor examines in lucid and evocative detail the role of experts in the war the use of forced labor and the experiences of children in the combatant countries As in many wars civilians on both sides of WWI were affected and vast displacements of the populations shaped the contemporary world in countless ways redrawing boundaries and creating or reviving lines of ethnic conflict Exploring primary source materials and secondary studies of combatant and neutral nations while synthesizing French German Dutch and English language sources Proctor transcends the artificial boundaries of national histories and the exclusive focus on soldiers Instead she tells the fascinating and long buried story of the civilian in the Great War allowing voices from the period to speak for themselves A World at War, 1911-1949 ,2019-03-27 In A World At War 1911 1949 leading and emerging scholars of the cultural history of the two world wars begin to break down the traditional barriers between the historiographies of the two conflicts identifying commonalities as well as casting new light on each as part of a broader mission in honour of Professor John Horne to expand the boundaries of academic exploration of warfare in the 20th century Utilizing techniques and approaches developed by cultural historians of the First World War this volume showcases and explores four crucial themes relating to the socio cultural attributes and representation of war that cut across both the First and Second World Wars cultural mobilization the nature and depiction of combat the experience of civilians under fire and the different meanings of victory and defeat Contributors are Annette Becker Robert Dale Alex Dowdall Robert Gerwarth John Horne Tom s Irish Heather Jones Alan Kramer Edward Madigan Anthony McElligott Michael S Neiberg John Paul Newman Catriona Pennell Filipe Ribeiro de Meneses Daniel Todman and Jay Winter See inside the book History at War Noble Frankland,2012-07-18 History at War is a unique book It throws light on important unexplored aspects of the pursuit of historical truth It tells how alone among historians Noble Frankland fought in the bomber offensive during the Second World War and then together with Sir Charles Webster wrote its official history how he transformed the Imperial War Museum from a dying institution into one of the world s leading historical centres for the study of the conflicts of the twentieth century how he played a major part in television documentary productions including in particular The World at War and how he wrote a series of original rigorously researched historical works In History at War he describes the battles he had to fight against the mandarins and media merchants who sought to impose a spin on history to suit their own ends and were ruthless and unscrupulous in their methods Its meticulous documentation gives a guarantee of authenticity to his staggering account of how those in high places tried to distort history which might otherwise seem scarcely credible The revelations about Bomber Harris relations with his superior Lord Portal during the war and their joint opposition to the two authors account of the strategic air offensive still a highly topical issue will set alight a new debate among military and other historians Unlike most books on the theory and practice of history it does not confine itself to what can be written on the page It also covers Dr Frankland s experience of demonstrating history in museum galleries on the television screen on sites such as Duxford Airfield near Cambridge and on board HMS Belfast in the Pool of London The problem for historians of publishing a full and unbiased account and analysis of controversial events and episodes in politics and international affairs is as acute in the 1990s as it ever has been All readers with a concern for the truth will learn much about such issues from this unflinching and penetrating book Robert Crawford Director General Imperial War Museum it is brilliant rivetingly trenchant and should be required reading for all aspirant historians Professor R B Wernham former Professor of Modern History Oxford It really is a splendid and fascinating story and a sharp warning to historians to beware of mandarins and great commanders In Francis Bacon's categorization Some books are to be tasted some to be swallowed and a few to be chewed and digested It certainly rates among the few Professor Geoffrey Best in TLS The subtitle is exactly right for a book by Noble Frankland a tough character who views the successive phases of his post war life as battles to bring truths and lessons plainly before the public and who can happily conclude that he has been generally successful In at least two fields the history of the most painfully controversial of Allied campaigns in the Second World War and the rescue and make over of the least well known of London's great museums his achievements have been of great national value and importance this astringently truth telling professional autobiography required reading for historians of the British Establishment from Attlee to Macmillan Piers Mackesy Fellow of British Academy and former Fellow of Pembroke College Oxford I admired History at War on many levels characterizations of Webster Bradley Willis etc the balance between Museum Trustees and the chief executive functioning of Civil Service Bomber Command the picture of Noble Frankland's developing career and the qualities it called for etc I often laughed aloud at the wit and the penetrating observations of functioning individuals Also much enjoyed final reflections on history by a practitioner Haven't enjoyed a book so much for ages
