My Wounded Heart The Life Of Lilli Jahn 1900 1944:

My Wounded Heart Martin Doerry, 2004-03-18 A collection of more than three hundred recently discovered family letters chronicles the tragic life of a young Jewish woman born to wealthy Jewish parents who became a physician was arrested by the Gestapo in 1943 and perished in Auschwitz in 1944

My Wounded Heart Martin Doerry, 2005 An international sensation already sold in 15 languages this heartbreaking collection of letters captures the destruction not only of a woman's life but also of an entire nation My Wounded Heart is a literary and historic work on par with the wartime diaries of Anne Frank and Victor Klemperer

My Wounded Heart Martin Doerry, 2009-09-07 My Wounded Heart tells the heart breaking story of a gifted Jewish doctor the mother of five children who after being divorced by her Aryan husband is arrested on an absurd charge and sent to a corrective labour camp in 1942 Lilli was a prolific letter writer and miraculously almost all her letters to her children and friends together with a huge number of their letters to her smuggled out of the camp at Breitenau before she was sent to Auschwitz survived the Second World War and only came to light on the death of her son in 1998 In the letters and in Martin Doerry's superb commentary we see the deterioration of a whole country through the eyes of an ordinary family driven asunder by pressure from the Nazi regime We see Lilli's initial optimism and love of her husband begin to crack We see her trying to support and run the family home from Breitenau camp but relying totally on her twelve year old daughter Ilse And we see the difficulties for the children of living with their father's mistress now his wife after a bombing raid destroys the family home And perhaps most moving of all we see Ilse's heroic attempts to meet her mother even though it means going into the labour camp itself and Lilli's courage in the face of her inevitable end

2004 Sara Grosvald, 2012-02-14 This work includes international secondary literature on anti-Semitism published throughout the world from the earliest times to the present It lists books dissertations and articles from periodicals and collections from a diverse range of disciplines Written accounts are included among the recorded titles as are manifestations of anti-Semitism in the visual arts e.g. painting caricatures or film action taken against Jews and Judaism by discriminating judiciaries pogroms massacres and the systematic extermination during the Nazi period The bibliography also covers works dealing with philo-Semitism or Jewish reactions to anti-Semitism and Jewish self hate An informative abstract in English is provided for each entry and Hebrew titles are provided with English translations

Jewish Responses to Persecution: 1933-1938 Jürgen Matthäus, Mark Roseman, 2009-11-16 Published in association with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Jewish Responses to Persecution 1933 1946 offers a new perspective on Holocaust history by presenting documentation that describes the manifestations and meanings of Nazi Germany's Final Solution from the Jewish perspective This first volume taking us from Hitler's rise to power through the aftermath of Kristallnacht vividly reveals the increasing devastation and confusion wrought in Jewish communities in and beyond Germany at the time Numerous period photos documents and annotations make this unique series an invaluable research and teaching tool

How Was It Possible? Peter

Hayes,2015-04-01 As the Holocaust passes out of living memory future generations will no longer come face to face with Holocaust survivors But the lessons of that terrible period in history are too important to let slip past How Was It Possible edited and introduced by Peter Hayes provides teachers and students with a comprehensive resource about the Nazi persecution of Jews Deliberately resisting the reflexive urge to dismiss the topic as too horrible to be understood intellectually or emotionally the anthology sets out to provide answers to questions that may otherwise defy comprehension This anthology is organized around key issues of the Holocaust from the historical context for antisemitism to the impediments to escaping Nazi Germany and from the logistics of the death camps and the carrying out of genocide to the subsequent struggles of the displaced survivors in the aftermath Prepared in cooperation with the Jewish Foundation for the Righteous this anthology includes contributions from such luminaries as Jean Anel Saul Friedlander Tony Judt Alan Kraut Primo Levi Robert Proctor Richard Rhodes Timothy Snyder and Susan Zuccotti Taken together the selections make the ineffable fathomable and demystify the barbarism underlying the tragedy inviting readers to learn precisely how the Holocaust was in fact possible

Belonging and Genocide Thomas Kühne,2010-10-26 No one has ever posed a satisfactory explanation for the extreme inhumanity of the Holocaust What was going on in the heads and hearts of the millions of Germans who either participated in or condoned the murder of the Jews In this provocative book Thomas Kuhne offers a new answer A genocidal society was created not only by the hatred of Jews or by coercion Kuhne contends but also by the love of Germans for one another their desire for a united people s community the Volksgemeinschaft During the Third Reich Germans learned to connect with one another by becoming brother and sisters in mass crime

Poland under German Occupation, 1939-1945 Jonathan Huener,Andrea Löw,2024-01-05 As a unique and innovative addition to the scholarship on Nazi Germany the Holocaust and modern Polish history this volume provides fresh analysis on the Nazi occupation of Poland Through new questions and engaging untapped sources the leading historians who have contributed to this volume provide original scholarship to steer debates and expand the historiography surrounding Nazi racial and occupation policies Polish and Jewish responses to them persecution police terror resistance and complicity

Nitzotz Laura M. Weinrib,2009-11-30 Under the brutal conditions of the Dachau Kaufering concentration camp a handful of young Jews resolved to resist their Nazi oppressors Their weapons were their words During the Soviet occupation of Kovno and after the German invasion within the Kovno ghetto the members of Irgun Brith Zion circulated an underground journal Nitzotz Spark In its pages they debated Zionist politics and laid plans for postwar settlement in Palestine When the Kovno ghetto was liquidated several contributors to Nitzotz were deported to the Kaufering satellite camps of Dachau Against all odds they did not lay down their pens Nitzotz is the only Hebrew language publication known to have appeared consistently throughout the Nazi occupation anywhere in Europe Its authors believed that their intellectual defiance would insulate them against the dehumanizing cruelty of the concentration camp and equip them to lead the postwar effort for the physical and spiritual regeneration of

European Jewry Laura Weinrib presents this remarkable document to English readers for the first time Along with a translation of the five remaining Dachau Kaufering issues the book includes an extensive critical introduction Nitzotz is a testament to the resilience of those struggling for survival Life and Loss in the Shadow of the Holocaust Rebecca Boehling, Uta Larkey, 2011-06-16 A family's recently discovered correspondence provides the inspiration for this fascinating and deeply moving account of Jewish family life before during and after the Holocaust Rebecca Boehling and Uta Larkey reveal how the Kaufmann Steinberg family was pulled apart under the Nazi regime and dispersed over three continents The family's unique eight way correspondence across two generations brings into sharp focus the dilemma of Jews in Nazi Germany facing the painful decisions of when if and to where they should emigrate The authors capture the family members fluctuating emotions of hope optimism resignation and despair as well as the day to day concerns experiences and dynamics of family life despite increasing persecution and impending deportation Headed by two sisters who were among the first female business owners in Essen the family was far from conventional and their story contributes new dimensions to our understanding of Jewish life in Germany and in exile during these dark years
