

Agnès de Brunhoff

Backstage mysteries of body and mind:

our infinite potential for psychophysical
blossoming in performance

Agnès de Brunhoff is an artist of many talents – singer, pianist and composer – who now works as Alexander Technique teacher and coach to distinguished singers, instrumentalists and actors. She has worked all her life applying her talents and largely divine artistic experiences as her impressively reflective wisdom of the Alexander Technique. This richly varied and original career, her profound understanding of what it takes to make an artist, allied to her unflagging devotion to research, combine to make Agnès de Brunhoff the infinitely valuable and internationally renowned coach she is.

This, Agnès de Brunhoff's second book, goes further than her initial presentation, in her book On Stage, of her artistic approach and her method of applying the Alexander Technique to her teaching and artistic practice. It is a call to arms: we must urgently rethink our relationship with our body, as a partner in much in our work: in music and on the stage, as in our everyday life. We must not to protect ourselves in today's all-encompassing, ever-accelerating, ultra-material, consumerist society...

This book describes Agnès de Brunhoff's fascinating career, guiding those who have come to her to help them connect with their true artistic identity, be that the vocal, vocal or instrumental. It describes the tools she has developed over decades of research with artists, working out what they require in order to blossom.

This book addresses the oft ignored need to take time – the time required for us to connect with our deepest self. It takes a new look at the artist in today's world, and presents an innovative approach to education.

Falling in Love With Darkness Osho,2019-06-15 We have polluted our planet Earth with light Light pollution excessive and obtrusive artificial light with bright neon and LED lights in our cities and in our personal space continuously illuminated and artificial has removed something incredibly valuable from our lives and at the same time affected our ability to sleep rest and relax Falling in Love with Darkness is Osho s attempt to bring us again in contact with darkness but here in a spiritual and psychological context Why do we desire light he asks Why do we hanker so much for light Perhaps we never realize that the desire for light is a symbol of the fear rooted within us it is a symbol of fear We want light so that we can become free of that fear The mind is afraid in the dark The fear of darkness is based on the fear of being alone the fear of being alone comes together with the fear of darkness Darkness has its own bliss without falling in love with darkness you will be deprived of the capacity to love the great truths of life Next time you find yourself in darkness take a direct look into it and you will discover that it is not so frightening after all When darkness surrounds you become absorbed in it become one with it And you will find that darkness offers you something that light can never give you All the important mysteries of life are hidden in darkness These are talks by Osho given at a meditation camp where he introduces people in a direct and practical way to an understanding of meditation as a way to get acquainted with darkness to re discover that darkness is peace relaxation and stillness all through the simple method of witnessing Meditation means discovering the one who is beyond all happening and has never been a part of anything

philosophy from an Asian perspective It sheds new light on a problem central in modern Western thought Yuasa shows that Eastern philosophy has generally formulated its view of mind body unity as an achievement a state to be acquired rather than as essential or innate Depending on the individual s own developmental state the mind body connection can vary from near dissociation to almost perfect integration Whereas Western mind body theories have typically asked what the mind body is Yuasa asks how the mind body relation varies on a spectrum from the psychotic to the yogi from the debilitated to the athletic from the awkward novice to the master musician Yuasa first examines various Asian texts dealing with Buddhist meditation kundalini yoga acupuncture ethics and epistemology developing a concept of the dark consciousness not identical with the psychoanalytic unconscious as a vehicle for explaining their basic view He shows that the mind body image found in those texts has a striking correlation to themes in contemporary French phenomenology Jungian psychoanalysis psychomatic medicine and neurophysiology The book clears the ground for a provocative meeting between East and West establishing a philosophical region on which science and religion can be mutually illuminating
