Lost in Vegas Edward Anchel, 2010-06-25 David Atlas is a middle aged partner in a Florida law firm who suddenly finds himself with a free weekend after his wife Elaine books a short Caribbean cruise with a girlfriend After choosing to ignore several legitimate reasons to stay home David books a four day escape to Las Vegas Immediately after David hears he is about to receive a presidential appointment to the SEC he embarks on a trip to Sin City that turns out to be nothing like what he anticipated When he steps into a cab with a driver who refuses to talk and offers him a drink with more ingredients than alcohol Davids intuition tells him something is wrong and hes right As the cab driver pulls into a convenience store parking lot David is jumped by two men and a hood is slipped over his head Suddenly David is immersed in a chain of events that prove too difficult for him to navigate by himself As David travels through the bowels of Las Vegas he realizes he is a player not at the blackjack table as he had originally planned but as an unwilling but active participant in an evolving saga that will soon overtake his entire life

Bodies in Suspense Alanna Thain, 2017-03-28 Bodies in Suspense presents a powerful new way to think through postdigital cinema and the affective turn in critical theory According to Alanna Thain suspense films allow us to experience the relation between two bodies that of the film and that of the viewer Through the time machine of suspense film form gender genre and spectatorship are revealed in innovative and different ways These films not only engage us directly in ethical concerns but also provide a key for understanding corporeal power in the digital era Offering a new framework for understanding cinematic suspense Bodies in Suspense argues that the body in time enables us to experience the temporal dimension of the body directly This is the first book to link two contemporary frames of analysis questions of cinematic temporality and contemporary affect theory Thain conducts close readings of influential suspense films by Alfred Hitchcock David Lynch Christian Marclay Rian Johnson and Lou Ye and sets forth a compelling new theory of cinema reading for the productivity of the crime of time that stages the duplicity of cinematic bodies Through these films that foreground doubled characters and looping Thain explores Gilles Deleuze s claim that the direct time image is the phantom which has always haunted cinema A vital new addition to film theory corporeality and affect theory feminist theory and the philosophy of time and one of the first books to explore David Lynch's Hollywood trilogy Bodies in Suspense asks us to pay attention above all to the ways in which the condition of spectatorship creates a doubling sensation with important philosophical repercussions
