Myth Of Greater Albania:

The Myth of Greater Albania Paulin Kola, 2003-07-01 When Kosovar Albanians came to Albania after the fall of Communism they were surprised to find an impoverished motherland whose people were consumed with questions of basic survival Albania's citizens for their part were dumbstruck by the relatively opulent lifestyles of the Kosovars Yet despite their profound differences the myth of a Greater Albania persists In this timely book Paulin Kola challenges this myth arguing that there is not widespread support for a Greater Albania among the Albanian speaking peoples He shows that Albanians do not wish to join a single politically recognized entity and demonstrates how the Albanians are marked by ideological religious and other divisions While a Greater Kosovo remains a remote possibility there is little chance of the Albanians of either Albania or the diaspora supporting moves to dissolve the present international borders in pursuit of an Albanian homeland Albanians appear content to retain their discrete political entities while traveling and trading freely Accessible and urgent this book effectively puts to rest the cherished myths of Albanian nationalism

The Albanian National Question and the Myth of Greater Albania United States Army War College, 2014-03-31 In order to know what the Albanian National Question ANQ is one should learn it not from what its neighbors namely Serbia and Greece have to say but from a more direct and reliable source the voice of the Albanians themselves No nation is in a position in which it can express in a realistic way the needs the rights and aspirations of a different nation in the same way as an individual cannot be an exact representative for someone but himself For many years the Western countries used to rely on either Serbian or Greek lenses for the ANQ In the late 1990s the U S led intervention against Serbia over Kosova on humanitarian grounds and the Albanian insurgency in Macedonia has contributed to an altered power balance in the region The neighbors frightened by the power shift in the Southern Balkans use their propaganda machinery to express the danger posed by the alleged Greater Albania scheme in order to demonize and morally downgrade the ANQ However one can easily see that Albanians since the creation of their state have not are not and will not pursue an irredentist agenda toward their neighbors
