Myth, Ritual And Religion Vol. 1 Andrew Lang, 2023-12-01 Andrew Lang a Scottish anthropologist and folklorist wrote the landmark work Myth Ritual and Religion Volume 1 This work contributes significantly to anthropology and religious studies In this volume Lang investigates the interdependence of myth ritual and theology in a variety of cultures and communities He delves into myths and rituals from various civilizations including ancient Greece Rome Egypt and indigenous cultures Lang studies how myths and rituals can commonly play an important role in molding a society's religious beliefs and practices He investigates the symbolic value of myths and rituals emphasizing their role in understanding the mysteries of life death and the natural world Lang's work is notable for its comparative technique which connects nations in order to discover universal themes and patterns in myth and ritual He contends that these traditions and ceremonies are not merely historical relics but they continue to influence present religious practices and ideals Some stories are brutal and weird while others creep up on you and draw you in slowly With an eye catching new cover and professionally typeset copy this edition of Myth Ritual and Religion Vol 1 is both current and intelligible

Alfred Loisy and the Making of History of Religions Annelies Lannoy, 2020-08-10 This monograph studies the professionalization of History of religions as an academic discipline in late 19th and early 20th century France and Europe Its common thread is the work of the French Modernist priest and later Professor of History of religions at the Collège de France Alfred Loisy 1857-1940 who participated in many of the most topical debates among French and international historians of religions Unlike his well studied Modernist theology Loisy's writings on comparative religion and his rich interactions with famous scholars like F Cumont M Mauss or J G Frazer remain largely unknown This monograph is the first to paint a comprehensive picture of his career as a historian of religions before and after his excommunication in 1908 Through a contextual analysis of publications by Loisy and contemporaries and a large corpus of private correspondence it illuminates the scientification of the discipline between 1890-1920 and its deep entanglement with religion politics and society Particular attention is also given to the role of national and transnational scholarly networks and the way they controlled the theoretical and institutional frameworks for studying the history of religions

Re-Wiring The Ancient Novel, 2 Volume set Edmund Cueva, Stephen Harrison, Hugh Mason, William Owens, Sandra Schwartz, 2019-02-28 The Fifth International Conference on the Ancient Novel which was held in Houston Texas in the fall of 2015 brought together scholars and students of the ancient novel from all over the world in order to share new and significant developments about this fascinating field of study and its important place in the field of Classical Studies The essays contained in these two volumes are clear evidence that the ancient novel has become a valuable part of the Classics canon and its scholarly attempts to understand the ancient Graeco Roman world

A Magic Still Dwells Kimberley C. Patton, Benjamin C. Ray, 2000-01-11 In this assessment of the field of comparative religion this text surmounts the seemingly intractable division between postmodern scholars who reject the comparative endeavour and those who affirm it It brings together leading historians of religion from a range of backgrounds and vantage points

The Selected Writings of Andrew Lang Tom Hubbard, 2017-01-12 A novelist poet literary critic and anthropologist Andrew Lang is best known for his publications on folklore mythology and religion many have grown up with the colour Fairy Books which he compiled between 1889 and 1910 This three volume set presents a selection of his work in these areas The first volume covers the general and theoretical aspects of Lang's work on folklore mythology and anthropology along with the tools and concepts which he used in his often combative contributions to these inter related disciplines As a companion to the first volume the second is comprised of various case studies made by Lang ranging from The Aryan Races of Peru and The Folk lore of France to Irish Fairies and The Ballads Scottish and English The third volume arranges his literary criticism first by geo cultural context and then chronologically It begins with Lang's views on the nature and purpose of fiction then presents samples of his work on some of the most important authors in the respective canons of French American Scottish and English literature including Victor Hugo Edgar Allan Poe Robert Burns and Charles Dickens among many others mainly of the nineteenth century Collectively the General Introduction to the set and the Introductions to the individual volumes offer a thorough overview of Lang's work in an astonishing variety of fields including his translation work on Homer and his contributions to historiography particularly Scottish The Introduction to Volume III sets Lang within the context of the literature of his times comparing and contrasting him with significant contemporaries Headnotes to the individual items are of varying length and provide more detail on specific topics and explanatory notes supply unique intellectual comment rather than merely factual information

True Myth James W. Menzies, 2014-09-25 Each generation asks in its own way What does it mean to be human In True Myth James Menzies addresses this question by exploring myth and religion in the thinking of mythologist Joseph Campbell and Oxford don C S Lewis Joseph Campbell understood Christianity as comprised of mythical themes similar to those in other religious and secular myths Admitting that certain portions of the biblical record are historical he taught the theological and miraculous aspects as symbolic as stories in which the reader discovers what it means to be human today C S Lewis defined Christianity and being truly human as a relationship between the personal Creator and his creation mediated through faith in his son Jesus Christ In contrast to Campbell Lewis took the theological and miraculous literally Although Lewis understood how one could see symbolism and lessons for life in miraculous events he believed they were more than symbolic and indeed took place in human history Not only does Menzies consider the ways Campbell and Lewis utilize myth in answering the question for their generation but he also probes the influence and presence of myth in philosophy media ethics history literature art music and religion in a contemporary context

thus helping readers consider answers for their own age
