The Poem in the Story Harold Scheub, 2002-12-05 Fact and fiction meet at the boundaries the betwixt and between where transformations occur This is the area of ambiguity where fiction and fact become endowed with meaning and this is the area where ambiguity irony and metaphor join forces that Harold Scheub exposes in all its nuanced and evocative complexity in The Poem in the Story In a career devoted to exploring the art of the African storyteller Scheub has conducted some of the most interesting and provocative investigations into nonverbal aspects of storytelling the complex relationship between artist and audience and most dramatically the role played by poetry in storytelling This book is his most daring effort yet an unconventional work that searches out what makes a story artistically engaging and emotionally evocative the metaphorical center that Scheub calls the poem in the story Drawing on extensive fieldwork in southern Africa and decades of experience as a researcher and teacher Scheub develops an original approach a blend of field notes diary entries photographs and texts of stories and poems that guides readers into a new way of viewing even experiencing meaning in a story Though this work is largely focused on African storytelling its universal applications emerge when Scheub brings the work of storytellers as different as Shakespeare and Faulkner into the discussion

Elizabeth Weiser, 2017-09-25 In today s diverse societies museums are the primary institutions within the public sphere in which individuals can both engage critical thought and celebrate community This volume uses the lens of rhetoric to explore the role these societal repositories play in establishing and altering cultural heritage and national identity Based on fieldwork conducted in over sixty museums in twenty two countries across six continents Museum Rhetoric explores how heritage museum exhibits persuade visitors to unite their own sense of identity with that of the broader civic society and how the latter changes in response Elizabeth Weiser examines what compels communities organizations and nations to create museum spaces and how museums operate as sites of both civic engagement and rhetorical persuasion Moving beyond rhetorical explorations of museums as memory sites she shows how they intentionally straddle the divides between style and content intellect and affect and unity and diversity and why their portrayal of the past matters to civic life and particularly studies of nationalism in the present and future Deeply researched and artfully argued Museum Rhetoric sheds light on the public impact of cultural and aesthetic heritage and opens avenues of inquiry for scholars of museum studies and public history

Technology and the Soul Wolfgang Giegerich, 2020-04-13 C G Jung famously declared that it is not the psyche that is in us but rather we who are in the psyche Updating this insight the second volume of Wolfgang Giegerich s Collected English Papers examines what must be regarded as the most all encompassing presence of our lives today technological civilization Living within technology we now find that what we had formerly regarded as psychological phenomena our feelings and emotions images and dreams have been superseded by phenomena bearing the predicates artificial manufactured and virtual Television the World Wide Web and the nuclear bomb are cases in point Far from being mere things among things each of these has transformed the whole of man s world relation Though deplored by many as soulless on this account these phenomena it may be argued are the real gods the real archetypes of the soul today Psychologically it is not what we think and feel about them that counts but what they think what they feel
