Christ's New Address Bruce L. Taylor, 2021-11-18 Christ's New Address completes a six volume series of sermons by Bruce Taylor based on the Common Lectionary Revised Together they provide a theologically rich sacramentally reflective ecumenically compatible and biblically centered collection of proclamations for Sundays and major feast days An appendix to this volume offers a sermon preached as a departure from the lectionary following the tornado that devastated Norman Oklahoma when the author was serving as a pastor in Ponca City His sermons bear strong evidence of his commitment to Christian unity and dedication to the church's heritage as well as his conviction of its contemporary relevance through corporate witness and individual discipleship Included in this compilation for the second half of the church year featuring Gospel readings from Luke are several story sermons that illustrate the use of this form of preaching within the lectionary framework Christ's New Address is offered for use by preachers and devotional readers alike who will find it an engaging invitation to the beauty of sacramental worship and the comfort and challenge of the scripture passages that are commended for Christian worship in the lectionary cycle

Living in Death's Shadow Emily K. Abel, 2017-02-28 Challenging assumptions about caregiving for those dying of chronic illness What is it like to live with and love someone whose death while delayed is nevertheless foretold In Living in Death's Shadow Emily K Abel an expert on the history of death and dying examines memoirs written between 1965 and 2014 by family members of people who died from chronic disease In earlier eras death generally occurred quickly from acute illnesses but as chronic disease became the major cause of mortality many people continued to live with terminal diagnoses for months and even years Illuminating the excruciatingly painful experience of coping with a family member's extended fatal illness Abel analyzes the political personal cultural and medical dimensions of these struggles The book focuses on three significant developments that transformed the experiences of those dying and their intimates the passage of Medicare and Medicaid the growing use of high tech treatments at the end of life and the rise of a movement to humanize the care of dying people It questions the exalted value placed on acceptance of mortality as well as the notion that it is always better to die at home than in an institution Ultimately Living in Death's Shadow emphasizes the need to shift attention from the drama of death to the entire course of a serious chronic disease The chapters follow a common narrative of life threatening disease learning the diagnosis deciding whether to enroll in a clinical trial acknowledging or struggling against the limits of medicine receiving care at home and in a hospital or nursing home and obtaining palliative and hospice care Living in Death's Shadow is essential reading for everyone seeking to understand what it means to live with someone suffering from a chronic fatal condition including cancer AIDS Alzheimer's and heart disease

, Find Your Story, Write Your Memoir Lynn C. Miller, Lisa Lenard-Cook, 2013-05-31 Every person has a story to tell but few beginners know how to uncover their story's narrative potential And despite a growing interest among students and creative writers few guides to the genre of memoirs and creative nonfiction highlight compelling storytelling strategies

Addressing this gap the authors provide a guide to memoir writing that shows how an aspiring writer can use storytelling tools and tactics borrowed from fiction to weave personal experiences into the shape of a story

Slow Narrative and Nonhuman Materialities Marco Caracciolo, 2022-03 2024 Barbara Perkins and George Perkins Prize Slow Narrative and Nonhuman Materialities investigates how the experience of slowness in contemporary narrative practices can create a vision of interconnectedness between human communities and the nonhuman world Here slowness is not a matter of measurable time but a transformative experience for audiences of contemporary narratives engaging with the ecological crisis While climate change is a scientific abstraction the imagination of slowness turns it into a deeply embodied and affective experience Marco Caracciolo explores the value of slowness in dialogue with a wide range of narratives in various media from prose fiction to comic books to video games He argues that we need patience and an eye for complex patterns in order to recognize the multiple threads that link human communities and the slow moving processes of climate and geological history Decelerating attention offers important insight into human societies relations with the nonhuman materialities of Earth s physical landscapes ecosystems and atmosphere Caracciolo centers the experiential effects of narrative and offers a range of theoretically grounded readings that complement the formal language of narrative theory These close readings demonstrate that slowness is not a matter of measurable time but a thickening of attention that reveals the deeply multithreaded nature of reality The importance of this realization cannot be overstated through an investment in the here and now of experience slow narrative can help us manage the uncertainty of living in an era marked by dramatically shifting climate patterns

Archaeologies of an Uncertain Future Karen McPherson, 2006-12-15 An apocalyptic vision of planetary self destruction provided the context for many late twentieth century narratives Women writers from Quebec and English Canada including Margaret Atwood Madeleine Ouellette Michalska Madeleine Gagnon Betsy Warland Marie Claire Blais and Nicole Brossard redefined their relationship to time and narrative in order to tell a different perhaps more hopeful story Using archaeology as a trope and a

Muirhead, 2024-05-31 Unemployment poverty and the role of the state were themes which structured the discourse of social theory and the developing social legislation in Britain at the end of the Victorian period and the early twentieth century This collection examines the neglected contribution of Bernard and Helen Bosanquet to that contemporary maelstrom of ideas about the condition of the people the process of social reform and the practice of social work Like their contemporaries Sidney and Beatrice Webb the Bosanquets were a significant partnership integrating philosophy and practice theory and action Bernard Bosanquet the Idealist philosopher is best known for his study The Philosophical Theory of the State His wife Helen economist and social worker was a member of the Royal Commission on the Poor Laws 1905-9 and between 1909 and 1921 editor of the Charity Organisation Review Themselves selective supporters of state welfare schemes they helped to refashion the Charity Organisation Society away from its nineteenth century individualism by their advocacy of organic social collectivism But character self development and responsibility remained central tenets of their welfare programme This collection republishes most of the Bosanquets principal books and articles relating to the philosophy of the state and the practice of welfare The development of their ideas in the context of their own time and their relevance to current debates in the theory and practice of welfare forms the basis of a substantial introduction by David Gladstone the series editor This Volume charts the life of Bernard Bosanquet A. S. Byatt and Intellectual Women Leanne Bibby, 2022-08-30 This monograph is a study of the work of British author A S Byatt exploring the cultural representation of the woman intellectual in her fiction It argues that Byatt's representations of this figure show narratives of intellectual women to be inherently mythopoeic or capable of restructuring the myth of the intellectual as male by default This mythopoeia is furthermore intrinsically feminist in function thus potentially broadening the conventional limited view of women in intellectual history The book will be the first study of Byatt's work to examine this figure in detail and the first study of women intellectuals in historical and literary discourse to apply concepts of mythopoeia and sexual difference in ways that allow new readings of women's status and work in public spheres The Wedding Party H.E. Bates, 2015-09-15 The Wedding Party first published in 1965 Michael Joseph is a collection of short stories evoking both the dark and light and the comedy and tragedy in human nature Bates employs a deceptive delicateness of touch in his descriptions and character sketches here mastering the true essentials of the art of the short story he says much by saying little what is left out more poignant than the words on the page With a host of larger than life characters we meet the scheming and eccentric Aunt Leonora who fibs her way through the comic tale The Picnic The collection also unites two loveable rogues Captain Poopdeck and Uncle Silas and brings us the farcical tale Early One Morning which provide a sharp contrast with the sombre and haunting tones of pieces like The Primrose Place and The Winter Sound and the lyrical but bitter episode of The Wedding Party itself Annual Report Pennsylvania.
