WHAT IS A CIVIC NATION? A Republic of Shared

Dreams LEVENT CAGLAR,2025-03-24 What is a Civic Nation A Republic of Shared Dreams is a profound inquiry into the origins contradictions and future of civic nationalism As the second volume in Levent a lar s philosophical political series The Life of Nations it carries forward a rigorous intellectual journey that began with What is a Nation offering readers an enriched understanding of how national identities are constructed contested and reimaged in modern society While many discussions on nationalism revolve around ethnicity language or state sovereignty a lar challenges these assumptions by turning the focus toward civil society moral agency and emotional solidarity At a time when authoritarian populism and ethnonationalist fervor dominate political discourse across the globe What is a Civic Nation reclaims nationalism from its most dangerous impulses and proposes a revolutionary alternative rooted in dignity freedom and shared humanity Drawing on political theory sociology history and moral philosophy the book traces how civic nations emerge not through coercive power or mythologized pasts but through shared ideals ethical institutions and democratic participation It explores the historical evolution of classical nations the influence of capitalism and industrial society and the transformative power of Enlightenment thought Yet this is no nostalgic return to liberal universalism a lar confronts head on the contradictions of civic life the tension between individual freedom and collective belonging the suppression of moral diversity by state institutions and the fragility of democratic values in a market driven world One of the book s most powerful contributions is its insistence on the role of emotion in nationhood Far from reducing nationalism to cold political structures a lar treats love memory longing and fear as core to the human condition and central to the formation of nations Civic nationalism in his vision is not a sterile contract but a living moral community It is built not just on legal citizenship but on mutual recognition moral responsibility and the freedom to dissent The book also provides a critical examination of regimes that have weaponized nationalism for authoritarian control offering T rkiye as a central case study It critiques idealist notions of national identity imposed by the state and explores how historical memory and cultural pluralism are manipulated or erased in service of political power Through this lens a lar exposes the tragic consequences of conflating state legitimacy with national belonging Yet What is a Civic Nation is not merely a work of critique it is a visionary proposal It offers a new language for thinking about national community one that is inclusive without being homogenizing emotional without being fanatical and morally grounded without being dogmatic It challenges readers to imagine a nation not as an inheritance of blood but as a republic of shared dreams a space where dignity justice and difference can coexist in creative tension For academics students policymakers and general readers alike this book is both a philosophical meditation and a political manifesto It dares to ask In a fragmented world can we still imagine nations as instruments of human liberation rather than domination Can we reclaim the moral soul of citizenship and build societies that honor both the individual and the collective Levent a lar writes with both analytical precision and poetic depth His prose weaves abstract theory with lived experience systemic critique with emotional insight With clarity passion and courage he invites us into a conversation not just about what nations are but what they might yet become In an era where walls are rising divisions are deepening and truth is contested What is a Civic Nation offers a bold necessary and hopeful intervention It is a book for our time and a blueprint for a more humane future     Chicorel Index to Mental Health Book Reviews ,1975     Self, Identity, and Social Movements Sheldon Stryker,Timothy Joseph Owens,Robert W.
