

Written In Very Early Youth

*CALM is all nature as a resting wheel,
The kine are couched upon the dewy grass;
The horse alone, seen dimly as I pass,
Is cropping audibly his later meal:
Dark is the ground; a slumber seems to steal
O'er vale, and mountain, and the starless sky.
Now, in this blank of things, a harmony,
Home-felt, and home-created, comes to heal
That grief for which the senses still supply
Fresh food; for only then, when memory
Is hushed, am I at rest. My Friends! restrain
Those busy cares that would allay my pain;
Oh! leave me to myself, nor let me feel
The officious touch that makes me droop again.*

Poems Written in Early Youth George Meredith,1909 The Making of T.S. Eliot Joseph Maddrey,2009-05-13 This chronological survey of major influences on T S Eliot s worldview covers the poet s spiritual and intellectual evolution in stages by trying to see the world as Eliot did It examines his childhood influences as well as the literary influences that inspired him to write his earliest poetry his life as an American expatriate living in London from 1915 to 1930 including his ill fated marriage and his intellectual engagement with the literary traditions of his new country and the ways in which his intellectual pursuits fostered a spiritual rebirth that simultaneously reflected his past and revealed his future demonstrating how the early Romantic revolutionary became a staunch defender of tradition Poems Written Abroad Stephen Spender,2019-07-01 Poems Written Abroad is the first publication of the earliest collection of poetry by the famous poet novelist literary critic translator and radical Sir Stephen Spender 1909 1995 Spender wrote and compiled this manuscript in 1927 when he was living in Nantes and Lausanne In tone and diction Spender s poems range from creatively traditional to unexpectedly innovative They reflect his reading in Shakespeare and French poetry as well as his absorption in music and modern art They also document his struggles with his sexual identity and his emerging desire to devote his life at whatever cost to the writing of poetry This beautiful facsimile edition authorized by the Spender estate faithfully reproduces the features of the original manuscript now held by the Lilly Library including the frontispiece an ink drawing by Spender himself and little known photographs of the poet The editor s extensive introduction and detailed explanatory notes situate Spender s juvenilia in the context of his life and work and the history of modern poetry The volume will appeal to readers with interests in modern poetry gender studies and fine books
