Poetry Of Postwar Japan By Hajime Kijima:

The Poetry of Postwar Japan 田代三郎,1975      The Postwar Development of Japanese Studies in the United States Helen Hardacre,2023-07-17 The present volume documents the postwar history of United States scholarship on Japan A careful selection of North American scholars under the general editorship of Helen Hardacre Reischauer Institute Professor of Japanese Religions and Society at Harvard University shows that a range of factors have directed Japanese studies in the United States since 1945 Among these factors are social and political change in Japan and the United States shifts in dominant scholarly concerns about Japan and changing evaluations of area studies The work consists of twelve essays in a wide variety of fields history art religion literature anthropology political science and law Each essay chronicles postwar scholarship in its particular discipline and provides a useful bibliography to serve further reference The general aim of the volume is to put current debates in historical perspective and to help assess the field s achievements It identifies areas requiring more work and charts directions for the future      The Postwar Developments of Japanese Studies in the United States Helen Hardacre,1998 This volume of twelve essays with useful bibliographies in the fields of history art religion literature anthropology political science and law documents the history of United States scholarship on Japan since 1945      Modern Japanese Poetry Albert Richard Davis,1979      The Columbia Companion to Modern East Asian Literature Joshua S. Mostow,2003-07-10 This extraordinary one volume guide to the modern literatures of China Japan and Korea is the definitive reference work on the subject in the English language With more than one hundred articles that show how a host of authors and literary movements have contributed to the general literary development of their respective countries this companion is an essential starting point for the study of East Asian literatures Comprehensive thematic essays introduce each geographical section with historical overviews and surveys of persistent themes in the literature examined including nationalism gender family relations and sexuality Following the thematic essays are the individual entries over forty for China over fifty for Japan and almost thirty for Korea featuring everything from detailed analyses of the works of Tanizaki Jun ichiro and Murakami Haruki to far ranging explorations of avant garde fiction in China and postwar novels in Korea Arrayed chronologically each entry is self contained though extensive cross referencing affords readers the opportunity to gain a more synoptic view of the work author or movement The unrivaled opportunities for comparative analysis alone make this unique companion an indispensable reference for anyone interested in the burgeoning field of Asian literature Although the literatures of China Japan and Korea are each allotted separate sections the editors constantly kept an eye open to those writers works and movements that transcend national boundaries This includes for example Chinese authors who lived and wrote in Japan Japanese authors who wrote in classical Chinese and Korean authors who write in Japanese whether under the colonial occupation or because they are resident in Japan The waves of modernization can be seen as reaching each of these countries in a staggered fashion with eddies and back flows between them then complicating the picture further This volume provides a vivid sense of this dynamic interplay Dawn to the West, 1999 Donald Keene's definitive history of modern Japanese literature is an achievement beyond the range and scope of any other western writer Food and Literature Gitanjali G. Shahani, 2018-06-28 This volume examines food as subject form landscape polemic and aesthetic statement in literature With essays analyzing food and race queer food intoxicated poets avant garde food writing vegetarianism the recipe the supermarket food comics and vampiric eating this collection brings together fascinating work from leading scholars in the field It is the first volume to offer an overview of literary food studies and reflect on its origins developments and applications Taking up maxims such as we are what we eat it traces the origins of literary food studies and examines key questions in cultural texts from different global literary traditions It charts the trajectories of the field in relation to work in critical race studies postcolonial studies and children's literature positing an omnivorous method for the field at large
