Recognizing Islam Religion And Society In The Modern Middle East:

Recognizing Islam, 1990 Recognizing Islam Michael Gilson, 1982 The recent crises in the Arab world have flooded the media with sensationalist portraits of Islam as a threatening and irrational presence that moves whole societies to cultural assertiveness political intransigence and economic frenzy In Recognizing Islam Michael Gilson a historian and anthropologist offers an original and much needed understanding of the complex role of religion in the turbulent Middle East a powerful challenge to the Western view of Islam as monolithic and all determining the key to the Arab mind and to a whole series of otherwise inexplicable events and institutions Drawing extensively on twenty years of fieldwork in cities villages and tribal communities in the Middle East Gilson explores a variety of social worlds that all claim Islamic affiliation the feudal aristocracy of northern Lebanon the working class Sufi brotherhoods of Egypt the new bourgeoisie of Algeria and Morocco In each he shows how Islam evolves in relation to shifting social political economic and class structures even as it helps to shape them Gilson restores to Islam and Islamic societies the variation and breadth of a living tradition that we grant as a matter of course to Christian religion and Christian society At once evocative and informative his work provides the nuanced portrait of Islam that is now more indispensable than ever

Islamic China Rian Thum, 2025-11-25 Islamic China traces the interlinked stories of twenty Chinese Muslims across the centuries spanning ethnic groups sects and imperial borders Collectively their experiences point to the ordinariness of Islam within China even as Muslims have been subject to centuries of minoritization under myriad Chinese regimes

Islam and

Modernity Muhammad Khalid Masud, 2009-08-18 Recent events have focused attention on the perceived differences and tensions between the Muslim world and the modern West As a major strand of Western public discourse has it Islam appears resistant to internal development and remains inherently pre modern However Muslim societies have experienced most of the same structural changes that have impacted upon all societies massive urbanisation mass education dramatically increased communication the emergence of new types of institutions and associations some measure of political mobilisation and major transformations of the economy These developments are accompanied by a wide range of social movements and by complex and varied religious and ideological debates This textbook is a pioneering study providing an introduction to and overview of the debates and questions that have emerged regarding Islam and modernity Key issues are selected to give readers an understanding of the complexity of the phenomenon from a variety of disciplinary perspectives The various manifestations of modernity in Muslim life discussed include social change and the transformation of political and religious institutions gender politics changing legal regimes devotional practices and forms of religious association shifts in religious authority and modern developments in Muslim religious thought

Re-centering the Sufi Shrine Irfan Moeen Khan, 2023-01-30 Recentering the Sufi Shrine is a study of ritual Sufi eschatology and vernacular theopoetics of pilgrimage to Sufi shrines in the Indus region of Pakistan The book examines the distinction between two different ritual contestations over pilgrimage to Sufi tombs 1 an exposition of ariqa i Muhammadiyya s millenarian Scripturalist reform of Sufism and 2 Bulleh Shah s d 1767 vernacular Sufism a hard hitting Sufi poet of textual bookish knowledge of religious scholars This is the first work examining the legal theology of ritual intervention in using scripture to regulate the resurrected bodies of saints on the one hand and the ritual metaphysics of presence in understanding the significance and meaning of Sufi shrines on the other

The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern, 2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike

Performing Islam Azam Torab, 2007 Performing Islam focuses on a wide spectrum of ritual activities in Iran today as a key for elucidating social cultural and political processes but in particular the values and beliefs underpinning gender constructions in a rapidly changing complex society The New Blackwell Companion to the Sociology of Religion Bryan S. Turner, 2016-10-03 THE NEW BLACKWELL COMPANION TO THE Sociology of Religion I enjoyed reading this book for its in depth examination of the complexities of the social forces that are shaping and are being shaped by religious groups around the world I certainly see this being of theoretical value for researchers engaging the new religious realities of our world Sociology of Religion A Quarterly Review The new companion is a timely and valuable work validly updating the original companion and a good addition to the reference shelves of any academic or specialist library Reference Reviews Reflecting recent developments in the field this companion provides a comprehensive introduction to the sociology of religion with a clear emphasis on comparative and historical approaches Covering all the areas relevant to undergraduate courses in this area the Companion begins by laying down the anthropological and sociological foundations of the study of religion and their contemporary developments It continues with an analysis of both traditional and contemporary forms of organization such as church sect typologies as well as megachurches and modern forms of spirituality The secularization and post secular society debates are considered in depth along with the globalization process fundamentalism charismatic movements and revivalism It also discusses the sociology of Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and religions of China as well as the areas of American exceptionalism from de Tocqueville onwards religious nationalism women and piety movements and the spirituality of Native American communities Considering new developments in social theory and religion the collection concludes with a discussion of recent work that attempts to understand the future of religion blending the sociology of modern societies anthropological ethnography and philosophical inquiry Islamic Mysticism Contested I.J.F. de Jong, Bernd Radtke, 2021-09-20 Islamic mysticism was contested from the formative period of Islam till the present Criticism of and opposition to mystical conceptions of Islam and their adherents constitute an integral part of an ongoing debate inside the Islamic tradition Controversies and polemics concerning Islamic mysticism often shaped and coincided with socio political configurations This volume results from a collective effort by a group of Islamicists and area specialists with a variety of disciplinary orientations to arrive at a comprehensive view of these controversies and polemics wherever and whenever found The thirty five contributions and the introduction are united in their historicising approach while taking into account the wider socio political context Detailed indexes facilitate consultation of the work and give it an added value as work of reference and research tool Working Out Egypt Wilson Chacko Jacob, 2011-01-14 Describes how attempts to create a modern Egyptian self free from the colonial gaze were enacted through discourses of gender and sexuality during the British colonial period The Sociology of Islam Bryan S. Turner, Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir, 2016-03-03 Taking a thematic approach Bryan S Turner draws together his writings which explore the relationship between Islam and the ideas of Western social thinkers Turner engages with the broad categories of capitalism orientalism modernity gender and citizenship among others as he examines how Muslims adapt to changing times and how Islam has come to be managed by those in power The Longest Journey Eric Tagliacozzo, 2013-04-25 The pilgrimage to Mecca or Hajj has been a yearly phenomenon of great importance in Muslim lands for well over one thousand years Each year millions of pilgrims from throughout the Dar al Islam or Islamic world stretching from Morocco east to Indonesia make the trip to Mecca as one of the five pillars of their faith By the end of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth fully half of all pilgrims making the journey in any given year could come from Southeast Asia The Longest Journey spanning eleven modern nation states and seven centuries is the first book to offer a history of the Hajj from one of Islam's largest and most important regions Power, Sect and State in Syria A. Maria A. Kastrinou, 2016-03-31 The Syrian state's rhetoric of Arab nationalism left little room for the official recognition of minority identities in pre war Syria Yet in practice the state continually engaged with the Druze and other minorities to reinforce its legitimacy often through cultural policy Uncovering this neglected aspect of pre war Syrian politics Kastrinou explores the cultural politics of marriage in Syria primarily among the Druze to reveal how practical rituals of marriage inform sectarian and national identity formation Challenging the assumed inherence of sectarianism and Druze endogamy the book provides an historical and ethnographic account of political power and its relation to social control in Syria It demonstrates the centrality of the body to Druze cosmology and how ritual performances of birth marriage and death maintain and negotiate sectarian cohesion Connecting these struggles to national and international politics Kastrinou examines how both the Syrian government and the European Union have sponsored marriage themed dance performances in Syria each leveraging its cultural importance to legitimise their own policy goals The book establishes marriage as a pervasive idiom for the construction of collective identity in Syria which is appropriated by individuals sects states and intergovernmental organizations alike Its conclusions are relevant to scholars of Middle East studies sectarianism anthropology and politics Shi'ism in Southeast Asia Chiara Formichi, R. Michael Feener, 2015 Serious academic work that moves away from the polemical sectarian discourses on shi'ism in southeast Asia
