

Singing the Blues with Rock, Raptn Roll

Sixth-grade General Music Blues Unit

Ann Winze

OBJECTIVE

Students will compose a Chicago blues arrangement with Rock, Raptn Roll software. The arrangement is to be three choruses in length and will accompany blues lyrics previously written by the students.

PURPOSE

Sixth-grade students have completed the following activities in their study of jazz and the blues:

- Listen to and discuss various jazz and blues recordings.
- Perform and record 2Orffinn Blues by Laurie Zentz on Orff mallet instruments.
- Write and record blues lyrics over a given 12-bar blues progression in GarageBand.

The Rock, Raptn Roll exercise will help students identify the instrumentation of the Chicago blues and reinforce their understanding of 12-bar blues progression. Students will also be required to compose within a given form.

MATERIALS NEEDED

- Computer Lab with Rock, Raptn Roll CD ROM installed on each computer
- Administrative Computer with projection capability
- Headphones for each computer
- Microphone
- Blues Lyrics

ANTICIPATORY SET

- Students listen to 2Mannish Boys by Muddy Waters and identify the instrumentation in their musical journals.
- Students also listen to and identify the instruments used in Robert Johnson's 2Cross Road Blues.
- Compare and contrast the instrumentation of both pieces.

PROCEDURE

- Students review the form of the 12-bar blues.
- Open the blues page from the menu of Rock, Raptn Roll on the administrator computer and demonstrate the various functions.
- Allow students five minutes to experiment with the different sound loops.

Developing an All-School Model for Elementary Integrative Music Learning Carol E. Reed-Jones, 2014-03 The purpose of this study was to investigate the potential for increasing informal music making in elementary school culture and create a model of such music making Precedence for this model can be found in the literature of ethnomusicology educational psychology and learning theory multicultural music education and cultural anthropology Literature from four distinct traditions and contexts of music making in integrative sociocultural contexts sub Saharan African ngoma and Community Music as manifested in New Orleans second lines old time music and dance and summer camp music making was parsed with a philosophical lens to determine and assess possible areas of intersection between these four participatory cultures and North American public school culture Each of these five areas was examined through a comprehensive review of literature to define their salient characteristics These characteristics were sorted to determine commonalities between areas and the zones of intersection became the basis for a speculative model of integrative music learning featuring the inclusion of musical opportunities and interludes throughout the school day thus taking school music beyond the confines of the music room Instruction in music classes would still continue enhanced in this model by supplemental learning opportunities inspired by the informal learning of traditional world musics the participatory practice of New Orleans second line parades old time music and dance and summer camp music culture This model of integrative learning is also informed by current educational best practices such as child centered learning peer tutoring experiential learning and multicultural perspectives It acknowledges the diversity of traditions consulted while aiming for the unity in their seemingly disparate disciplines Five universal characteristics were uncovered in the search for areas of intersection between North American elementary school culture child culture ngoma music making and Community Music style music making in New Orleans old time music and dance and summer camp contexts a Song b play c informal learning as evidenced by oral tradition peer tutoring self learning d kinesthetic learning and e contextualized learning as evidenced in the sociocultural uses of music and situated learning This model strives for the enactment of school music as a vital and integral part of daily school culture
