The Voiding of Being William Desmond, 2020 In contemporary philosophy the status indeed the very viability of metaphysics is a much contested issue The reflections offered here explore diverse aspects of this contested status and offer a defense of metaphysics In other works perhaps most fully in Being and the Between William Desmond has tried to develop what he calls a metaxological metaphysics in response to different skeptical if not hostile approaches to metaphysics quite common in our time The Voiding of Being complements the systematic dimensions of this metaxological metaphysics outlined in Being and the Between It presents a set of studies which amplify important themes in the unfolding of modern metaphysics in relation to major earlier and contemporary thinkers while adding nuance to what is involved in the more systematic articulation of a metaxological metaphysics There is what the author calls a voiding of being in modernity expressed in diverse developments of thought The Voiding of Being might seem to conjure up too negative associations but the aim of the thoughts gathered here is not at all negative While attempting to understand the voiding of being in modern thought our appreciation of the promise of metaphysical thinking can also be renewed and indeed extended extended beyond skepticism and hostility to metaphysics Desmond engages many interlocutors along the way from the long tradition such as Heraclitus Aquinas and Hegel as well as more contemporary thinkers like Heidegger and Marion As the book's subtitle suggests it is concerned with the continued doing of metaphysics and not only the contemporary undoing of it Reading James Joyce A. Nicholas Fagnoli, Michael Patrick Gillespie, 2023-03-24 Reading James Joyce is a ready at hand compendium and all encompassing interpretive guide designed for teachers and students approaching Joyce's writings for the first time guiding readers to better understand Joyce's works and the background from which they emerged Meticulously organized this text situates readers within the world of Joyce including biographical exploration discussion of Joyce's innovations and prominent works such as Dubliners Ulysses and Finnegans Wake surveys of significant critical approaches to Joyce's writings and examples of alternative readings and contemporary responses Each chapter will provide interpretive approaches to contemporary literary theories and key issues including end of chapter strategies and extended readings for further engagement This book also includes shorter assessments of Joyce's lesser known works critical writings drama poetry letters epiphanies and personal recollections to contextualize the creative and social environments from which his most notable publications arose This uniquely comprehensive guide to Joyce will be an invaluable and comprehensive resource for readers exploring the influential world of Joyce studies The Polyphonic Machine Niall H.D. Geraghty, 2019-01-29 Focusing on the work of the Argentine authors César Aira Marcelo Cohen and Ricardo Piglia The Polyphonic Machine conducts a close analysis of the interrelations between capitalism and political violence in late twentieth century Argentina Taking a long historical view the book considers the most recent Argentine dictatorship of 1976-1983 together with its antecedents and its after effects exploring the transformations in power relations and conceptions of resistance which accompanied the political developments experienced throughout this period By tracing allusive fragments of Argentine political history and drawing on a range of literary and theoretical sources Geraghty proposes that Aira Cohen and Piglia propound a common analysis of Argentine politics during the twentieth century and construct a synergetic philosophical critique of capitalism and political violence The book thus constitutes a radical reappraisal of three of the most important authors in contemporary Argentine literature and contributes to the philosophical and historical understanding of the most recent Argentine military government and their systematic plan of state terrorism A Guide Through Finnegans Wake Edmund L. Epstein, 2009 Recognized as one of the world's foremost Joyce scholars Edmund Lloyd Epstein has been reading and thinking about Joyce for more than fifty years His considerable experience and enthusiasm are presented here as a useful guide to readers of Finnegans Wake one that emphasizes the continuity the long currents within Joyce's oceanic masterpiece He offers clues to untangling the interconnections among the elements and sections of the Wake along with commentary that helps explain the broad range of literary criticism that has been written on the novel This accessible guide approaches the daunting work in a way that provides handrails for first time readers while at the same time presenting new insights for anyone approaching the work for the second third or twentieth time Book jacket The Major Literary Seminars of Jacques Lacan Santanu Biswas, 2024-08-20 The Major Literary Seminars of Jacques Lacan considers the three key phases of Lacan's interest in literary topics Santanu Biswas first examines the seminars given between 1955 and 1961 in which Lacan spoke on Edgar Allan Poe's short story The Purloined Letter, Hamlet, Sophocles' Antigone and Paul Claudel's The Co fontaine Trilogy and where literature is related to meaning. This is followed by an exploration of Lacan's seminar on Lituraterre in 1971 wherein Lacan elaborates on the different ways in which literature appeared to turn towards lituraterre. Finally Biswas considers Lacan's 1975/1976 seminar on James Joyce who created literature out of litter and was concerned with jouissance rather than with meaning. The Major Literary Seminars of Jacques Lacan will be of great interest to Lacanian psychoanalysts, other mental health practitioners interested in the teachings of Lacan and academics and students of Lacanian studies, literature and psychoanalysis.

A Companion to James Joyce Richard Brown, 2013-06-06. Literary Multilingualism in the Borderlands Marianna Deganutti, 2023-08-24. This book focuses on literary multilingualism and specifically on the challenging condition of writing in Trieste, a key European borderland located at the intersection between the Latin, Germanic and Slav civilisations. By focusing on some of the most representative modern writers operating in the area such as Italo Svevo, Boris Pahor, Claudio Magris and James Joyce, this work offers a wide-ranging discussion of multilingual practices deriving from the different language choices made by these writers. Along with the most common manifest strategies such as code switching and hybridisations, Deganutti highlights how Triestine writers found innovative latent practices to engage with multilingualism such as writing in an analogical way or exploiting internal linguistic stratifications. Moreover, she shows how they provided answers to the several linguistic, cultural and even political challenges they were subjected to, with the result of redefining linguistic boundaries that clearly separate different tongues. This book will be of interest to graduate students, researchers and academics interested in literary multilingualism in the fields of sociolinguistics, borderland studies and comparative literature.

Joyce Studies Annual 2020 Philip T. Sicker, Moshe Gold, 2025-01-14. An indispensable resource for scholars and students of James Joyce. Joyce Studies Annual gathers essays by foremost scholars and emerging voices in the field.

Digital Modernism Jessica Pressman, 2014-02. Digital Modernism examines how and why some of the most innovative works of online electronic literature adapt and allude to literary modernism. Digital literature has been celebrated as a postmodern form that grows out of contemporary technologies, subjectivities and aesthetics, but this book provides an alternative genealogy. Exemplary cases show electronic literature looking back to modernism for inspiration and source material in content, form and ideology through which to critique contemporary culture In so doing this literature renews and reframes rather than rejects a literary tradition that it also reconfigures to center around media To support her argument Pressman pairs modernist works by Pound Joyce and Bob Brown with major digital works like William Poundstone's Project for the Tachistoscope Bottomless Pit 2005 Young haec Chang Heavy Industries's Dakota and Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter With each pairing she demonstrates how the modernist movement of the 1920s and 1930s laid the groundwork for the innovations of electronic literature In sum the study situates contemporary digital literature in a literary genealogy in ways that rewrite literary history and reflect back on literature's past modernism in particular to illuminate the crucial role that media played in shaping the ambitions and practices of that period

Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye B.W. Powe, 2014-01-01 Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye are two of Canada's central cultural figures colleagues and rivals whose careers unfolded in curious harmony even as their intellectual engagement was antagonistic Poet novelist essayist and philosopher B W Powe who studied with both of these formidable and influential intellectuals presents an exploration of their lives and work in Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye Apocalypse and Alchemy Powe considers the existence of a unique visionary tradition of Canadian humanism and argues that McLuhan and Frye represent fraught but complementary approaches to the study of literature and to the broader engagement with culture Examining their eloquent but often acid responses to each other Powe exposes the scholarly controversies and personal conflicts that erupted between them and notably the great commonalities in their writing and biographies Using interviews letters notebooks and their published texts Powe offers a new alchemy of their thought in which he combines the philosophical hallmarks of McLuhan's The medium is the message and Frye's the great code
