The Transjordanian Palimpsest Jeremy Michael Hutton, 2009 This study analyzes several passages in the Former Prophets 2 Sam 19 12 44 2 Kgs 2 1 18 Judg 8 4 28 from a literary perspective and argues that the text presents Transjordan as liminal in Israel's history a place from which Israel's leaders return with inaugurated or renewed authority It then traces the redactional development of Samuel Kings that led to this literary symbolism and proposes a hypothesis of continual updating and combination of texts beginning early in Israel's monarchy and continuing until the final formation of the Deuteronomistic History Several source documents may be isolated including three narratives of Saul's rise two distinct histories of David's rise and a court history that was subsequently revised with pro Solomonic additions These texts had been combined already in a Prophetic Record during the 9th c B C E with A F Campbell which was received as an integrated unit by the Deuteronomistic Historian The symbolic geography of the Jordan River and Transjordan which even extends into the New Testament was therefore not the product of a deliberate theological formulation but rather the accidental by product of the contingency of textual redaction that had as its main goal the historical presentation of Israel's life in the land Roll, Jordan, Roll Robert St. John, 1965 The life story of a river its people Roll, Jordan, roll Robert Saint John, 1965

Merchant of Words Terry Fred Horowitz, 2014-02-21 During World War II Robert St John of NBC broadcast from London opposite CBS's Edward R Murrow Afterward St John would become a noted writer and commentator on world affairs as well as a prominent and vocal supporter of the state of Israel In Merchant of Words The Life of Robert St John Terry Fred Horowitz not only documents St John's accomplishments and adventures but takes readers behind the scenes with St John who for over three quarters of a century served as a firsthand witness to history as it was being made in Europe Africa and the Middle East From his auspicious beginnings when lying about his age in order to join the U S Navy during World War I to his final days as a well established author and righteous gentile St John was both a participant and critical observer of American and world history He became the youngest newspaper editor publisher in the United States breaking a story on prostitution in Cicero Illinois that resulted in his beating by Al Capone's mob When World War II began he became a war correspondent for the Associated Press later escaping from the Nazis when they invaded Yugoslavia he was wounded by a Messerschmitt's strafing He subsequently wrote From the Land of Silent People the first full account of the fall of Yugoslavia and Greece during the war Shortly afterward he was hired by NBC as a radio broadcaster covering the Blitz in London and D Day and becoming the first commentator to announce the end of the war in Japan During the McCarthy era he was pinklisted and his passport was confiscated for a year stranding him in Switzerland During its War of Independence he started his lifelong love affair with Israel becoming the only foreign correspondent to cover in person all of its wars including the Israel Lebanon War of 1982 during which he was known as the dean of correspondents In addition to working as a regular contributor for the World Book Encyclopedia St John eventually wrote twenty three books many of them about Israel and the

Middle East These included well received biographies of David Ben Gurion Builder of Israel Eliezer Ben Yehudah Tongue of the Prophets Abba Eban Eban and Gamal Abdul Nasser The Boss The Story of Gamel Abdal Nasser Merchant of Words is a must read for anyone interested in the history of journalism and the adventures of recognized war correspondent For historians and history buffs it offers unique details from a journalist s perspective on World War II the Cold War the Red Scare Vietnam and the history of Israel and the Middle East
