Barber, 2016-03-19 Judge Aaron Jaffe Reforming Illinois is an oral history of Aaron Jaffe's legislative judicial and executive branch careers It is also a story of how the author met Judge Jaffe and gained wisdom from a master politician operating in one of America's most notorious political battlegrounds. As legislator Jaffe changed rape laws to reflect victims' perspectives. Though white he was recruited to the Black Caucus because of a better voting record than other legislators, black or white. As judge he presided over divorce laws he passed as legislator and in Chancery Court preserved the Auditorium Theatre for Roosevelt University. As chair of the Illinois Gaming Board he kept Illinois from adding other episodes to its scandal-ridden traditions. In mutual appreciation Aaron Jaffe listened to stories of genuine characters in Illinois politics that defy the imagination of fiction writers. Their hilarious foibles, machinations, and insights appear in this volume alongside Judge Jaffe's witty observations about humans as political animals.

Screwnomics Rickey Gard Diamond, 2025-07-30. The personal is not only political; it's also economic and sexual. As a society, we're encouraged to view economics as objective science, far removed from us. When in reality, it has concrete and far-reaching effects on our everyday lives. In Screwnomics, Rickey Gard Diamond shares personal stories, cartoons, and easy-to-understand economic definitions in her quest to explain the unspoken assumptions of 300 years of EconoMansplaining. The economic theory that women should always work for less or better for free. It unpacks economic definitions, turns a men-only history on its head, and highlights female experiences and solutions, encouraging female readers to think about their own economic memoir and confront our system's hyper-masculine identity. In the past fifty years, the US has witnessed a major shift in economic theory, and yet few women can identify or talk about its influence in their own lives Accessible and inspiring Screwnomics offers female readers hope for a better more inclusive future and the tools to make that hope a reality UCSF News University of California, San Francisco,1999-07 Race in the Global Era Clarence Lusane,1997 This is a provocative accessible collection that examines U S racial barriers boundaries and identities through critiques of constructed marketed and consumed images
