Los Angeles Transformed Fletcher Bowron's Urban Reform Revival 1938 1953:

Los Angeles Transformed Tom Sitton, 2005 When Fletcher Bowron 1887 1968 ran for mayor of Los Angeles in 1938 his twelve years as a superior court judge with a reputation for honesty and fairness carried him to victory against a notoriously corrupt incumbent During his nearly fifteen years as a neo progressive mayor Bowron presided over fundamental reforms in the police department public utilities and other agencies charged with basic services rooting out bribery kickbacks and influence peddling World War II brought economic and population booms racial conflict social dislocation and environmental problems to Los Angeles and complicated Mayor Bowron's job After the war Bowron initiated massive public housing and desegregation projects These forward looking programs alienated enough voters to cost him the 1953 election as his leftist supporters fell away under the influence of McCarthyism This political history of the mid twentieth century reform period in Los Angeles is also a case study of the ways outside events can affect municipal affairs As Tom Sitton demonstrates the choices made during Bowron's administration have had a direct bearing on how Los Angeles looks today and how its government operates Radical L.A. Errol Wayne Stevens, 2012-11-20 When the depression of the 1890s prompted unemployed workers from Los Angeles to join a nationwide march on Washington Coxey's Army marked the birth of radicalism in that city In this first book to trace the subsequent struggle between the radical left and L.A.'s power structure Errol Wayne Stevens tells how both sides shaped the city's character from the turn of the twentieth century through the civil rights era On the radical right Los Angeles's business elite supported by the Los Angeles Times sought the destruction of the trade union movement defended on the left by socialists Wobblies communists and other groups In portraying the conflict between leftist and capitalist visions for the future Stevens brings to life colorful personalities such as Times publisher Harrison Gray Otis and Socialist mayoral candidate Job Harriman He also re-creates events such as the 1910 bombing of the Times building the savage suppression of the 1923 longshoremen's strike and the 1965 Watts riots which signaled that L.A. politics had become divided less along class lines than by complex racial and ethnic differences The book takes stock of the rivalry between right and left over the several decades in which it repeatedly flared Radical L.A. is a balanced work of meticulous scholarship that pieces together a rich chronicle usually seen only in smaller snippets or from a single vantage point It will change the way we see the history of the City of Angels

A Cultural History of Jews in California Bruce Zuckerman, William Deverell, Lisa Ansell, 2009 With this volume of the Casden Annual Review we continue our policy of focusing on a single topic and in this case the topic we have turned to is quite literally close to home the Jewish role in California life The aim of this volume is to stress the cultural aspects of the Jewish experience of coming to and living in the Golden State While we cannot hope to present in this limited venue a comprehensive and detailed history of Jews in California per se it is our goal to consider a number of insightful perspectives on how the Jews who settled in California helped shape the Golden State's culture and were in turn themselves molded by cultural influences that were uniquely

Californian While this volume looks at the Jewish experience in California in general nonetheless particular emphasis is placed on Southern California We begin our cultural history at a crucial moment in California history the mid nineteenth century in the after glow of the California Gold Rush where we encounter a European Jewish emigrant fresh off the boat who can and did get a chance to make a fortune in the pueblo of Los Angeles and in doing so helped define what California is We conclude it with a personal meditation from one of the latest group of refugees to come to the west the Iranian Jews who were forced out of their ancient homeland some thirty years ago and who found in Southern California a particularly hospitable yet no less difficult place to transplant their cultural roots In between we are treated to a few choice snapshots of how life developed and changed for Jews in California as California itself evolved and grew We firmly believe that there is something special about the Jewish role in California and even more so in Southern California that here on the lower left coast Jews have had an Americanization experience that is significantly different from that which Jews have had elsewhere in the USA Conversely Southern California would be quite a different place without the Jews who made it their home Book jacket

Beyond Alliances George J. Sanchez, Bruce Zuckerman, 2011-12-15 This volume focuses on the special role that Jews played in reshaping the racial landscape of southern California in the twentieth century Rather than considering this issue in terms of broad analyses of organizations or communities each contribution instead approaches it by examining the activity of a single Jewish individual and how he or she navigated the social terrain of a changing southern California In particular this volume is one of the first to take seriously the unique racial ethnic makeup of southern California for Jewish activism with a particular focus on the relationship between Jews and Mexican Americans in the area around Los Angeles The Jewish individuals who are this volume's subjects represent a wide spectrum of backgrounds and perspectives ranging from an elected official to an activist lawyer and from a local businessman to a Democratic Party organizer The volume culminates with an interview with one of the most beloved of local university rabbis who has been operating in the ever changing environment of higher education in Los Angeles over the past thirty years While its overall message is one of optimism the volume does not shy away from taking on some of the more vexed issues in the scholarship of racial ethnic interaction While Jewish activism in shaping local civil rights is thoroughly discussed the specific and unequal dynamics of power within the civil rights community is also analyzed The changing relationship of Jews to whiteness in southern California during the late twentieth century in both geographic and political terms shapes many of these ongoing relationships Finally the volume provides a unique historical perspective on our understanding of contemporary Los Angeles in all its ethnic complexity and specifically in thinking through the future of Jewish role in urban southern California

Alien Neighbors, Foreign Friends Charlotte Brooks, 2009-08-01 Between the early 1900s and the late 1950s the attitudes of white Californians toward their Asian American neighbors evolved from outright hostility to relative acceptance Charlotte Brooks examines this transformation through the lens of California's urban housing markets arguing that the perceived foreignness

of Asian Americans which initially stranded them in segregated areas eventually facilitated their integration into neighborhoods that rejected other minorities Against the backdrop of cold war efforts to win Asian hearts and minds whites who saw little difference between Asians and Asian Americans increasingly advocated the latter group s access to middle class life and the residential areas that went with it But as they transformed Asian Americans into a model minority whites purposefully ignored the long backstory of Chinese and Japanese Americans early and largely failed attempts to participate in public and private housing programs As Brooks tells this multifaceted story she draws on a broad range of sources in multiple languages giving voice to an array of community leaders journalists activists and homeowners and insightfully conveying the complexity of racialized housing in a multiracial society The Development of Los Angeles City Government ,2007 South Central Dreams Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo,Manuel Pastor,2021-07-13 One of the Choice Outstanding Academic Titles for 2022 given by Choice Winner of the 2022 Latino a Section Best Book Award given by the American Sociological Association Honorable Mention for the Robert E Park Award given by the Community and Urban Sociology Section of the American Sociological Association Finalist for the 2021 C Wright Mills Award given by the Society for the Study of Social Problems Race place and identity in a changing urban America Over the last five decades South Los Angeles has undergone a remarkable demographic transition In South Central Dreams eminent scholars Pierrette Hondagneu Sotelo and Manuel Pastor follow its transformation from a historically Black neighborhood into a predominantly Latino one providing a fresh inside look at the fascinating and constantly changing relationships between these two racial and ethnic groups in California Drawing on almost two hundred interviews and statistical data Hondagneu Sotelo and Pastor explore the experiences of first and second generation Latino residents their long time Black neighbors and local civic leaders seeking to build coalitions Acknowledging early tensions between Black and Brown communities they show how Latino immigrants settled into a new country and a new neighborhood finding various ways to co exist cooperate and most recently demonstrate Black Brown solidarity at a time when both racial and ethnic communities have come under threat Hondagneu Sotelo and Pastor show how Latino and Black residents have practiced and adapted innovative strategies of belonging in a historically Black context ultimately crafting a new route to place based identity and political representation South Central Dreams illuminates how racial and ethnic demographic shifts as well as the search for identity and belonging are dramatically shaping American cities and neighborhoods around the country Feminizing the Urban West Jennifer Audrey Stevens,2008

American Newspaper Journalists on Film Johnny D. Boggs,2022-12-13 When talking pictures first appeared in cinema theaters in the late 1920s films about newspaper journalists quickly became a Hollywood mainstay These were a variety of responses from working reporters editors and photographers The newspaper film was a popular genre in the 1950s and famous films such as All the President s Men 1976 and Spotlight 2015 have depicted the power of the press Journalists have also been portrayed in films that are not specifically about newspapers appearing in noir films like Woman on the Run 1950

Westerns such as Fort Worth 1951 comedies like The Ghost and Mr Chicken 1966 musicals like Wake Up and Live 1937 and historical epics like Lawrence of Arabia 1962 A film historian and former newspaper writer the author investigates how accurately films have portrayed journalists across the decades The book also details what journalists thought of the depictions at the time contributing to brief histories and analyses for each film Featured journalist archetypes include airy reporters screaming editors photographers sportswriters and war journalists Classics misfires Westerns obscure treasures and films the press both adored and detested are all included in this comprehensive here Journal of the West ,2005
