Many Colored Objects Placed Side By Side:

Many Colored Objects Placed Side by Side Enrico Lunghi, 2000-12 Many Colored Objects Placed Side by Side to Form a Row of Many Colored Objects, 2000 Many Colored Objects Placed Side by Side to Form a Row of Many Colored Objects Casino Luxembourg, 2000 Color Chart Ann Temkin, 2008 Color Chart celebrates a paradox the lush beauty that results when contemporary artists assign colour decisions to chance readymade source or arbitrary system Midway through the 20th century long held convictions regarding the spiritual truth or scientific validity of particular colours gave way to an excitement about colour as a mass produced and standardized commercial product The Romantic quest for personal expression instead became Andy Warhol's I want to be a machine the artistry of mixing pigments was eclipsed by Frank Stella's Straight out of the can it can't get better than that This book and the exhibition it accompanies is the first devoted to this pivotal transformation and features work by some forty artists ranging from Ellsworth Kelly and Gerhard Richter to Sherrie Levine and Damien Hirst On the Museum's Ruins Douglas Crimp, 1993 What determines the significance of a work of art Does it abide eternally within the work Or is it continually constructed and reconstructed from the outside through the work's presentation The historical shift from autonomous modernist object to postmodernist critique of institutions from artwork to discursive context is the subject of Douglas Crimp's essays and Louise Lawler's photographs in On the Museum's Ruins Taking the museum as paradigmatic institution of artistic modernism Crimp surveys its historical origins and current transformations The new paradigm of postmodernism is elaborated through analyses of art practices broadly conceived not only the practices of artists but also those of critics and curators of international exhibitions and of new or refurbished museums back cover Rewriting Conceptual Art Michael Newman, Jon Bird, 1999-12-01 An international movement that followed specific geographical cultural patterns Conceptual Art built on the legacy of Marcel Duchamp redefining the institutional and social relationships among production work and audience in ways which have comprehensively transformed the nature of the art object and forms of artistic practice both historically and in the present Investigating and documenting the histories theories and forms of Conceptual Art this timely book including both established writers and a new generation of art historians shows that Conceptual Art was a broad movement encompassing a range of artistic tendencies This is the most stimulating account of the movement to date arguing forcefully for its vitality and potential as well as examining its influence on art today With essays by Alex Alberro Stephen Bann Jon Bird David Campany Helen Molesworth Michael Newman Peter Osborne Birgit Pelzer Desai Philipagesi Anne Rorimer Peter Wollen and William Wood A Show of Hands Ileana Parvu, 2024-12-13 In contrast to the divide between conception and execution advocated by Anglo American artists in the second half of the 1960s this book reappraises conceptual art by examining it from the perspective of craft The emphasis on craft shifts the focus from the Western art system to its margins where creators were relegated to the status of mere artisans in the colonial context on the pretext that attaining that of artists was beyond their reach From this peripheral point of view the book shows that work carried out with artisanal means can lead to conceptual practice Moreover this shift in perspective provides a new understanding of several positions within conceptualism which ultimately appears as an ongoing reflection on the role of the hands making and craft Look inside Mixed messages Catherine Gander, Sarah Garland, 2016-09-01 Offering a major contribution to the field of American culture and aesthetics in an interdisciplinary frame this collection assembles the cutting edge research of renowned and emerging scholars in literature and the visual arts with a foreword by Miles Orvell The volume represents the first of its kind an intervention in current interdisciplinary approaches to the intersections of the written word and the visual image that moves beyond standard theoretical approaches to consider the written and visual artwork in embodied cognitive and experiential terms Tracing a strong lineage of pragmatism romanticism surrealism and dada in American intermedial works through the nineteenth century to the present day the editors and authors of this volume chart a new and vital methodology for the study and appreciation of the correspondences between visual and verbal practices Aesthetics After Modernism Diarmuid Costello, 2024 Aesthetics after Modernism argues for the ongoing relevance of aesthetics to art after modernism In it I show that even what are typically taken to be the hardest of hard cases engage us in recognisably aesthetic ways and as such remain amenable to aesthetic analysis Why if that is true do so many art theorists critics and sometimes even artists appear to think otherwise I trace the artworld's rejection of aesthetic theory to Clement Greenberg's success in co-opting the discourse of aesthetics notably Kant's aesthetics to underwrite his own formalism about modernist art Not only has this led to Kant being tarred with the brush of Greenbergian formalism it has also led critics and theorists of later art to miss the resources of the aesthetic tradition perhaps especially Kant for capturing what is distinctive about our cognitive relation to the kinds of art that interest them There is a tendency simply to assume that Kant's aesthetics cannot speak to the more conceptual aspects of our interactions with art I trace the legacy of Greenberg's modernism and formalism for later art criticism and theory before offering an interpretation of Kant's theory of art that seeks to show otherwise I take Conceptual Art as my test case here is a form of art that often claims to forgo sensible properties altogether But if Kant's aesthetics can accommodate to our cognitive relation to art with no sensible features relevant to its appreciation as art then it should in principle withstand the challenge of any form of art Direct Action as Conceptual Art? Avi Brisman, 2025-07-04 This book offers an avenue for understanding the parameters scope meanings and impacts of environmental protest Focusing on eco-defense it explores the significance of the communiqué the written explanation of the reasons for an act of eco-defense comparing the communiqué to written texts in Conceptual art It presents and seeks to evaluate the following analogy act of eco-defense communiqué work of conceptual art written declaration statement By considering the communiqué in this light this book helps us better comprehend the rationales for radical environmentalism undertaken for the purposes of reducing environmental harms natural resource exploitation and animal abuse Curating As Ethics Jean-Paul Martinon, 2020-01-28 A new ethics for the global practice of curating Today everyone is a curator What was once considered a hallowed expertise is now a commonplace and global activity Can this new worldwide activity be ethical and if yes how This book argues that curating can be more than just selecting organizing and presenting information in galleries or online Curating can also constitute an ethics one of acquiring arranging and distributing an always conjectural knowledge about the world Curating as Ethics is primarily philosophical in scope evading normative approaches to ethics in favor of an intuitive ethics that operates at the threshold of thought and action It explores the work of authors as diverse as Heidegger Spinoza Meillassoux Mudimbe Chalier and Kofman Jean Paul Martinon begins with the fabric of these ethics how it stems from matter how it addresses death how it apprehends interhuman relationships In the second part he establishes the ground on which the ethics is based the things that make up the curatorial for example the textual and visual evidence or the digital medium The final part focuses on the activity of curating as such sharing caring preparing dispensing and so on With its invigorating new approach to curatorial studies Curating as Ethics moves beyond the field of museum and exhibition studies to provide an ethics for anyone engaged in this highly visible activity including those using social media as a curatorial endeavor and shows how philosophy and curating can work together to articulate the world today Situation Aesthetics Kirsi

Peltomaki,2014-02-14 The first book length study of this influential artist s work focusing on the participatory role of the human subject rather than the art object Michael Asher doesn t make typical installations Instead he extracts his art from the institutions in which it is shown culling it from collections histories or museums own walls Since the late 1960s Asher has been creating situations that have not only taught us about the conditions and contexts of contemporary art but have worked to define it In Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltom ki examines Asher s practice by analyzing the social situations that the artist constructs in his work for viewers participants and institutional representatives including gallery directors curators and other museum staff members Drawing on art criticism the reports of viewers and participants in Asher s projects and the artist s own archives Peltom ki offers a comprehensive account of Asher s work over the past four decades Because of the intensely site specific nature of this work as well as the artist s refusal to reconstruct past works or mount retrospectives many of the projects Peltom ki discusses are described here for the first time By emphasizing the social and psychological sites of art rather than the production of autonomous art objects Peltom ki argues Asher constructs experientially complex situations that profoundly affect those who encounter them bringing about both personal and institutional transformation
