representing different degrees of enlightenment and tolerance struggling to express a complete and independent feminine identity in the face of the confining but often seductive roles that convention and tradition impose on female potential The Human Family provides a subtle and nuanced perspective on European feminist writing from the turn of the last century by a woman writer who was intimately involved with the literary mainstream of her time and whose theoretical and literary works played a significant role in feminist debates of the period prefiguring present day feminist discourse on essentialism and constructivism

The Man in the Pulpit Ruth Rehmann, 1997-01-01 The Man in the Pulpit is a courageous autobiographical novel by the distinguished and widely praised German novelist Ruth Rehmann Its narrator like Rehmann herself is a middle class citizen of West Germany in the 1970s more than a quarter century after the horrors of the Nazi years Prodded by questions from her children the narrator begins to reexamine her childhood and the father a stern imposing Lutheran minister who dominated it Her memories lead her to a fresh painful understanding of how her father who died in 1940 tragically reconciled himself to the moral and political outrages of National Socialism The father's moral compromises stand in large measure for the failures of Germany as a whole His critical views of the Weimar Republic his apolitical stance in the face of Nazi aggression the unsatisfactory guidance he offers his family and parishioners all contribute to the portrait of a man who fails to find sufficient moral understanding and resolve in the face of the Nazi nightmare As her story unfolds Rehmann provides uncommon insights into how the terrible alliance in Germany between those who were honorable and those who were dishonorable could have occurred From the opening memory of father and daughter walking together singing and joking to the final deathbed scene there is no episode no emotion that does not vibrate with restrained intensity The relationship between daughter and father is both distant and intimate simple and complex happy and angry and it always takes place in a larger historical context

The Terrible But Unfinished Story of Norodom Sihanouk, King of Cambodia Hélène Cixous, 1994-01-01 No contemporary French feminist has made a bigger impact in America than Hélène Cixous Brilliant bold and combative author of numerous novels and a gargantuan study of James Joyce and sponsor of a series of notorious seminars at the University of Paris about women's writing she has exploited the roles of femme fatale and maitresse d education in a career that has been spectacularly defiant and productive Sihanouk is one of Cixous's most ambitious projects the dramatic portrayal of the conflicts between old and new East and West North and South religion and politics At its center is the figure of Norodom Sihanouk Vain when a prince as king Sihanouk discovered his responsibility to his country and came to embody Cambodia He used every means to keep his country growing healthy and out of the wars of Southeast Asia that consumed Laos and Vietnam Cixous recognized in Sihanouk a historical figure as fascinating as a tragic king in Shakespeare a man of uncommon intelligence on whom his country's history pivoted a man placed by fate into a world of bad choices and surrounded by powerful and relentless antagonists But Sihanouk gave Cixous something more a king who is indisputably modern who has read and loved Shakespeare and whose story continues First published in 1985 the play begins with Sihanouk's abdication in 1955 and ends with his arrest by the Khmer Rouge two decades later The destiny of an entire country unfolds through the fifty characters who appear on stage

Century of Locusts Malika Mokeddem, 2006-01-01 What first appears as a tiny moving shadow no bigger than a fly on the dazzling horizon slowly reveals itself as the grim shape of violence and death in the destruction left behind the mother's broken body the hidden child the crying infant begins the story of wandering and loss of exile and desolation that sounds all the sad echoes of disappearing Bedouin life Set in the first half of the twentieth century Malika Mokeddem's Century of Locusts combines the magic of exquisitely wrought desert landscapes the intrigue of Bedouin tales of madmen and poets and the personal pain of exile and isolation to evoke a way of life destroyed by the scourge of settler colonialism The book tells the braided tales of those left to resist a wandering poet and his mute stricken daughter Yasmine the lunatic Majnoun and Majnoun's murderous sidekick Hassan who twitches and squints with malevolence lurking along the story's shadowy borders Rippling ever outward with allusions and echoes the tale eventually encompasses Algeria's legendary past its colonial injustices and its uncertain future even as Mokeddem's poetry and deft touch confer life and hope on the ravaged body of this desert land
