On Their Own Making The Transition From School To Work In The Information Age:

On Their Own? Stewart Crysdale, Alan J. C. King, Nancy Mandell, 1999 Uses a sample of 324 young adults in four Canadian urban centers who left high school in the mid 1980s as well as interviews with their parents former teachers and employers to identify factors that ease the transition from school to work Looks at factors such as level of education social class gender and motivation with emphasis on the importance of cooperative education Suggests closer relations between school and work such as exist in the UK and Sweden to facilitate transition into the labor market Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Resources in Education ,2001 Prestige Squeeze John Goyder, 2009-10 What do you do is often the first question posed when strangers meet as occupation reveals a great deal about both social identity and social standing or occupational prestige Ibss: Economics: 1999 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2000-12-07 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Youth Policies and Services in Chinese Societies Steven Sek-yum Ngai, Chau-kiu Cheung, Ngan-pun Ngai, 2018-02-02 In recent decades much of youth research in Chinese societies has sought to understand the transformation of the younger generation and their social environment in the context of globalization deindustrialization and economic insecurity The epochal events of the global economic transformation and financial crisis along with long term Chinese social trends such as rising unemployment income disparity and migration are in the process of creating new structural relations between young people and related social actors Accordingly this book charts the current conditions of youth services and policies in Chinese societies by examining case studies in Beijing Jinan Shanghai Tianjin and Hong Kong The chapters address the related issues stemming from unemployment volunteering internal migration economic disadvantages school social work and leadership training Through comparative analyses of the aforementioned issues the collection highlights contemporary issues in Chinese youth policies and services including work commitment social inclusion social support from family and teachers volunteering and leadership training The book argues that the strengthening of empowerment and social inclusion in Chinese youth services offers a solution to problems of alienation powerlessness and underclass status The quest for social inclusion therefore merits renewed attention in the youth policies and services of Chinese societies This was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Adolescence and Youth The Sociology of Education in Canada Terry Wotherspoon, 2004 In this revised and updated second edition of The Sociology of Education in Canada Terry Wotherspoon traces the historical development and organization of Canadian education and describes sociological theories and analysis of education Sociological Abstracts ,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Choice ,2001 Telling the Stories of Life through Guided Autobiography Groups James E. Birren,Kathryn N. Cochran,2003-05-22 Telling the Stories of Life through Guided Autobiography Groups based on James Birren s 25 years of conducting autobiography groups discusses all the topics an organizer faces while developing a program for adults who want to recall and write down their life histories This book is ideal for adult education programs church groups social workers psychologists gerontologists and others who work with adults who might be interested in exploring recording or sharing their personal histories It helps professionals and trained workshop leaders at community centers senior centers schools and other settings guide group participants in exploring major themes of their lives so that they can organize and write their stories and share them in a group with others on the same journey This exercise is rewarding for adults of any age in a period of transition or with interest in gaining insight from their own stories Personal development and a feeling of connection to other participants and their stories is a natural outcome of this process This book provides background material and detailed lesson plans for those who wish to develop and lead an autobiography group The authors explain the concept of guided autobiography discuss the benefits to the group participants and provide logistical information on how to plan organize and set up a group An appendix provides exercises handouts and suggested adaptations for specific groups The book also explains a systematic method of priming memories including the history of family and of one s life work the role of money health and the body and ideas about death At a time when rapid change has created a widespread yearning to write down and exchange personal accounts sharing life stories can reveal a great deal about how we have come to be the persons we are Telling the Stories of Life through Guided Autobiography Groups shows how to organize record and share life experiences through a proven and effective technique Congressional Record United States.

Congress,1997 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress
It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions

Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 The Future of Lifelong Learning and Work
,2008-01-01 Concern with learning throughout life has become pervasive in market driven societies Will most workers need to become more continuous learners in a new knowledge based economy or will much of their learning be ignored or devalued in relation to their work These papers critically assess dominant views of learning and work The book is unique in examining changing relations between learning and work in terms of unpaid work and informal learning as well as paid employment and formal education The book is organized in terms of five basic themes GENERAL PERSPECTIVES assesses learning and work relations in the new economy in terms of different concepts of learning and work and contending theories of education employment relations SOCIAL JUSTICE looks at uneven dislocating effects of globalization on gender discrimination in information technology work working conditions in the public sector student transitions to work and disability in work and learning PRECARIOUS EMPLOYMENT analyzes the general working conditions and learning constraints of temporary part time workers with a particular focus on call centre and garment workers APPRENTICESHIPS offers an international review of the nature and future trajectory of apprenticeship systems and a case study of the challenges of a high school trades preparation program MULTIPLE LITERACIES identifies needed abilities including coping with diverse cultures languages and environmental change as well as use of information technologies The material in this volume emerges from the conference on The Future of Lifelong Learning and Work held at the University of Toronto in June 2005 This conference was one of the cluminating efforts of the Work and Lifelong Learning international research network based in Canada The contributions were produced by members of this network as well as associates of the Centre for the Study of Education and Work at OISE UT and are complemented by the work of selected leading international voices in the field of learning and work Canadian Social Trends ,2003 Federal Prison Industries (FPI) United States.
