On The Margins Nordic Women Modernists Of The 1930s:

On the Margins Ellen Rees, 2005 This study examines the work of six women prose writers of the 1930s placing them for the first time within the broader context of European and American literary modernism These writers Stina Aronson Karen Blixen Karo Espeseth Hagar Olsson Cora Sandel and Edith Oberg have been doubly marginalized Their work has long been viewed as anomalous within the Scandinavian literary canon but apart from Karen Blixen it also remains marginalized from examinations of women writers produced outside Scandinavia Themes in their work include representations of consciousness hybridity and experimentation with literary forms Each writer s work exhibits a strong sense of ambiguity which takes many forms and challenges received notions about identity

Fascism and Modernist Literature in Norway Dean

Krouk, 2017-09-19 Fascism and Modernist Literature in Norway illuminates the connections between literature and politics in interwar Europe Focusing on the works of Nobel Prize winning novelist Knut Hamsun and modernist poets Asmund Sveen and Rolf Jacobsen all of whom collaborated with the Nazi regime during the occupation of Norway in World War II and those of the anti fascist novelist and critic Sigurd Hoel Dean Krouk reveals key aspects of the modernist literary imagination in Norway In their writings Hamsun Sveen and Jacobsen expressed their discontent with twentieth century European modernity which they perceived as overly rationalized or nihilistic Krouk explains how fascism offered these writers a seductive utopian vision that intersected with the countercultural and avant garde aspects of their literary works while Hoel s critical analysis of Nazism extended to a questioning of all patriarchal forms of authority Krouk s readings of their works serve as a timely reminder to us all of the dangers of fascism

The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms Mark Wollaeger, Matt

Eatough, 2013-10 The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms expands the scope of modernism beyond its traditional focus on English and Irish literature to explore the contributions of artists from countries and regions like the US Cuba Spain the Balkans China Japan India Vietnam and Nigeria

Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Literature and Theater Jan

Sjåvik, 2006-04-19 The literature of Scandinavia is amazingly rich and varied consisting of the works produced by the countries of Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and Iceland and stretching from the ancient Norse Sagas to the present day While much of it is unknown outside of the region some has gained worldwide popularity including the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen the stories of Isak Dinesen and the plays of Henrik Ibsen and August Strindberg While obviously including the area s most famous works the Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Literature and Theater also provides information on lesser known authors and currents trends literary circles and journals and historical background This is accomplished through a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries which together make this reference the most comprehensive and up to date work of its kind related to Scandinavian literature and theater available anywhere

Following the Animal Ann-Sofie Lønnegren, 2015-09-10 Literary transformations from human to animal have occurred in myths folklore fairy tales and narratives from all over the world since ancient times and have always provided a narrative space for depictions of power agency and the radical nature of change In Following the Animal these transformations are analysed with regards to their use in modern literature from northern most Europe with specific attention being paid to the insights they provide regarding the human animal relationship both generally in the industrialized West and against the background of more specific circumstances in the Nordic area In three analytic chapters focusing respectively on Swedish author August Strindberg s novel Tschandala 1887 Finnish author Aino Kallas s novel The Wolf s Bride 1928 and Danish author Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen s short story The Monkey 1934 along with discussions of a range of other authors and texts the reader is introduced to several traditions of literary production that both connect to and differ from Anglophone and other literature in fascinating ways In addition to the insights it provides concerning the uses of human animal transformations in modern Nordic literature and their significance in relation to the question of the animal Following the Animal also offers literary scholars and students alike a series of useable and transferable strategies for approaching texts from a more than anthropocentric human animal studies perspective In phrasing and employing the interpretational method of following the animal over the text's surface up metaphorical elevations down material wormholes and in constant dialogue with previous research this book contributes greatly to both human animal literary studies specifically and to the field of literary scholarship generally in both an international and northern European context
