understand history to inform current evidence based practice there is no book focusing on our progressive pioneers in public health and environmental health This book seeks to fill that gap It examines carefully selected public and environmental health pioneers who made a real difference to the UK s health some with international influence Many of these pioneers were criticised in their life times yet they had the strength of character to know what they were doing was fundamentally right and persevered often against many odds Including chapters on Thomas Fresh John Snow Duncan of Liverpool Margaret McMillan George Cadbury Christopher Addison Margery Spring Rice and others This book will help readers place pioneers in a wider context and to make more sense of their academic and practitioner work today how evidence and what was historically understood by it underpins modern day practice and how these visionary pioneers developed their ideas into practice some not fully appreciated until after their own deaths Pioneers in Public Health sets the tone for a renewed focus on research into evidence based public and environmental health which has become subject of growing international interest in recent years

The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends Simon Young, 2022-06-27 Winner of the 2023 Brian McConnell Book Award from the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research In the last fifty years folklorists have amassed an extraordinary corpus of contemporary legends including the Choking Doberman the Eaten Ticket and the Vanishing Hitchhiker But what about the urban legends of the past These legends and tales have rarely been collected and when they occasionally appear they do so as ancestors or precursors of the urban legends of today rather than as stories in their own right In The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends Simon Young fills this gap for British folklore and for the wider English speaking world of the 1800s Young introduces seventy Victorian urban legends ranging from Beetle Eyes to the Shoplifter s Dilemma and from Hands in the Muff to the Suicide Club While a handful of these stories are already known the vast majority have never been identified and they have certainly never received scholarly treatment Young begins the volume with a lengthy introduction assessing nineteenth century media emphasizing the importance of the written word to the perpetuation and preservation of these myths He draws on numerous nineteenth century books periodicals and ephemera including digitized newspaper archives particularly the British Newspaper Archive an exciting new hunting ground for folklorists The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends will appeal to an academic audience as well as to anyone who is interested in urban legends

The British Seaborne Empire Jeremy Black, Professor Jeremy Black, 2004-01-01 Britain s seaborne tradition is used to throw light on the British themselves the people with whom they came into contact and the British perception of empire The oceans and their shores rather than the mysterious interiors of continents certainly dominated the English perception of the transoceanic world in the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries climaxing in the fascination with the Pacific in the age of Captain Cook and continuing into the nineteenth century with Franklin in the Arctic and Ross in the Antarctic The oceans offered much more than fascination In England from the late sixteenth century maritime conflict and imperial strength were seen as important to national morale and reputation and without it there would have been no empire or at least not in the form it actually took BOOK JACKET Literary Images of Self and Other in Irish and Ukrainian Famine Fiction Tatiana Krol, 2025-07-10 This book is a comparative imagological study of novelistic representations of the Irish and Ukrainian Great Famines It examines the formation of stereotypical perceptions between nations in Irish and Ukrainian fiction Focusing on the novels The Silent People 1962 by Walter Macken The Hungry Land 1986 by Michael Mullen Maria A Chronicle of a Life 1934 by Ulas Samchuk and Sweet Snow 2013 by Alexander J Motyl the author compares and contrasts images of the Self and the Other created in Irish and Ukrainian novels about famine and investigates ways in which stereotypical perceptions between nations are forged and disseminated The author argues that negative attitudes between people and or nations largely depend on power relations *Frommer's?
