As Kingfishers Catch Fire Alex Preston, Neil Gower, 2017-07-13 Delightful an original look at the literature inspired by Britain's birdlife the Guardian Best Nature Books of 2017 The pages light up with feathered magic Evening Standard When Alex Preston was 15 he stopped being a birdwatcher Adolescence and the scorn of his peers made him put away his binoculars leave behind the nature reserves and the quiet companionship of his fellow birders His love of birds didn't disappear though Rather it went underground and he began birdwatching in the books that he read creating his own personal anthology of nature writing that brought the birds of his childhood back to brilliant life Looking for moments when heart and bird are one Preston weaves the very best writing about birds into a personal narrative that is as much about the joy of reading and writing as it is about the thrill of wildlife Beautifully illustrated and illuminated by the celebrated graphic artist Neil Gower As Kingfishers Catch Fire is a book to love and to hold to return to again and again to marvel at the way that authors across the centuries have captured the endless grace and variety of birds It will make you look at birds at the world in a newer richer light A joyful and a wondrous book Each bird illustrated by Gower in a mixture of gouache and watercolour that brings to mind both William Morris and Eric Ravilious the Observer I can see it under the Christmas tree of every family with a bird feeder and a copy of the RSPB Handbook Preston captures his birds beautifully The Times

Avian Illuminations Boria Sax, 2021-10-13 An exquisitely illustrated journey through the complex and crucial relationship between humans and birds Avian Illuminations examines the many roles birds have played in human society from food messengers deities and pets to omens muses timekeepers custodians hunting companions decorative motifs and most importantly embodiments of our aspirations Boria Sax narrates the history of our relationships with a host of bird species including crows owls parrots falcons eagles nightingales hummingbirds and many more Along the way Sax describes how birds nesting has symbolized human romance how their flight has inspired inventors throughout history and he concludes by showing that the interconnections between birds and humans are so manifold that a world without birds would effectively mean an end to human culture itself Beautifully illustrated Avian Illuminations is a superb overview of humanity's long and rich association with our avian companions

Women Poets in the Victorian Era

Fabienne Moine, 2016-03-09 Examining the place of nature in Victorian women's poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine's study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities
