writing personal essays through high school and college and how this progressed into writing academic articles to keep her teaching position at a university in the Philippines She then narrates how her academic writing background incalculably facilitated her career as a government researcher and college instructor during more than 3 decades of her 43 year permanent residency in Canada Interweaving the stories of her writing experience with recollections of family and work life in the Philippines and Canada she draws her journey to a full circle with her once again writing literary pieces and putting them together in the three memoirs she had self published since 2019

The Transformative Power of Literature and Narrative: Promoting Positive Change Corinna Assmann, Jan Rupp, Christine Schwanecke, 2023-01-16 Narrative plays a central role for individual and collective lives this insight has arguably only grown at a time of multiple social and cultural challenges in the 21st century The present volume aims to actualize and further substantiate the case for literature and narrative taking inspiration from Vera N nning s eminent scholarship over the past decades Engaging with her formative interdisciplinary work the volume seeks to explore potentials of change through the transformative power of literature and narrative to be harnessed by individuals and groups as agents of positive change in today s world The book is located at the intersection of cognitive and cultural narratology and is concerned with the way literature affects individuals how it works at an intersubjective level enabling communication and community and how it furthers social and cultural change

Adapting Stephen King Joseph Maddrey, 2021-08-04 Stephen King s fiction has formed the basis of more motion picture adaptations than any other living author Over half a century since his earliest publications Hollywood filmmakers continue to reinvent reimagine remake and reboot King s stories with mixed results This book volume 1 in a series examines the various screen adaptations of King s first three novels Carrie Salem s Lot and The Shining Reaching further than questions of fidelity to the author and adherence to directorial visions it charts the development of each individual adaptation from first option to final cut Through old and new interviews with the writers producers and directors of these films as well as in depth analyses of produced and unproduced screenplays it illuminates the adaptation process as an intricately collaborative endeavor Rather than merely synopsise the resulting stories its goal is to compare contrast and contextualize each of these adaptations as the products of their creators

Introducing Teachers' Writing Groups Jenifer Smith, Simon Wrigley, 2015-11-06 Teachers writing groups have a significantly positive impact on pupils and their writing This timely text explains the importance of teachers writing groups and how they have evolved It outlines clearly and accessibly how teachers can set up their own highly effective writing groups In this practical and informative book the authors share the thinking and practice that is embodied by teachers writing groups provide practical support for teachers running a group or wishing to write for themselves in order to inform their practice cover major themes such as the relationship between writing teachers and the teaching of writing writing as process and pleasure writing and reflective practice writing journals and the writing workshop The authors provide a rationale for the development of writing groups for teachers and for ways of approaching writing that support adult and child writers and this rationale informs the ideas for writing throughout the book All writing and teaching suggestions have been extensively tried and tested by class teachers and will be of enormous interest to any teacher or student teacher wishing to run their own successful writing group
