Ifor Evans,2017-11-30 First published in 1933 this study which underwent revision in the 1960s is a comprehensive survey of the verse of English nineteenth century poets whose work appeared after 1860 A special feature is the full and critical treatment of minor writers In no other book is their work so carefully evaluated There is a full account of the minor Pre Raphaelites of James Thomson the poet of The City of Dreadful Night of Henley Stevenson and George MacDonald John Davidson is the subject of a long and revealing study Evans suggests that poetry from the late nineteenth century is neglected in scholarly study and that Victorian Romanticism deserves more attention than it has recently received Paradise Preserved Max F. Schulz,1985 Examines the ways in which the idea of an earthly paradise inspired English life and thought in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The Fin-de-siècle Poem Joseph Bristow,2005 Featuring innovative research by emergent and established scholars The Fin de Siecle Poem throws new light on the remarkable diversity of poetry produced at the close of the nineteenth century in England Opening with a detailed preface that shows why literary historians have frequently underrated fin de siecle poetry the collection explains how a strikingly rich body of lyrical and narrative poems anticipated many of the developments traditionally attributed to Modernism Each chapter in turn provides insights into the ways in which late nineteenth century poets represented their experiences of the city their attitudes toward sexuality their responses to empire and their interest in religious belief The eleven essays presented by editor Joseph Bristow pay renewed attention to the achievements of such legendary writers as Oscar Wilde John Davidson Ernest Dowson Lionel Johnson and W B Yeats whose careers have always been associated with the 1890s This book also explores the lesser known but equally significant advances made by notable women poets including Michael Field Amy Levy Charlotte Mew Alice Meynell A Mary F Robinson and Graham R Tomson The Fin de Siecle Poem brings together innovative research on poetry that has been typecast as the attenuated Victorianism that was rejected by Modernism The contributors underscore the remarkable innovations made in English poetry of the 1880s and 1890s and show how woman poets stood shoulder to shoulder with their better known male contemporaries Joseph Bristow is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles where he edits the journal Nineteenth Century Literature His recent books include The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Oscar Wilde Contextual Conditions and the variorum edition of Oscar Wilde s The Picture of Dorian Gray
