book was not intended to be written however after completing research in the area of enhanced surveillance I became more aware of the importance of telling this story After leaving Wichita Kansas and crisscrossing the United States I became aware that I was continually being profiled by law enforcement officers and agencies across the country The forms of this racial profiling and harassment were by local police officers in the city or town where I had stopped for food or gas Literally within minutes of my stopping a police cruiser of one form or another would magically materialize At other times it was a deputy sheriff or a helicopter or even a plane that has been used in this ongoing surveillance I ve included the locations and the various places of these particular forms of enhanced surveillance of African Americans and other minorities throughout this book
