Patriot Hearts Barbara Hambly, 2007-12-26 When Martha Dandridge Custis marries her second husband George, she never suspects that the soft-spoken Virginia planter is destined to command the founding of a nation or that she is to be Lady Washington, the woman at the first President's side. Only a select inner circle of women will know the cost of sharing a beloved man with history, and each will draw strength from the unique treasure given to them by a doomed queen. Seeing farm and family through each harsh New England season, Abigail Adams is sustained only by the fervent reunions stolen between John's journeys abroad. She will face the terror of an ocean crossing to join her husband in France and write her own page in history. And there she will cross paths with kings, commoners, and young Sally Hemings. Just as Sally had grown from a clever child to a beautiful woman, so had her relationship with Thomas Jefferson grown from a friendship between slave and master to one entangled in the complexities of black and white decorum and desire. It is a relationship that will leave Sally to face an agonizingly wrenching choice. Dolley Madison too must live with the repercussions of a forbidden love affair, although she will confront even greater trials as a President's wife. But Dolley will become one of the best-loved ladies of the White House and leave an extraordinary legacy of her own. A lushly written novel that traces the marriages tested by the demands of love and loyalty, Patriot Hearts offers readers a dazzling glimpse behind the scenes of a revolution from adversity and treachery to wartime strategies as four magnificent women shape a nation's future. The Joyous Patriot David Verney, 1989-03-27 Ralph Verney was born in 1879. His grandfather Sir Harry Verne had married as his second wife Parthenope, sister of Florence Nightingale, who was Ralph's godmother. In 1900 he joined the Rifle Brigade and was sent to South Africa where the Boer War was then in progress. A dutiful son, he wrote regularly to his parents describing every detail of his daily life. Fortunately, these letters have survived and have now been edited for publication by Ralph's own son, David. Quite apart from the intrinsic interest of what the letters actually say, they have another rarer quality in that they lay bare the standards by which a young man of aristocratic birth was then guided. Old-fashioned they may sound, but not a few still regret their passing. In 1907 Ralph became ADC to Lord Chelmsford, then Governor of Queensland, and two years later falls in love and marries Nita Walker, daughter of a distinguished Australian banker and politician. Now some of Nita's letters enliven the correspondence, and soon a baby is on the way. So too is the First World War, and Ralph finds himself back with his regiment in France, where he has what must ironically be regarded as the good fortune of the wounded. At the end of his first volume, we leave him on the road to recovery and to India, where he will shortly rejoin Lord Chelmsford. Patriot's Abound John M.

Bede III, 2014-07-15 The war in Vietnam stemmed from the war in Korea. 1950-1953 The United States gave military aid political support to the French who were fighting the Communist led forces called Viet Minh and the NLF National Liberation Front which was being supported by the Soviet Union and Communist China The French paratroopers aka the French Foreign Legion were taking a terrible beating from the enemy and sued for peace Out of this debacle was established the Geneva Accords in 1953 which ended the fighting for the time being The political and military assistance the United States sent to the newly formed ARVN Army of the Republic of Vietnam was small at first but then grew into an Army Air Force Marines Navy and Coast Guard Operation costing the United States billions of dollars before the Paris Peace Talks ended it all on October 8 1972 The CIA Central Intelligence Agency operated an airline in Southeast Asia called Air America The pilots who were good fliers became excellent fliers getting small and large cargo and passenger planes into and out of dangerous airstrips carved out of the hills and jungles These pilots did not consider themselves daredevils or adrenalin junkies They loved flying so much plus the pay was good they would hardly ever refuse a mission These guys and gals harked back to the days of the flying tigers and the pilots who flew the hump From this bunch of derring do pilots crewmen airstrip operators and communications experts was born a great cadre of patriotic personnel that today is the core of the clandestine services Most of these operatives have military backgrounds and are retired from the military
