A Body of Writing, 1990-1999 Bronwyn Davies, 2000-02-09 Weaving together her most influential writings of the 1990s Bronwyn Davies offers a unique engagement with poststructuralism that defies the boundaries between theory and embodied practice Whereas poststructuralists are often accused of excessive abstraction Davies sophisticated and nuanced discussions of subjectivity agency epistemology feminism and power are embedded in vital depictions of lived experience and empirical research A renowned scholar of education and gender formation Davies shows the importance of poststructural perspectives for her own research in classrooms on playgrounds with literary texts and her own life history Lucid prose accessible for students and refreshing for researchers and theorists alike makes postructural concepts usable as conceptual frameworks for interpreting and analyzing the social world

The Logic of Love Andrew J. B. Cameron, 2022-12-29 Overviewing what makes the intersection between emotion and ethics so confusing this book surveys an older wisdom in how to manage it using a range of Christian theologians and sources More important even than managing we begin to see a vision for a better set of affections to grow within and among us In this vision emerges a practical and nuanced account of what the Christian tradition sometime summarises as love How may we recover a deep affection for what matters both within ourselves and together in groups This book also dialogues with a new movement in moral psychology social intuitionism Cameron argues that researchers in this discipline have interests and conclusions that sometimes overlap with Christian sources even where their respective lenses differ In this way the book overviews recent trends in moral psychology against a recent historical and contemporary cultural backdrop whilst assaying major sources in Christian theology that offer guidance on moral psychology

The ^ANature of Desire Federico Lauria, Julien A. Deonna, 2017-06-01 Desires are central to our lives yet we rarely understand them What are they And are they motivational or evaluative states Should philosophy adopt an alternative picture entirely Answering these questions is vital to a number of issues in philosophy of mind and ethics This volume comprehensively explores this neglected albeit crucial dimension of the mind

Emancipatory Practices: Adult/Youth Engagement for Social and Environmental Justice , 2010-01-01 Adults and youth who are engaged in social and ecological justice in community and educational work will find this book a critical overview of the role played by adults in the joint endeavours of adults and youth Through various case studies the book offers a glimpse into the work being undertaken by a wide range of international educators and community development workers where common themes emerge across the different sites The book explores the development of and the internal and external constraints upon adult and youth emancipatory practices as well as the effective adult and youth beliefs and actions that facilitate collaborative leadership in issues of social and ecological justice The authors offer a critical examination of the degree to which youth are able to participate in decision making processes or to the extent to which they were given space and power to truly explore democratic and dialogic partnerships With an emphasis on the power dynamics inherent in adult youth relationships and the potential of these relationships to engage in democratic transformation the book examines the patterns benefits and limitations of the youth adult connections

Patterns of Desire Joyce Kozloff, 1990 An artist s exploration of the erotic through an extraordinary suite of watercolor paintings that incorporate both sexual and ornamental motifs from the great art of the world East and West in surprising and amusing juxtapositions Language, Sexualities and Desires Sakis Kyratzis, 2006-12-14 Sexualities are perceived constructed and represented in different ways in various languages and cultures This volume addresses how people use various linguistic features to construct their sexual identities and relationships and how membership of specific social groups based on sexual and lifestyle choices may be signalled through language Communities of Respect Bennett W. Helm, 2017 Bennett W Helm presents a new approach to understanding persons as responsible rational agents by developing an account of communities of respect and our place within them Through the interplay of reactive attitudes community members are held responsible to norms which shape their identities as essentially social creatures Research Division Report ,1976
