Patterns Of Episcopal Leadership:

Patterns of Episcopal Leadership Gerald P. Fogarty, 1989 Patterns of Parish Leadership Dean R. Hoge, Jackson W. Carroll, Francis K. Scheets, 1988 Patterns of Parish Leadership is a call to leadership on the part of all those who care for the future of ministry and missions

Power and Rhetoric in the Ecclesiastical Correspondence of Constantine the Great Andrew J. Pottenger, 2022-11-30 This volume closely examines patterns of rhetoric in surviving correspondence by the Roman emperor Constantine on conflicts among Christians that occurred during his reign primarily the Donatist schism and Arian controversy Commonly remembered as the first Christian emperor of the Roman Empire Constantine's rule sealed a momentous alliance between church and state for more than a millennium His well known involvement with Christianity led him to engage with two major disputes that divided his Christian subjects the Donatist schism centred from the emperor's perspective on determining the rightful bishop of Carthage and the so called Arian controversy a theological conflict about the proper understanding of the Son's divine nature in relation to that of the Father This book examines a number of letters associated with Constantine that directly address both of these disagreements exploring his point of view and motivations to better understand how and why this emperor applied his power to internal church divisions Based on a close analysis of prominent themes and their functions in the rhetoric of his correspondence Pottenger argues that three doctrines of power served to inform and direct Constantine's use of power as he engaged with these problems of schism and heresy Power and Rhetoric in the Ecclesiastical Correspondence of Constantine the Great is of interest to students and scholars of early Christianity and the history of the later Roman Empire

Communication Patterns and Communality Among Congregational Leaders William John Sadler, 1970 The Pattern of Christian Truth H. E. W. Turner, 2004-10-29 Walter Bauer's Orthodoxy and Heresy in Earliest Christianity created a stir with its argument that the teachings later condemned as heresy in the later second century onward were in fact dominant in the earliest decades of the church This full scale response by H E W Turner has not enjoyed the attention it deserves Turner's volume represents a learned and sophisticated restatement of the traditional view what became official orthodoxy was taught early on by the majority of church teachers albeit not in fully developed form

Patterns of Ministry among the First Christians Kevin Giles, 2017-07-14 This new edition of Patterns of Ministry Among the First Christians tells the story of how the first Christian leaders emerged and with the passing of time developed The book includes sections on Jesus and Paul and their understanding of Christian leadership on bishops deacons elders apostles prophets and teachers and on ordination The focus is primarily on the first century but historical development is noted The author also discusses the ways the New Testament may speak to the present

Renouncing the World Yet Leading the Church Andrea Sterk, 2009-06-30 Although an ascetic ideal of leadership had both classical and biblical roots it found particularly fertile soil in the monastic fervor of the fourth through sixth centuries Church officials were increasingly recruited from monastic communities and the monk bishop became the dominant model of ecclesiastical leadership in the Eastern Roman Empire and Byzantium In an interesting paradox Andrea Sterk explains that from the world rejecting monasteries and desert hermitages of the east came many of the most powerful leaders in the church and civil society as a whole Sterk explores the social political intellectual and theological grounding for this development Focusing on four foundational figures Basil of Caesarea Gregory of Nyssa Gregory of Nazianzus and John Chrysostom she traces the emergence of a new ideal of ecclesiastical leadership the merging of ascetic and episcopal authority embodied in the monk bishop She also studies church histories legislation and popular ascetic and hagiographical literature to show how the ideal spread and why it eventually triumphed The image of a monastic bishop became the convention in the Christian east

Renouncing the World Yet Leading the Church brings new understanding of asceticism leadership and the church in late antiquity

Doctrine and Power Carlos R. Galvao-Sobrinho, 2021-03-16 During the fourth century a d theological controversy divided Christian communities throughout the Eastern half of the Roman Empire At stake was not only the truth about God but also the authority of church leaders whose legitimacy depended on their claims to represent that truth In this book Carlos R Galvao Sobrinho argues that out of these disputes was born a new style of church leadership one in which the power of the episcopal office was greatly increased He shows how these disputes compelled church leaders repeatedly to assert their orthodoxy and legitimacy tasks that required them to mobilize their congregations and engage in action that continuously projected their power in the public arena These developments were largely the work of prelates of the first half of the fourth century but the style of command they inaugurated became the basis for a dynamic model of ecclesiastical leadership found throughout late antiquity

An Archbishop for the People Richard Gribble, 2006 The definitive biography of San Francisco's celebrated archbishop Edward J Hanna who was Archbishop of the Bay from 1912 1935 replete with photos bibliography index and endnotes

Red Pope Vefie Poels, 2023-11-15 Arriving in Rome from the Netherlands in 1895 the Catholic priest and Redemptorist Willem van Rossum 1854 1932 rose quickly through the ranks of the curia In many ways an outsider he made a resounding success of his career His zeal in the fight against the virus of modernism earned him a cardinal's hat in 1911 and he was appointed prefect of the Congregation of Propaganda Fide in 1918 As red pope or head of the Vatican's mission department Van Rossum led a hard fought and ultimately successful campaign to separate missionary policy fundraising and staffing from Western nationalism and concentrate control over the worldwide missionary project at supranational level in Rome He was the driving force behind two programmatic documents on the missions by Popes Benedict XV and Pius XI which promoted the building up of indigenous churches and the educating of native clergy thus helping to create a favourable position for the Catholic church during the subsequent wave of decolonisation In the meantime Van Rossum continued to decry Italian dominance in the church as well as the curia s inefficiencies for instance in a vituperative pamphlet that he wrote shortly before his death This scholarly biography of Willem van Rossum rescues this great strategist behind the popes of the missions from oblivion and throws fascinating light on the history of the Catholic church and the Roman curia from the late nineteenth century until far into the twentieth
