The Way to Win Frederick Bohn Fisher,1915 Northwestern Christian Advocate ,1915 The Epworth Herald ,1897 The Activist Impulse Jared S. Burkholder,David Cramer,2012-04-04 Anabaptists have often felt suspicious of American evangelicalism and in turn evangelicals have found various reasons to dismiss the Anabaptist witness Yet at various points in the past as well as the present evangelicals and Anabaptists have found ample reason for conversation and much to appreciate about each other The Activist Impulse represents the first book length examination of the complex relationship between evangelicalism and Anabaptism in the past thirty years It brings established experts and new voices together in an effort to explore the historical and theological intersection of these two rich traditions Each of the essays provides fresh insight on at least one characteristic that both evangelicals and Anabaptists share an impulse to engage society through the pursuit of active Christian witness The Activist Collector Christa Clarke,2023-02-17 Published by the Newark Museum Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press After twenty eight years of desire and determination I have visited Africa the land of my forefathers So wrote Lida Clanton Broner 1895 1982 an African American housekeeper and hairstylist from Newark New Jersey upon her return from an extraordinary nine month journey to South Africa in 1938 This epic trip was motivated not only by Broner s sense of ancestral heritage but also a grassroots resolve to connect the socio political concerns of African Americans with those of black South Africans under the segregationist policies of the time During her travels this woman of modest means circulated among South Africa s Black intellectual elite including many leaders of South Africa s freedom struggle Her lectures at Black schools on race consciousness and race pride had a decidedly political bent even as she was presented as an American beauty specialist How did Broner a working class mother come to be a globally connected activist What were her experiences as an African American woman in segregated South Africa and how did she further her work after her return Broner s remarkable story is the subject of this book which draws upon a deep visual and documentary record now held in the collection of the Newark Museum of Art This extraordinary archive includes more than one hundred and fifty objects ranging from beadwork and pottery to mission school crafts acquired by Broner in South Africa along with her diary correspondence scrapbooks and hundreds of photographs with handwritten notations
