The Ghost Reader Elena D. Hristova, Aimee-Marie Dorsten, Carol A. Stabile, 2024-03-19 The scholarship research and criticism of women who developed key theories of communication and methods for the study of media The Ghost Reader Recovering Women's Contributions to Media Studies offers a fresh perspective on the intellectual history of the field of media studies a broad scholarly field that encompasses the interdisciplinary and overlapping fields of media studies cultural studies and communication studies By recovering the work of the diverse group of women who labored at the margins of media studies as it took shape during the formative years of communication research between the 1930s and the 1950s and providing scholarly contexts for this work The Ghost Reader shows that intersectional considerations were key modes of engagement for intellectuals academics and activists who happened to be women They did so decades before feminist perspectives were reintegrated into histories of the field Abbey Road Alistair Lawrence,2012-10-16 Documents the history of the recording studio where many legendary recordings and landmark moments in music history have happened Myths of Modern History Jacques R. Pauwels,2022-05-13 Revisionist historian Jacques R Pauwels challenges readers to reconsider what they know about some key events in the last 250 years of world history At a time when it s all too easy to see history in black and white terms historian Jacques R Pauwels urges readers to let go of conventional history textbooks and re examine historical events outside the bounds of conventional ideologies and agendas Pauwels uses twelve key events from the French Revolution onwards to debunk well known accepted historical narratives in the western canon He challenges readers to rethink their views by compiling the recent work of specialized scholars whose research demonstrates that the facts contradict the myths that have been offered to explain these events Beginning with a reconsideration of the impacts of the French Revolution Pauwels finishes by dismantling the American narrative surrounding the use of nuclear weapons in the Second World War and the real rationale for the Cold War and the U S s postwar global democracy project Left Out Martin B. Duberman,2002 For four decades historian Martin Duberman has fought for a more equitable society In the process he has become one of the country s most prominent public intellectuals Presenting a summation of Duberman s views on such matters as race foreign policy gender and sexuality Left Out offers one of the best analyses of the Left s split between class based and identity based politics Book jacket Catalog of Copyright Entries.
