Poem From Jail 2nd Printing:

The Bookman's Journal with which is Incorporated The Print Collector Wilfred Partington, 1929 raúlr salinas and the Jail Machine Raúl Salinas, 2006-06-01 Raúl Salinas is regarded as one of today's most important Chicano poets and human rights activists but his passage to this place of distinction took him through four of the most brutal prisons in the country. His singular journey from individual alienation to rage to political resistance reflected the social movements occurring inside and outside of prison making his story both personal and universal. This groundbreaking collection of Salinas' journalism and personal correspondence from his years of incarceration and following his release provides a unique perspective into his spiritual, intellectual, and political metamorphosis. The book also offers an insider's view of the prison rebellion movement and its relation to the civil rights and anti-war movements of the 1960s and 1970s. The numerous letters between Salinas and his family, friends, and potential allies illustrate his burgeoning political awareness of the cause and conditions of his and his comrades' incarceration and their link to the larger political and historical web of social relations between dominant and subaltern groups. These collected pieces, as well as two interviews with Salinas (one conducted upon his release from prison in 1972, the second more than two decades later), reveal to readers the transformation of Salinas from a street hipster to a man seeking to be a part of something larger than himself. Louis Mendoza has painstakingly compiled a body of work that is autobiographical, politically insurgent, and representative.

Broken Family Bonds: Poems and Stories From Victims of Parental Alienation 2nd Edition Joan Kloth-Zanard, 2013-06-07 Parental Alienation is psychological abuse when one parent deliberately destroys the relationship between the children and the other parent or grandparent. This book is dedicated to all the families who suffer from the abuse of Parental Alienation (PAS). PAS is a form of domestic violence perpetrated using psychological abuse. The stories and poems are real. The people are real. The hurt and anger are real. Let's not forget this and work to intervene early with prevention and intervention so we can stop PAS from harming any more families.

Bookman's Journal with which is Incorporated the Print Collector, 1930 Five Long Winters John Bugg, 2013-12-18 This book argues that the British government's repression of the 1790s rivals the French Revolution as the most important historical event for our understanding the development of Romantic literature. Romanticism has long been associated with both rebellion and escapism, and much Romantic historicism traces an arc from the outburst of democratic energy in British culture triggered by the French Revolution to a dwindling of enthusiasm later in the 1790s when things in France turned violent. Writers such as Wordsworth and Coleridge can then be seen as apostates who turned from radical politics to a poetics of transcendence. Bugg argues instead for a poetics of silence, and his book is set against the backdrop of the so-called Gagging Acts and other legislation of William Pitt which in literature manifests itself stylistically as silence, stuttering, fragmentation, and encoding. Mining archives of unpublished documents including manuscripts, diaries, and letters where authors were more candid, as well as rereading the work of both major and minor figures, a number of whom were subject to prison sentences Five Long Winters offers a new way of approaching the literature of the Romantic era
