

A Memory (from A Sonnet-Sequence)

*Somewhile before the dawn I rose, and stept Softly along the dim way to your room,
And found you sleeping in the quiet gloom,
And holiness about you as you slept.
I knelt there; till your waking fingers crept
About my head, and held it. I had rest Unhoped this side of Heaven, beneath your breast.
I knelt a long time, still; nor even wept.*

*It was great wrong you did me; and for gain
Of that poor moment's kindness, and ease,
And sleepy mother-comfort!
Child, you know How easily love leaps out to dreams like these,
Who has seen them true. And love that's wakened so Takes all too long to lay asleep again.*

The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 1998-10-01 Winner of the C Hugh Holman Award A central figure in twentieth century American literature Robert Penn Warren 1905 1989 was appointed by the Library of Congress as the first Poet Laureate of the United States in 1985 Although better known for his fiction especially his novel All the King's Men it is mainly his poetry spanning sixty years fifteen volumes of verse and a wide range of styles that reveals Warren to be one of America's foremost men of letters In this indispensable volume John Burt Warren's literary executor has assembled every poem Warren ever published with the exception of Brother to Dragons including the many poems he published in The Fugitive and other magazines as well as those that appeared in his small press works and broadsides Burt has also exhaustively collated all of the published versions of Warren's poems which in some cases appeared as many as six different times with substantive revisions in every line as well as his typescripts and proofs And since Warren never seemed to reread any of his books without a pencil in his hand Burt has referred to Warren's personal library copies This comprehensive edition also contains textual notes lists of emendations and explanatory notes Warren was born and raised in Guthrie Kentucky where southern agrarian values and a predilection for storytelling were ingrained in him as a young boy By 1925 when he graduated from Vanderbilt University he was already the most promising of that exceptional set of poets and intellectuals known as the Fugitives Warren devoted most of the 1940s and 1950s to writing prose and literary criticism but from the late 1950s he composed primarily poetry with each successive volume of verse that he penned demonstrating his rigorous and growing commitment to that genre The mature visionary power and technical virtuosity of his work in the 1970s and early 1980s emanated from his strongly held belief that only insofar as the work of art establishes and expresses a self can it engage us Many of Warren's later poems which he deemed some of my best rejoice in the possibilities of old age and the poet's ability for continually expanding in a vital process of definition affirmation revision and growth a process that is the image we may say of the life process Reading and Writing Poetry with Teenagers Fredric Lown, Judith W. Steinbergh, 1996 This versatile volume combines examples of poetry from historical and contemporary masters with high school writing Each chapter contains poems for reading aloud poems for discussion models for writing exercises samples of student poems and a bibliography for extended reading Many teachers use Reading and Writing Poetry with Teenagers across disciplines Writing exercises include Animals as Symbols Family Portraits in Words Of War and Peace Writing Song Lyrics as an Expression of Social Protest The Complete Poetry of Robert Herrick Tom Cain, Ruth Connolly, 2013-11-21 Robert Herrick has long been one of the best loved of English lyric poets Known through the centuries as the author of Gather ye rosebuds he also wrote as this new edition shows hundreds of songs epigrams and longer poems equally worthy of attention Volume I of this new edition of Herrick's work contains Hesperides Herrick's only published collection As well as the commentary on Hesperides volume II contains the fifty nine surviving manuscript poems which can be firmly attributed to Herrick and on which his reputation was based before 1648 It is an ambitious and original attempt to recover for the first time the history of Herrick's corpus of manuscript poetry and to identify how his poems circulated and who his copyists and readers were By establishing the type of sources to which they had access and the nature and quality of the poems these sources contained and through the histories of transmission that accompany every poem this volume offers a significant body of evidence that deepens our critical understanding not only of Herrick's poetry but of the mechanics of scribal publication and the culture of reading writing and performing poetry and music in early modern England Where as is often the case a musical setting survives this is also printed along with a commentary on the setting in a form which is designed to encourage the performance of the lyrics

Producing Women's Poetry, 1600-1730 Gillian Wright, 2013-04-18 Producing Women's Poetry is the first specialist study to consider English language poetry by women across the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries Gillian Wright explores not only the forms and topics favoured by women but also how their verse was enabled and shaped by their textual and biographical circumstances She combines traditional literary and bibliographical approaches to address women's complex use of manuscript and print and their relationships with the male generated genres of the traditional literary canon as well as the role of agents such as scribes publishers and editors in helping to determine how women's poetry was preserved circulated and remembered Wright focuses on key figures in the emerging canon of early modern women's writing Anne Bradstreet Katherine Philips and Anne Finch alongside the work of lesser known poets Anne Southwell and Mary Monck to create a new and compelling account of early modern women's literary history Chinese Narrative Poetry Dore Jesse Levy, 1988 Chinese Narrative Poetry brings a new perspective to some of China's best loved and most influential poems including Ts'ai Yen's Poem of Affliction Po Chu yi's Song of Everlasting Sorrow and Wei Chuang's recently discovered Song of the Lady of Ch'in Composed in the shih form during the Late Han Six Dynasties and T'ang periods these poems stand out as masterworks of narrative art Yet paradoxically their narrative qualities have been little recognized or explored in either traditional Chinese or modern Western scholarship The reason for this neglect is that Western literary traditions acknowledge their origins in epic poetry and thus take narrative for granted but the Chinese tradition is fundamentally based on lyric and does not admit of a separate category for narrative poetry Drawing on both classical Chinese critical works and the most recent Western contributions to the theory of narrative Levy shows how narrative elements developed out of the lyrical conventions of shih In doing so she accomplishes a double purpose guiding the modern reader to an understanding of the nature of narrative in Chinese poetry and shedding light on the ways in which Chinese poets adapted the devices of lyric to the needs of a completely different expressive mode Students of Chinese literature will welcome this pathbreaking study but Chinese Narrative Poetry will interest other scholars as well because it addresses questions of crucial importance for literary theory and comparative literature particularly the central issue of the applicability of Western critical concepts to non Western literature and culture

Catullus Through his Books John Kyrin Schafer, 2020-03-19 Modern readings of the Roman poet Catullus work have always been constrained by doubts about the surviving text Does the sequence of our corpus reflect the artistically coherent and meaningful arrangement of the poems Why are the various parts of the collection so jarringly different in content and emotional tone To what extent if at all can we explain these shifts by appealing to Catullus famously vivid portrayals of his emotions and life circumstances Catullus Through his Books argues that we possess three separate books of poems designed by the poet himself at key moments in these books the poems dramatise the creative activity of their own composition embedding apparent autobiographical details and purportedly revealing the poet's intentions and goals These dramas of composition direct us through the poems integrating our understanding of each part and generating a holistic vision of Catullus as poet of self destroying longing and irreparable loss Representing Modernist Texts George Bornstein, 1991 Literary scholars explore the significant yet largely ignored field of textual and editorial scholarship in the work of modern

 The poetry of the Ming dynasty has been relatively neglected in scholarship of the past century and the Archaist poets of the middle Ming especially so This book attempts to redress this neglect by presenting by far the most detailed treatment available in any language of the life milieu and work of Ho Ching ming 1483 1521 While Ho's participation in the Archaist circle of Li Meng yang in his youth is confirmed the later development of his ideas is shown to move toward a stance usually thought more representative of the following century The book also argues that May Fourth accounts of the pre modern literary tradition are seriously flawed and require replacement Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice Anne Caldwell, Oz Hardwick, 2022-06-01 Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice vigorously engages with the Why and the How of prose poetry a

the early twenty first century With discussion of both classic and less well known writers the essays both illuminate prose poetry s distinctive features and explore how this outsider form can offer a unique way of viewing and describing the uncertainties and instabilities which shape our identities and our relationships with our surroundings in the early twenty first century Combining insights on the theory and practice of prose poetry Prose Poetry in Theory and Practice offers a timely and valuable contribution to the development of the form and its appreciation amongst practitioners and scholars alike Largely approached from a practitioner perspective this collection provides vivid snapshots of contemporary debates within the prose poetry field while actively contributing to the poetics and craft of the form Allen Tate and His Work Radcliffe Squires,1972-01-01

A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil

Roberts,2008-06-09 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century
