Poems From A Devon Village:

Poems from a Devon Village Doreen Beer, 1977-01-01 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets worldwide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well-known poets, talented up and coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes. International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Collected Poems Donald Davie, 1991-05-28 Donald Davie's poems are here arranged chronologically from the 1950s to the beginning of the 1990s. Taken together, the poems display that reverence for the distinctive qualities of the English language which has earned him a name as one of Britain's finest living poets. Davie's voice: judgemental, ironic, epigrammatic, humorous, self-lacerating, speaks always with reference to an unhuman, perpendicular standard that itself goes unquestioned. It is not a standard of Beauty or Truth. Davie is a poet of the third member of the Platonic triad: Justice. Helen Vendler, The New Yorker. Davie's poems are on the quiet side, often casual and musing, in mood and tone determined to resist large gestures of assent or denial. Donald Davie may just be the best English poet-critic of our time. William Pritchard, The New Republic. Donald Davie's Collected Poems does more than mark the culmination of one of the most distinguished careers in post-war British poetry; it is the autobiographical journey of a living poet at the height of his creative powers and the mastery of his craft. Davie is considered the most important and valuable contemporary link between poetry in England and America. Sarah E McNeil, Little Rock Free Press. Poems of the fields and the town John Alfred Langford, 1859 West Country Wanderings in Poetry DOREEN. BEER, 2018-06-04 Doreen Beer was born in Devon and has spent her life there, surrounded by green fields and rolling hills in the lovely Exe Valley, with glorious moorlands and beaches quite near a natural habitat for poetry to seed and grow. Her first book Poems from a Devon Village 1977 was a real success and a second edition was printed, followed by Poems from the English Countryside and then Through Nature's Voice. Doreen has always had a close affinity with the wide variety of flowers, birds and trees throughout the county. During the years spent as a carer both for her husband and later her mother, writing has been a helpful and calming relief for her. The beautiful village church where she and her two daughters were christened, confirmed and married has been an important part of her life, enriching her faith. As a former chorister and flower arranger, she has exhibited paintings and other crafts in the annual Art Festival each year. Her poems are often born so naturally and she feels this gift is given to be shared and enjoyed by all who love and appreciate creation One of Doreen s poems is included in her village magazine each month and This England has used many in their publications over the years This latest collection West Country Wanderings in Poetry contains some family history and also a few flights of fancy to make readers smile Poems Original and Translated John Herman Merivale,1838 The Cambridge Companion to

Twentieth-Century English Poetry Neil Corcoran,2007-12-13 The last century was characterised by an extraordinary flowering of the art of poetry in Britain These specially commissioned essays by some of the most highly regarded poetry critics offer a stimulating and reliable overview of English poetry of the twentieth century The opening section on contexts will both orientate readers relatively new to the field and provide provocative syntheses for those already familiar with it Following the terms introduced by this section individual chapters cover many ways of looking at the modern the modernist and the postmodern The core of the volume is made up of extensive discussions of individual poets from W B Yeats and W H Auden to contemporary poets such as Simon Armitage and Carol Ann Duffy In its coverage of the development themes and contexts of modern poetry this Companion is the most useful guide available for students lecturers and readers The Real

Mid-Victorian Poetry, 1860-1879 Catherine Reilly,2000-01-01 These two volumes list late and mid Victorian poets with brief biographical information and bibliographical details of published works The major strength of the works is the discovery of very many minor poets and their work unrecorded elsewhere *The treasury of sacred song, selected from the English lyrical poetry of four centuries, with notes, by F.T.
