Poetics Of Religious Experience The Islamic Context:

The Poetics of Religious Experience Aziz Esmail, 1998-12-31 The poetics of religious experience investigates creativity of a particular kind namely explorations in the language of symbols and metaphors which constitute the core ideas and vision of a religious tradition In examining the symbolic and imaginative features of the poetics of religious experience the author of this essay draws attention to a number of critical issues literary philosophical and historical which lie behind various interpretations of Islam and their relevance to the intellectual needs of the Muslim world today Although these themes are addressed in the Islamic context they are in fact of seminal importance to the more general problem of knowledge and interpretation and in the wider field of comparative religion human psychology and culture Literature and Religious Experience Matthew J. Smith, Caleb D. Spencer, 2022-01-13 This book challenges the status quo of studies in literature and religion by returning to experience as a bridge between theory and practice Essays focus on keywords of religious experience and demonstrate their applications in drama fiction and poetry Each chapter explores the broad significance of its keyword as a category of psychological and social behavior and tracks its unique articulation by individual authors including Conrad Beecher Stowe and Melville Together the chapters construct a critical foundation for studying literature not only from the perspectives of theology and historicism but from the ways that literary experience reflects reinforces and sometimes challenges religious experience

In-Between Identities: Signs of Islam in Contemporary American Writing John Waldmeir, 2018-09-11 For the writers and artists in In Between Identities Signs of Islam in Contemporary American Writing contemporary Muslim American identity is neither singular nor fixed Rather than dismiss the tradition in favor of more secular approaches however all of the figures here discover in Muhammad's revelation resources for affirming such uncertainty For them the Qur'anic notion of a divine sign validates creation even that creativity born of contrasting if not competing assumptions about identity To develop this claim individual chapters in the book discuss Muslim faith in the work of poets Naomi Shihab Nye Kazim Ali Tyson Amir and Amir Sulaiman novelists Mohja Kahf Rabih Alameddine and Willow Wilson illustrator Sandow Birk playwright Ayad Akhtar and the online record of the 30 Mosques in 30 Days project Jsl Vol 15-N6

A Modern History of the Ismailis Farhad Daftary, 2010-12-08 The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4.0 licence on bloomsburycollections.com Open access was funded by Islamic Publications Ltd I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies The Ismailis have enjoyed a long eventful and complex history dating back to the 8th century CE and originating in the Shi'i tradition of Islam During the medieval period Ismailis of different regions especially in central Asia south Asia Iran and Syria developed and elaborated their own distinctive literary and intellectual traditions which have made an outstanding contribution to the culture of Islam as a whole At the same time the Ismailis in the Middle Ages split into two main groups who followed different spiritual leaders The bulk of the Ismailis came to have a line of imams now represented by the Aga Khans while a smaller group known in south Asia as the Bohras developed their own type of leadership This collection is the first scholarly attempt to survey the modern history of both Ismaili groupings since the middle of the 19th century It covers a variety of topical issues and themes such as the modernising policies of the Aga Khans and also includes original studies of regional developments in Ismaili communities worldwide The contributors focus too on how the Ismailis as a religious community have responded to the twin challenges of modernity and emigration to the West A Modern History of the Ismailis will be welcomed as the most complete assessment yet published of the recent trajectory of this fascinating and influential Shi'i community

Poetry and Mysticism in Islam Amin Banani, Richard Hovannisian, Georges Sabagh, 1994-08-25 Mawlana Jalal al Din Rumi was one of the greatest poets and mystics of the Islamic world He was born in Balkh Korasan in AD 1207 and died in Konya Turkey in AD 1273 This book is an examination of his spiritual and literary heritage As Annemarie Schimmel the recipient of the Eleventh Giorgio Della Vida Award in Islamic Studies has written no other mystic and poet from the Islamic world is as well known in the West as Rumi and she more than any Western scholar is his most celebrated and eloquent interpreter The scholars who Professor Schimmel has invited to share in her tribute have all added new dimensions to an understanding of Rumi and to his impact on the Islamic world

Al-Ghazali and the Ismailis Farouk Mitha, Institute of Ismaili Studies, 2001-11-22 Al Ghazali is arguably one of the most influential thinkers in the history of Islam and his writings have received greater scholarly attention in the West than those of any other Muslim scholar This study explores an important dimension of his thought that has not yet been fully examined namely his polemical engagement with the Ismailis of the Fatimid and early Alamut periods Published in association with The Institute of Ismaili Studies

The Spirit of Tolerance in Islam Reza Shah-Kazemi, 2012-01-27 In 1932 the eminent British scholar of Islam Sir Hamilton Gibb wrote The nobility and broad tolerance of this religion Islam which accepted all the real religions of the world as God inspired will always be a glorious heritage for mankind No other society has such a record of success in uniting in an equality of status of opportunity and of endeavor so many and so various races of humanity Whither Islam Such scholarly objectivity towards the tolerance which has historically characterized the Islamic tradition as a whole is in short supply these days Through an insidious symbiosis of fanatical Muslims and prejudiced Islamophobes the very opposite image of Islam has emerged as one of the most dangerous stereotypes of our times The most cursory glance at history will not only reveal the falsity of this stereotype of an intolerant Islam it will also reveal the little known fact that not so long ago it was the Islamic world that provided models of tolerant conduct for a fanatically intolerant Christian world tearing itself apart over dogmatic differences The first part of this monograph examines the historical record of tolerance in the Islamic tradition illustrating the expression of the principle of tolerance through the rule of such dynasties as the Ottomans Mughals Fatimids and the Umayyads of Spain In the second the principle of tolerance is shown to be rooted in the spirit of the Qur'anic revelation and embodied in the exemplary conduct of the Prophet

The Construction of Belief Aziz Esmail, Abdou Filali-Ansary, 2013-02-01 Mohammed Arkoun was one of the most prominent and influential Arab intellectuals of his day During a career spanning more than thirty years he was revered as an outstanding research scholar a bold critic of the theoretical tensions embedded within Islamic Studies and an outspoken public figure upholding political social and cultural modernism This Festschrift honours Arkoun AZ's scholarship bringing together the contributions of eleven distinguished scholars of history religious studies and philosophy It offers a comprehensive selection of critical engagements with Arkoun AZ's work reflecting on his considerable influence on contemporary thinking about Islam and its ideological philosophical and theological dimensions Published in association with the Aga Khan University Institute for the study of Muslim Civilisations

Language, Eros, Being Elliot R. Wolfson, 2009-08-25 This long awaited magisterial study an unparalleled blend of philosophy poetry and philology draws on theories of sexuality phenomenology comparative religion philological writings on Kabbalah Russian formalism Wittgenstein Rosenzweig William Blake and the very physics of the time space continuum to establish what will surely be a highwater mark in work on Kabbalah Not only a study of texts Language Eros Being is perhaps the fullest confrontation of the body in Jewish studies if not in religious studies as a whole Elliot R Wolfson explores the complex gender symbolism that permeates Kabbalistic literature Focusing on the nexus of asceticism and eroticism he seeks to define the role of symbolic and poetically charged language in the erotically configured visionary imagination of the medieval Kabbalists He demonstrates that the traditional Kabbalistic view of gender was a monolithic and androcentric one in which the feminine was conceived as being derived from the masculine He does not shrink from the negative implications of this doctrine but seeks to make an honest acknowledgment of it as the first step toward the redemption of an ancient wisdom Comparisons with other mystical traditions including those in Christianity Buddhism and Islam are a remarkable feature throughout the book They will make it important well beyond Jewish studies indeed a must for historians of comparative religion in particular of comparative mysticism Praise for Elliot R Wolfson Through a Speculum That Shines is an important and provocative contribution to the study of Jewish mysticism by one of the major scholars now working in this field Speculum

Aesthetic Hybridity in Mughal Painting, 1526-1658 Valerie Gonzalez, 2016-03-03 The first specialized critical aesthetic study to be published on the concept of hybridity in early Mughal painting this book investigates the workings of the diverse creative forces that led to the formation of a unique Mughal pictorial language Mughal pictoriality distinguishes itself from the Persianate models through the rationalization of the picture's conceptual structure and other visual modes of expression involving the aesthetic concept of mimesis If the stylistic and iconographic results of this transformational process have been well identified and evidenced their hermeneutic interpretation greatly suffers from the neglect of a methodologically updated investigation of the images' conceptual underpinning Valerie Gonzalez addresses this lacuna by exploring the operations of cross fertilization at the level of imagistic conceptualization resulting from the multifaceted encounter between the local legacy of Indo-Persianate book art, the freshly imported Persian models to Mughal India after 1555 and the influx of European art at the Mughal court in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The author's close examination of the visuality, metaphysical order and aesthetic language of Mughal imagery and portraiture sheds new light on this particular aspect of its aesthetic hybridity which is usually approached monolithically as a historical phenomenon of cross-cultural interaction That approach fails to consider specific parameters and features inherent to the artistic practice such as the differences between doxis and praxis, conceptualization and realization, intentionality and what lies beyond it By studying the distinct phases and principles of hybridization between the variegated pictorial sources at work in the Mughal creative process at the successive levels of the project, intention, the practice, realization and the result, product, the author deciphers the modalities of appropriation and manipulation of the heterogeneous elements Her unique
