The Age of Discontent Ralph Brauer, 2025-04-01 This revisionist view of late nineteenth century history credits Main Street not Wall Street with laying the foundations of modern America In American history the prevailing narratives of the tumultuous late nineteenth century focus on wealthy individuals and tycoons while downplaying the very high social and economic stresses they caused The Age of Discontent reveals that it was not the tycoons but rather the laborers and farmers who in a great uprising of popular democracy reinvented the nation for the emerging industrial world never imagined by the Founders Facing conditions far worse than previously documented they overcame the frayed social safety net and violent opposition to pull off what the labor leader John Mitchell has described as the Second Emancipation which addressed a dangerously tilted playing field with government programs and legislation Based on meticulous primary source research and integrating music photographs artworks and statistical data this sweeping history places grassroots activists and reformers many recognized for the first time at center stage in a fascinating success story of perseverance and commitment

American Naturalism and the Jews

Donald Pizer, 2010-10-01 American Naturalism and the Jews examines the unabashed anti-Semitism of five notable American naturalist novelists otherwise known for their progressive social values Hamlin Garland Frank Norris and Theodore Dreiser all pushed for social improvements for the poor and oppressed while Edith Wharton and Willa Cather both advanced the public status of women But they all also expressed strong prejudices against the Jewish race and faith throughout their fiction essays letters and other writings producing a contradiction in American literary history that has stymied scholars and until now gone largely unexamined In this breakthrough study Donald Pizer confronts this disconcerting strain of anti-Semitism pervading American letters and culture illustrating how easily prejudice can coexist with even the most progressive ideals Pizer shows how these writers racist impulses represented more than just personal biases but resonated with larger social and ideological movements within American culture Anti Semitic sentiment motivated such various movements as the western farmers populist revolt and the East Coast patricians revulsion against immigration both of which Pizer discusses here This antagonism toward Jews and other non Anglo Saxon ethnicities intersected not only with these authors social reform agendas but also with their literary method of representing the overpowering forces of heredity social or natural environment and savage instinct

Conceiving the Future Laura L. Lovett, 2009-11-30 Through nostalgic idealizations of motherhood family and the home influential leaders in early twentieth century America constructed and legitimated a range of reforms that promoted human reproduction Their pronatalism emerged from a modernist conviction that reproduction and population could be regulated European countries sought to regulate or encourage reproduction through legislation America by contrast fostered ideological and cultural ideas of pronatalism through what Laura Lovett calls nostalgic modernism which romanticized agrarianism and promoted scientific racism and eugenics Lovett looks closely at the ideologies of five influential American figures Mary Lease s maternalist agenda Florence Sherbon s eugenic fitter families campaign George Maxwell s homestead movement of land reclamation and home building Theodore Roosevelt s campaign for conservation and country life and Edward Ross s sociological theory of race suicide and social control Demonstrating the historical circumstances that linked agrarianism racism and pronatalism Lovett shows how reproductive conformity was manufactured how it was promoted and why it was coercive In addition to contributing to scholarship in American history gender studies rural studies and environmental history Lovett s study sheds light on the rhetoric of family values that has regained currency in recent years

In the Lion's Mouth Omar H. Ali, 2011-02-03 Following the collapse of Reconstruction in 1877 African Americans organized a movement distinct from the white Populist movement in the South and parts of the Midwest for economic and political reform Black Populism Between 1886 and 1898 tens of thousands of black farmers sharecroppers and agrarian workers created their own organizations and tactics primarily under black leadership As Black Populism grew as a regional force it met fierce resistance from the Southern Democrats and constituent white planters and local merchants African Americans carried out a wide range of activities in this hostile environment They established farming exchanges and cooperatives raised money for schools published newspapers lobbied for better agrarian legislation mounted boycotts against agricultural trusts and business monopolies carried out strikes for better wages protested the convict lease system segregated coach boxes and lynching demanded black jurors in cases involving black defendants promoted local political reforms and federal supervision of elections and ran independent and fusion campaigns Growing out of the networks established by black churches and fraternal organizations Black Populism found further expression in the Colored Agricultural Wheels the southern branch of the Knights of Labor the Cooperative Workers of America the Farmers Union and the Colored Farmers Alliance In the early 1890s African Americans together with their white counterparts launched the People s Party and ran fusion campaigns with the Republican Party By the turn of the century Black Populism had been crushed by relentless attack hostile propaganda and targeted assassinations of leaders and foot soldiers of the movement The movement s legacy remains though as the largest independent black political movement until the rise of the modern civil rights movement Polemics and Provocations Paul Gilk,2010-06-01 In the twelfth century an Italian monk named Joachim caught the attention of the Christian West by announcing the Three Ages of the World Joachim arrived at his formulation by a meshing of the Christian Trinity with the Old and New Testaments proclaiming in sequence the Age of the Father the Age of the Son and the Age of the Holy Spirit In the early modern period however archaeologists uncovered the remains of an agrarian village social stratum that predates the rise of civilization The divinity of this period was the Mother Goddess a divinity that civilized monotheism with its strict Father God steadily and severely repressed Paul Gilk has modified Joachim s Three Ages revelation by placing this newly discovered Age of the Mother at the beginning of Joachim s sequence But it s obvious that Mother Father Son and Holy Spirit are not psychologically coherent or linguistically consistent The only way to make semantic sense of Joachim s enlarged formulation is to recognize the Age of the Holy Spirit as the Age of the Daughter for if there s a Mother a Father and a Son then the Holy Spirit implicitly and quietly reveals Herself as Daughter With this understanding it s possible to discern the prophetic power and transformative cultural significance of both the contemporary women s movement and the feminine Earth sensibility of the growing ecological outrage Gilk goes on to assert that the radical servanthood and radical stewardship contained within Jesus kingdom of God proclamation is at least in part an attempt to spiritually reconnect with the agrarian village culture of the Mother s Age but it s also a lifting of that Age to a finer spirituality and toward an ethically Green political order The kingdom of God is Green Gilk says and its overarching divinity is the Daughter The Age of the Daughter is Green and is struggling to be born Catalog of Copyright Entries.

Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1972 Dynamics of Social Class Craig B Howley,Aimee Howley,Jerry D Johnson,2014-03-01 Half the world s population lives in rural places but education scholars and policy makers worldwide give little attention to rural of education Indeed most national systems including in the developed world treat their educational systems as institutions to modernize the global economy The authors in this volume have different concerns They are rural education scholars from Australia Canada the United States and Kyrgyzstan and here their focus is the dynamics of social class in particular rural schools but also in rural schooling as a local manifestation of a national and the global system For the most part the volume comprises relevant empirical reports but none neglects theory and some privilege theory and interpretation First and last chapters introduce the texts and synthesize their joint and separate meanings What are the implications of place for social class How do class dynamics manifest differently in more and less racially homogeneous rural communities How does place affect class and how might class affect place How does schooling in rural communities reproduce or interrupt social class mobility across generations The chapters engage such questions more completely than other volumes in rural education not as a final word or interim summary but as an opening to an important line of inquiry thus far largely neglected in rural education scholarship
