Paintwork Tim Maughan, 2011 In an era of post cyberpunk science fiction Maughan is firmly cyberpunk or maybe cyberpunk a genre that captures all the grit and glory of technology with a higher degree of plausibility and respect for real computers and networks than the genre had in its glory days Maughan has a keen eye for the fictional possibilities of technology a good hand with the what if ten seconds in the future mode of storytelling and he's quite adept at filling his work with hyper cool eyeball kicks These stories are fun and thought provoking a great combination Cory Doctorow author of Down and Out in the Magic Kingdom and Little Brother In our hothouse present where technology is little more than vapour Tim Maughan catches those fleeting moments of possibility in stories that ought to have no shelf life whatsoever and which regardless linger in the mind I don't know how he does this I don't know whether he is very naive or very clever One thing I do know these stories are very very good Simon Ings author of Hot Head The Weight of Numbers and Dead Water They used to say that Science Fiction was hard to define but that you'd know it when you saw it How then to best recommend a collection like Paintwork A book of augmented realities icy conceptual surfaces and a healthy dose of contemporary corporate paranoia Is even a simple book blurb as innocent as it first appears The best Science Fiction isn't a road map it's a toolkit and Paintwork is a virtual users guide to a new kind of fictional future A place where it's fine to pretend life's all a game just so long as you stay on the winning team If Science Fiction is a toolkit Paintwork is the missing users manual Tom Hunter Director the Arthur C Clarke Award Havana Augmented is the third short story in Tim Maughan's excellent Paintwork 2011 a collection that focuses on the meaning of artistry in a near future cyberpunk landscape it follows two streams of conflict Paul and Kim battle with enormous robots which is frankly awesome Mr Maughan knows how to write an action sequence without letting it take over The battles are short streamlined vicious and very very fun this is the crown jewel of an excellent collection I'm a sucker for sports movies especially when the game or match has some sort of Great Significance Mr Maughan tugs at my heartstrings with Havana Augmented a giant robot smackdown with a country's future on the line Pornokitsch.com I loved Paintwork All three stories show a writer with a real gift for accelerating the world we know into a believable future with a deft local touch that adds an extra something for us Bristol folk it's a great read that pinches a few ingredients from the SF greats and blends them with a unique flavour all of its own Guide2Bristol Augmented reality street artist 3Cube wants to break into the mainstream and as one of the best in the graffiti mecca of Bristol he stands a real chance Except that someone some unseen rival seems set on using even the most old fashioned of methods to stop him from succeeding John Smith was successful once if only for a fleeting moment Now the documentary film maker is broke and jobless and finds himself putting his life on the line as one of the new breed of paparazzi snapping celebrity video gamers in virtual worlds And on the sun bleached streets of Havana two young Cubans find themselves locked in a fierce struggle with one of the world's most powerful organisations as a seemingly innocent video game tournament becomes a fight for both personal and national pride Paintwork is a collection of three stories from our imminent future by British science fiction author Tim Maughan including the 2010 BSFA Short Fiction Award nominated Havana Augmented

The New Six-Point Plan for Raising Happy, Healthy Children John Rosemond, 2013-02-05 Renowned and respected family psychologist John Rosemond blames child centered parenting books from recent decades for creating a generation of dependent often defiant children He sets the record straight in The New Six Point Plan for Raising Happy Healthy Children an updated version of his highly successful book published more than fifteen years ago Booms in technology and mass media have created significant changes in society in the last two decades The text in this revised book has been thoroughly updated to reflect today's society yet the foundation of Rosemond's timeless and effective approach remains constant He encourages families to return to tried and true fundamental parenting truths that people did naturally before the new science of parenting Parents aren't their children's friends they are their leaders Parents are at the center of a family not kids Your marriage must come before your children Each chapter includes easy to relate to questions from parents which Rosemond answers with both common sense and a sense of humor For families feeling overwhelmed by competing advice about parenting this book will ground them with logical proven approaches to the most significant challenges parents face today From issues such as self esteem and discipline to television and chores this straightforward guidance will facilitate a return to parent centered families where children are raised into responsible adults

Want to learn how you can stay employable and relevant for the rest of your working life? Want to enjoy feeling valued and fulfilled? In these unpredictable times, there is every reason for you to want to realise your skills and lifestyle choices, to look forward to an adventurous and exciting future. Are you worth it? Of course you are! You are your greatest asset and investment. Welcome to Future Proofing Yourself. This book is for everyone. Reflecting on his own personal experiences and those of his family, friends and people that he has coached and mentored, David Yeabsley shares how at times we will all feel vulnerable in our working careers and worry about the future. We can feel lost and lacking in confidence. In Future Proof Yourself, David discusses how these feelings can be managed, encouraging you to discover how YOU can take control of situations and make the right choices for your future career and personal life. What could you expect from a life that you have Future Proofed? Well, you can certainly look forward to having the ability to take control of your professional career, new skills and experiences, new people to network with, new learning opportunities. It will also guide you to develop your confidence, create new ways of thinking, achieve the right balance in your life, enable you to stay relevant and employable for the rest of your working career. Investment in yourself applies to all areas of your life, not just your career. Be careful though, following the Future Proof Yourself guidance, you just might start living it and become the best version of yourself. Why should you make the effort? Well, if you don't look after yourself, who is going to do it for you? The author, David Yeabsley, has over 20 years' experience in coaching, mentoring, training and presenting.

The Mother's Manual Audrye S. Arbe, 2019-08-05 Who am I and where do I come from? To write this book, I felt it necessary to address all aspects of motherhood, so I decided to include both the sweetness and delight, plus the shadow side of motherhood. In this book, some challenging life situations occur that are vital for us to consider, so I am including some disquieting statistics. Because many women and men have refrained from checking within themselves or making an examination on emotional, mental, physical and spiritual planes about having children, hardships have been created both personally and planetary.

Raising Independent, Self-Confident Kids Wendy L. Moss, Donald A. Moses, 2017-12-18 Parenting is a delicate dance. In this book, child development experts Wendy Moss PhD and Donald Moses MD examine the key skills parents need to help their kids emerge as confident and capable adults. Throughout this book, parents will learn how to build a child's confidence, decision-making abilities, tolerance for frustration, patience and self-sufficiency.

LIFE SKILLS EDUCATION MODULES FOR EMPOWERING WOMEN AND IMPROVING THE QUALITY OF LIFE OF FARM WOMEN: Life skills Education B. Prashanthi, Life skills are the abilities that help in the promotion of mental and social wellbeing and competence in women to face the realities of life. The ultimate aim of life skills education is the overall development of women's personality, which cannot be achieved without exposing women to various life skills. The ten core generic Life skills as listed by WHO are self-awareness, Empathy, Critical Thinking, Creative Thinking, Decision Making

Problem Solving Effective Communication Interpersonal Relationships Coping with stress and Managing Emotions Life skill education lays the foundation for learning skills which enhance self direction of the individual It would be a way of empowering women to build their lives and their dreams It would be a means of handholding them through the critical stages in their life and helping them tap their potential to the fullest Thereby it is hoped that the current education system with its oppressive rigidity would open up and make life skills education a part of its mainstream group This would enable the country to build individuals who believe in themselves who are efficient leaders and administrators who are able to understand their potentials and achieve them
