Fitzgerald, 2012-12-06 This book reviews the shifting conceptions of writing and revision noting the ways in which views of knowledge and knowing shape teaching and research Fitzgerald as a reading and writing researcher recognizes that how we revise is shaped by how we read and respond to our unfolding texts She argues that how we write and read is ultimately shaped by how we know that is how we seek to make sense of the world How and why do we revise when we write How do we differ in the extent or level of revisions due to differences in our purpose mode of writing perceptions of audience or phase of development of our writing What motivates us to revise a need to clarify our expression to rethink or alter our ideas to influence our reader in certain ways or to fulfill our own purposes These questions have always intrigued composition theorists and researchers however it is only in the past 15 years that researchers have seriously and systematically sought answers to these questions      From Inquiry to Academic Writing Stuart Greene, April Lidinsky, 2011-07-06 Academic writing is a conversation a collaborative exchange of ideas to pursue new knowledge From Inquiry to Academic Writing A Text and Reader demystifies cross curricular thinking and writing by breaking it down into a series of comprehensible habits and skills that students can learn in order to join in The extensive thematic reader opens up thought provoking conversations being held throughout the academy and in the culture at large Read the preface      Writing and Publishing Tina P.
