UNDERWORLDS MAGAZINE NO 1 Thomas DeJa,2023-10-31 UNDERWORLDS is a tri annual paperback magazine that seeks to create a bridge between crime fiction especially but not necessarily exclusively of the noir school and horror fiction Because of its general air of emotional and psychological darkness as well as its frequent themes of hopelessness betrayal and passions gone wrong the crime fiction of such writers as Jim Thompson Cornell Woolrich and David Goodis shares a lot of resonance with horror fiction some of the above referenced writers have produced what could arguably called horror fiction in the past like Thompson's ending to THE GETAWAY and his novel THE KILLER INSIDE ME UNDERWORLDS a double edged title as it has different yet similar meanings in both crime and horror fiction seeks to allow writers the opportunity to explore the nexus between these two genres and gives readers of both genres a glimpse into the world of the other

Weird Fiction Michael Cisco,2022-01-31 Weird Fiction A Genre Study presents a comprehensive contemporary analysis of the genre of weird fiction by identifying the concepts that influence and produce it Focusing on the sources of narrative content how the content is produced and what makes something weird Michael Cisco engages with theories from Deleuze and Guattari to explain how genres work and to understand the relationship between identity and the ordinary Cisco also uses these theories to examine the supernatural not merely as a horde of tropes but as a recognition of the infinity of experience in defiance of limiting norms The book also traces the sociopolitical implications of weird fiction studying the differentiation of major and minor literatures Through an articulated theoretical model and close textual analysis readers will learn not only what weird fiction is but how and why it is produced

Why Do Turks Act Weird? Mustafa Ugur Etike,2024-01-29 Why do we find others weird Why do we tend to discriminate other human beings when all it takes for a person to be different is actually to be born These questions may be valid but how do they help with our daily problems such as the refugees the distribution of wealth political correctness cruelty and so on And what about the Turks A weird group of people they look stiff but indifferent at the same time serious but laughing at unfunny things not much of enthusiasts but they are always curious They are not the root cause of our problems but our perspective on them our perspective on the other the alien is Life is a distorted form of existence that makes us stick to our basic programming Discriminate the other embrace the similar run or fight meanwhile the only thing we don t discriminate is our primitive instincts As weird gets weirder and the Turks become a symbol of utter confusion between hate and understanding for some people the only solution to the pain and sorrow caused by our biased opinion is self awareness I hope this essay in the search for the sources of alienization and normalization of the alien help the reader discover the common ground with their own weird Turks
