

The background of the book cover is a painting in a Regency style. It depicts a man and a woman on a stone bridge over a river. The woman, on the left, is wearing a long, flowing white dress with a floral pattern and a large red hat with a veil. She is leaning over the bridge railing, looking down at a small object in her hands. The man, on the right, is wearing a light-colored shirt and dark trousers. He is leaning against the bridge railing with his arms crossed, looking towards the woman. In the background, there are houses and a small boat on the river. The overall tone is warm and romantic.

A Gentleman's Gentleman TJ Alexander, 2025-03-11 From the acclaimed author of Chef's Kiss a groundbreaking trans Regency romance that's both delightfully witty and refreshingly iconoclastic A Gentleman's Gentleman is a thoroughly charming confection of a romance If you're looking for a tender gentle slow burn this is the book for you Cat Sebastian author of We Could Be So Good The notoriously eccentric Lord Christopher Eden is a man of unusual make and even more unusual habits he prefers to live far from the prying eyes and ears of the ton and would rather have the comfortable company of his childhood cook and his aged butler than the swarm of servants and hangers on befitting a man of his station But Christopher's pleasant if occasionally lonely life is upended when he receives word from his lawyers that according to his late father's will he must find a wife by the end of the Season if he intends to keep his family's fortune and the Eden estate Christopher cannot imagine a worse fate as he isn't attracted to women his chances of making a wife happy are slim Furthermore if his quest to marry has any hope of succeeding he must move to London posthaste and acquire some more suitable staff Enter James Harding Christopher's new distractingly handsome if rigidly traditional valet After a rocky start the two strike up a fragile friendship amid the throes of the London Season a friendship that threatens to shatter under the looming shadow of Christopher's impending nuptials and the secrets both men are keeping With its heady combination of dry wit slow burn romance and a nuanced portrait of trans identity A Gentleman's Gentleman stands to transform the historical romance genre as we know it
