Francine Shapiro, Margot Silk Forrest

Rape My Story:

Rape Jill Saward, 1995 The Teacher's Body Diane P. Freedman, Martha Stoddard Holmes, 2012-02-01 These highly personal essays from a range of academic settings explore the palpable moments of discomfort disempowerment and or enlightenment that emerge when we discard the fiction that the teacher has no body Visible and or invisible the body can transform both the teacher's experience and classroom dynamics When students think the teacher's body is clearly marked by ethnicity race disability size gender sexuality illness age pregnancy class linguistic and geographic origins or some combination of these both the mode and the content of education can change Other less visible aspects of a teacher's body such as depression or a history of sexual assault can have an equally powerful impact on how we teach and learn The collection anatomizes these moments of embodied pedagogy as unexpected teaching opportunities and examines their apparent impact on teacher student educational dynamics of power authority desire friendship open mindedness and resistance

Victims Ross McGarry, Sandra Walklate, 2015-06-05 The study of victims of crime is a central concern for criminologists around the world In recent years some victimologists have become increasingly engaged in positivist debates on the differences between victims and non victims how these differences can be measured and what could be done to improve the victims experience of the criminal justice system Written by experts in the field this book embraces a much wider understanding of social harms and asks which victims voices are heard and why McGarry and Walklate break new ground with this innovative and accessible book it offers a broad discussion of social harms the role of the victim in society and the inter relationship between trauma testimony and justice and asks how has harm been understood and under what circumstances have those harms been recognised how and under what circumstances are those harms articulated how and under what circumstances are the voices of those who have been harmed listened to Each chapter draws on case studies and a range of questions designed to assist in reflection and critical engagement This book is perfect reading for students taking courses on victimology victims and society victims rights and criminal justice

Rape Miranda A. H. Horvath, Jennifer M. Brown, 2013-01-11 Rape remains one of the most controversial issues within criminal justice and receives high profile coverage internationally Despite the many changes there have been to the law practice and procedure in the investigation of rape allegations and support available for victims victims are routinely blamed for their victimization Only a very small number of perpetrators ever face prosecution let alone conviction This book aims to take stock of current thinking and research about rape and the way it is handled in practice within the criminal justice system and to challenge some of the widely held but inaccurate beliefs about rape It brings together leading researchers in the field from psychology sociology and law considering new research and presenting new data from a strong theoretical and contextual base The main focus of the book is on adult victims of rape with chapters exploring such issues as rape and the media the use of alcohol and drugs in rape police decision making on rape cases conviction patterns in rape trials and interviewing victims of rape and sexual assault Other People's Stories Amy Shuman,2010-10-01 In Other People's Stories Amy Shuman examines the social relations embedded in stories and the complex ethical and social tensions that surround their telling Drawing on innovative research and contemporary theory she describes what happens when one person's story becomes another person's source of inspiration or when entitlement and empathy collide The resulting analyses are wonderfully diverse integrating narrative studies sociolinguistics communications folklore and ethnographic studies to examine the everyday conversational stories told by cultural groups including Latinas Jews African Americans Italians and Puerto Ricans Shuman offers a nuanced and clear theoretical perspective derived from the Frankfurt school life history research disability research feminist studies trauma studies and cultural studies Without compromising complexity she makes narrative inquiry accessible to a broad population

It's a Girl Dr Mehnaaz Nadiadwala,2017-03-01 Alpha women are not born they are made For them age is just a number The society their personal experiences and the will to never die makes them alpha women They are confident majestic leaders and believe in no game playing They believe in an equal or superior position to men They tap their weaknesses to convert it to their strengths She makes a posthumous mark on society and the world In other words alpha women make an imprint on life It's not a difficult task to be one of them One just has to make up their minds and the journey starts BE the prototype for the woman in the future Be an alpha woman

Win Your Case Gerry Spence,2007-04-01 From renowned trial attorney and New York Times bestselling author Gerry Spence a must own book for every lawyer and business professional seeking to make cutting edge winning presentations in court at work everywhere any time Gerry Spence is perhaps America's most renowned and successful trial lawyer a man known for his deep convictions and his powerful courtroom presentations when he argues on behalf of ordinary people Frequently pitted against teams of lawyers thrown against him by major corporate or government interests he has never lost a criminal case and has not lost a civil jury trial since 1969 In Win Your Case Spence shares a lifetime of experience teaching you how to win in any arena the courtroom the boardroom the sales call the salary review the town council meeting every venue where a case is to be made against adversaries who oppose the justice you seek Relying on the successful courtroom methods he has developed over more than half a century Spence shows both lawyers and laypersons how you can win your cases as he takes you step by step through the elements of a trial from jury selection the opening statement the presentation of witnesses their cross examinations and finally to the closing argument itself Spence teaches you how to prepare yourselves for these wars Then he leads you through the new cutting edge methods he uses in discovering the story in which you form the evidence into a compelling narrative discover the point of view of the decision maker anticipate and answer the counterarguments and finally conclude the case with a winning final argument To make a winning presentation you are taught to prepare the power person the jury the judge the boss the customer the board to hear your case You are shown that your emotions and theirs are the source of your winning You learn the power of your own fear of honesty and caring and yes of love You are instructed on how to role play through the use of the psychodramatic technique to both discover and tell the story of the case and at last to pull it all together into the winning final argument Whether you are presenting your case to a judge a jury a boss a committee or a customer Win Your Case is an indispensable guide to success in every walk of life in and out of the courtroom A Past Without Shadow Zohar Shavit, 2005-02-22 In this controversial study of postwar German s children s books Zohar Shavit reveals a troubling perspective on the German understanding of the Holocaust Just Advocacy? Wendy S. Hesford, Wendy Kozol, 2005 Bringing together some of the most respected scholars in the field including Inderpal Grewal Leela Fernandes Leigh Gilmore Susan Koshy Patrice McDermott and Sidonie Smith Just Advocacy sheds light on the often overlooked ways that women and children are further subjugated when political or humanitarian groups represent them solely as victims and portray the individuals that are helping them as paternal saviors Public Rape Tanya Horeck, 2013-04-15 Second wave feminism fought to end the blanket silence shrouding rape and bring it to public attention Now feminist critics must confront a different issue In Public Rape Tanya Horeck considers the public investment in images of rape and the figure of the raped woman Introducing the idea of public rape Horeck looks at how images of rape serve as cultural fantasies of sexual racial and class difference Looking at rape in real life as well as in literature and films such as The Accused and Boys Don t Cry Horek reveals how representations of rape raise vital questions about the relationship between reality and fantasy and between violence and spectacle Writing Rape, Writing Women in Early Modern England J. Catty, 2016-01-08 The word rape today denotes sexual appropriation yet it originally signified the theft of a woman from her father or husband by abduction or elopement In the early modern period its meaning is in transition between these two senses while rapes and attempted rapes proliferate in literature This age also sees the emergence of the woman writer despite a sexual ideology which equates women s writing with promiscuity Classical myths however associate women s story telling with resistance to rape This comprehensive study of rape and representation considers a wide range of texts drawn from prose fiction poetry and drama by male and female writers both canonical and non canonical Combining close attention to detail with an overview of the period it demonstrates how the representation of gender relations has exploited the subject of rape and uses its understanding of this phenomenon to illuminate the issues of sexual and discursive autonomy which figure largely in women s texts of the period Battle Cries and Lullabies Linda Grant De Pauw, 2014-07-11 In this groundbreaking work which covers thousands of years and spans the globe Linda Grant De Pauw depicts women as victims and as warriors as nurses spies sex workers and wives and mothers of soldiers as warrior queens leading armies into battle and as baggage carriers marching in the rear Beginning with the earliest archaeological evidence of warfare and ending with the dozens of wars in progress today Battle Cries and Lullabies demonstrates that warfare has always and everywhere involved women Following an introductory chapter on the questions raised about women s participation in warfare the book presents a documented chronological survey linked to familiar models of military history De Pauw provides historical context for current public policy debates over the role of women in the military Whether one applauds or deplors their presence and their actions women have always been part of war To ignore this fact grossly distorts our understanding of human history

Reconfigurations of the Bildungsroman Gonçalo Cholang, 2022-06-21 The present work deals with the representation of trauma and violence in coming of age stories written by African American and Afro Caribbean women authors in the United States The kinds of violence explored in this work are related to the post colonial condition the women protagonists experience in which racism sexism classism among other kinds of discrimination are co created in an intersectional experience of oppression The titles analyzed in this work are Lucy 1990 written by Jamaica Kincaid Breath Eyes Memory 1994 written by Edwidge Danticat Bone Black Memories of Girlhood 1996 written by bell hooks and God Help the Child 2015 written by Toni Morrison The Bildungsroman genre serves as the form with which the authors are able to display the different forms of violence experienced during the the process of growing up female and black in the United States and also in the Caribbean islands of Antigua and Haiti in the cases of Kincaid and Danticat respectively The coming of age stories written by women and more specifically by African American and Afro Caribbean women tend to showcase narratives in which the tensions between the protagonists self determination and the influence of social and cultural factors in their development opportunities are negotiated The genre is adapted and subverted by the authors deviating from its canonical European origins becoming a site in which the authors are able to represent different kinds of violence and the subsequent traumatic consequences caused by it

The Bible and Homosexual Practice Robert A. J. Gagnon, 2010-10-01 Gagnon offers the most thorough analysis to date of the biblical texts relating to homosexuality He demonstrates why attempts to classify the Bible's rejection of same sex intercourse as irrelevant for our contemporary context fail to do justice to the biblical texts and to current scientific data Gagnon's book powerfully challenges attempts to identify love and inclusivity with affirmation of homosexual practice the most sophisticated and convincing examination of the biblical data for our time Jürgen Becker Professor of New Testament Christian Albrechts University

Embodied Shame J. Brooks Bouson, 2010-07-02 How does physical emotional and sexual abuse shape women's perceptions of their bodies and identities How are women's psyches affected by the sexual racial and cultural denigration that occurs when women's bodies are represented as defective spoiled damaged or dirtied Embodied Shame skillfully explores these questions in the context of recent writings by North American women contributing to work in shame theory and to feminist analyses of the intersections of theories of the body affect emotions narrative and trauma By examining popular contemporary fictional and nonfictional texts including Alice Munro's Lives of Girls and Women Dorothy Allison's Bastard Out of Carolina Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye Edwidge Danticat's Breath Eyes Memory and Lucy Grealy's Autobiography of a Face J Brooks Bouson illuminates how deeply entrenched bodily shame continues to operate in contemporary culture even as we celebrate the supposed freeing of the female body from the social and cultural constraints that have long bound it
