Vasari and the Renaissance Print Sharon Gregory, Giorgio Vasari, 2012 In both Vasari's life and in his Lives prints played important roles This volume examines Giorgio Vasari's interest as an art historian and as an artist in engravings and woodblock prints revealing how it sheds light on aspects of Vasari's career and on aspects of sixteenth century artistic culture and artistic practice It is the first book to study his interest in prints from this dual perspective

Tracing the Visual Language of Raphael's Circle to 1527 Alexis R. Culotta, 2020-06-22 In Tracing the Visual Language of Raphael's Circle to 1527 Alexis Culotta examines how the Renaissance master's style one infused with borrowed visual quotations from other artists both past and present proved influential in his relationship with associate Baldassare Peruzzi and in the development of the artists within his thriving workshop Shedding new light on the important yet often overshadowed figures within this network this book calls upon key case studies to convincingly illustrate how this visual language and its recombination evolved during Raphael's Roman career and subsequently served as a springboard for artistic innovation for these close associates as they collaborated in the years following Raphael's death

Art Market and Connoisseurship Anna Tummers, Koenraad Jonckheere, 2008 The question of whether seventeenth century painters such as Rembrandt and Rubens were exclusively responsible for the paintings later sold under their names has caused many a heated debate Despite the rise of scholarship on the history of the art market much is still unknown about the ways in which paintings were produced assessed priced and marketed during this period which leads to several provocative questions did contemporary connoisseurs expect masters such as Rembrandt to paint works entirely by their own hand Who was credited with the ability to assess paintings as genuine The contributors to this engaging collection Eric Jan Sluijter Hans Van Miegroet and Neil De Marchi among them trace these issues through the booming art market of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries arriving at fascinating and occasionally unexpected conclusions Making Copies in European Art 1400-1600 ,2018-11-26 Making Copies in European Art 1400 1600 comprises sixteen essays that explore the form and function manner and meaning of copies after Renaissance works of art The authors construe copying as a method of exchange based in the theory and practice of imitation and they investigate the artistic techniques that enabled and facilitated the production of copies They also ask what patrons and collectors wanted from a copy which characteristics of an artwork were considered copyable and where and how copies were stored studied displayed and circulated Making Copies in European Art in addition to studying many unfamiliar pictures incorporates previously unpublished documentary materials

The Viewer and the Printed Image in Late Medieval Europe David S. Areford, 2017-07-05 Structured around in depth and interconnected case studies and driven by a methodology of material contextual and iconographic analysis this book argues that early European single sheet prints in both the north and south are best understood as highly accessible objects shaped and framed by individual viewers Author David Areford offers a synthetic historical narrative of early prints that stresses their unusual material nature as well as their accessibility to a variety of viewers both lay and monastic This volume represents a shift in the study of the early printed image one that mirrors the widespread movement in art history away from issues of production style and the artist toward issues of reception function and the viewer Areford's approach is intensely grounded in the object especially the unacknowledged material complexity of the print as a portable malleable and accessible image that depended on a response that was not only visual but often physical emotional and psychological Recognizing that early prints were not primarily designed for aesthetic appreciation the author analyzes how their meanings stemmed from specific functions involving private devotion protection indulgences the cult of saints pilgrimage exorcism the art of memory and anti Semitic propaganda Although the medium's first century was clearly transitional and experimental Areford explores how its potential to impact viewers in new ways both positive and negative was quickly realized Faking It! ,2022-12-28 Faking It collects eleven chapters which explore the question of forgery from different disciplinary angles literary historical and art historical contributions share space with discussions of jewels architecture and coinage The various case studies take as their focus developments in Renaissance Italy and early modern England as well as in France Germany Malta Denmark Sweden Iceland Russia and Australia While each chapter contributes to a better understanding of the local context of cultural production together they suggest new answers to how we can understand forgery The concept of performance allows us to see beyond normative approaches and gain insight into some of the ambiguities concerning the nature of forgery Contributors to this volume Brian J Boeck Federica Boldrini Patricia Pires Boulhosa Laurent Currelly Helen Hughes Jacqueline Hylkema Philip Lavender Lorenzo Paoli Ingrid Rowland Camilla Russo and Ksenija Tschetschik Hammerl Far From the Truth Michiel van Groesen, Johannes Müller, 2023-12-28 Information and knowledge were essential tools of early modern Europe's global ambitions. This volume addresses a key concern that emerged as the competition for geopolitical influence increased: how could information from afar be trusted when there was no obvious strategy for verification? How did notions of doubt develop in relation to intercultural encounters? Who were those in the position to use misinformation in their favour and how did this affect trust? How, in other words, did distance affect credibility and which intellectual and epistemological strategies did early modern Europe devise to cope with this problem? The movement of information and its transformations in the process of gathering, ordering, and disseminating makes it necessary to employ both a global and a local perspective in order to understand its significance. The rise of print, leading to various new forms of mediation, played a crucial role everywhere, inspiring theories of modernization in which media served as agents of new connections and eventually of globalization. Paradoxically, during the entire period between 1500 and 1800, the demise of distance through various strategies of verification coincided with constructions of otherness that emphasized the cultural and geographical difference between Europe and the worlds it encountered. Ten leading scholars of the early modern world address the relationship between distance, information, and credibility from a variety of perspectives. This volume will be an essential companion to those interested in the history of knowledge and early modern encounters, as well as specialists in the history of empire and print culture. The Primacy of the Image in Northern European Art, 1400-1700 Debra Cashion, Henry Luttikhuis, Ashley West, 2017-08-21 The Primacy of the Image in Northern Art 1400-1700: Essays in Honor of Larry Silver is an anthology of 42 essays written by distinguished scholars on current research and methodology in the art history of Northern Europe of the late medieval and early modern periods. Written in tribute to Larry Silver, Farquhar Professor of the History of Art at the University of Pennsylvania, the topics are inspired by Professor Silver's renowned scholarship in these areas: Early Netherlandish Painting and Prints, Sixteenth Century Netherlandish Painting, Manuscripts, Patrons and Printed Books, Diderot and the Power of Pictures, Prints and Printmaking, and Seventeenth Century Painting. Studies of specific artists include Hans Memling, Albrecht Dürer, Hans Baldung Grien, Hieronymus Bosch, Pieter Bruegel, Hendrick Goltzius, and Rembrandt.

Space, Image, and Reform in Early Modern Art Arthur J. DiFuria, Ian Verstegen, 2021-11-08 The essays in Space, Image, and Reform in Early Modern Art build on Marcia Hall's seminal contributions in several categories crucial for Renaissance studies, especially the spatiality of the church interior, the altarpiece's facture and affectivity, the notion of artistic style, and the controversy over images in the era of Counter-Reform. Accruing the advantage of critical engagement with a single paradigm, this volume better assesses its applicability and range. The book works cumulatively to provide blocks of theoretical and empirical research on issues spanning the function and role of images in their contexts over two centuries, relating Hall's investigations of Renaissance art to new fields.

Space Image and Reform expands the ideas at the center of her work further back in time further afield and deeper into familiar topics thus achieving a cohesion not usually seen in edited volumes honoring a single scholar Reframing

Albrecht Dürer Andrea Bubenik, 2017-07-05 Focusing on the ways his art and persona were valued and criticized by writers collectors and artists subsequent to his death this book examines the reception of the works of Albrecht Dürer Andrea Bubenik's analysis highlights the intensive and international interest in Dürer's art and personality and his developing role as a paragon in art historiography in conjunction with the proliferation of portraits after his likeness The author traces carefully how Dürer's paintings prints drawings and theoretical writings traveled widely and were appropriated into new contexts and charged with different meanings Drawing on inventories and correspondences and taking collecting practices into account Bubenik establishes who owned what by Dürer in the 16th and 17th centuries and characterizes the key locations where interest in Dürer peaked especially the courts of Maximilian I in Munich and Rudolf II in Prague Bubenik treats the emergent artistic appropriations of Dürer borrowings from or transformations of his originals in conjunction with contemporary sources on art theory The volume includes illustrations of numerous imitative works after Dürer As well as being the first book to fully address the early reception of the most important of German Renaissance artists Reframing Albrecht Dürer shows how appropriation is a crucial concept for understanding artistic practice during the early modern period Mariette and the

Science of the Connoisseur in Eighteenth-Century Europe Kristel Smentek, 2017-07-05 Celebrated connoisseur drawings collector print dealer book publisher and authority on the art of antiquity Pierre Jean Mariette 1694-1774 was a pivotal figure in the eighteenth century European art world Focusing on the trajectory of Mariette's career this book examines the material practices and social networks through which connoisseurs forged the idea of art as an object of empirical and historical analysis Drawing on significant unpublished archival material as well as on histories of science publishing collecting and display this book shows how Mariette and his colleagues practices of classification and interpretation of the graphic arts gave rise to new conceptions of artistic authorship and to a history of art that transcended the biographies of individual artists To follow Mariette's career through the eighteenth century is to see that art was consolidated as a specialized category of intellectual inquiry and that style emerged as its structuring analytic device in the overlapping spaces of the collector's cabinet the connoisseur's portfolio and the dealer's shop Making Copies in Early

Modern Times Maddalena Bellavitis, 2025-10-20 This book explores new approaches to the study of the complex relation between models and copies Excellent studies dedicated to copies continue to be published focusing mainly on works of art and techniques but the research should be extended in directions that have remained virtually unexplored until now considering new perspectives and contexts This volume intends to push the boundaries of current research on copies proposing new points of view and considering new relations between models and their reproductions Contributors include R Arnheim E Vandeweghe F Gallaire B Leshem C Naya P Alvarez S Suykens S Rose D Boerio M Rijks M Bellavitis B Anderson

Guthrie E Giffin and S Abplanalp     The Reception of the Printed Image in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries Grażyna Jurkowlaniec, Magdalena Herman, 2020-09-01 This book examines the early development of the graphic arts from the perspectives of material things human actors and immaterial representations while broadening the geographic field of inquiry to Central Europe and the British Isles and considering the reception of the prints on other continents The role of human actors proves particularly prominent i e the circumstances that informed creators producers owners and beholders motivations and responses Certainly such a complex relationship between things people and images is not an exclusive feature of the pre modern period s print cultures However the rise of printmaking challenged some established rules in the arts and visual realms and thus provides a fruitful point of departure for further study of the development of the various functions and responses to printed images in the sixteenth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history print history book history and European studies The introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license at https://www.taylorfrancis.com/chapters/oa-edit/10.4324/9781003029199\_1/introduction-grazyna-jurkowlaniec-magdalena-herman-context-ubx-refId-b6a86646-c9f3-490d-8a06-2946acd75fda

Reconciling Copyright with Cumulative Creativity Giancarlo Frosio, Reconciling Copyright with Cumulative Creativity The Third Paradigm examines the long history of creativity from cave art to digital remix in order to demonstrate a consistent disparity between the traditional cumulative mechanics of creativity and modern copyright policies Giancarlo Frosio calls for the return of creativity to an inclusive process so that the first pre modern imitative and collaborative model and second post Romantic copyright model creative paradigms can be reconciled into an emerging third paradigm which would be seen as a networked peer and user based collaborative model     An Introduction to the Making of Western Art Susan L. Green, 2024-03-29 This book is the first introduction to Western art that not only considers how choice of materials can impact form but also how objects in different media can alter in appearance over time and the role of conservators in the preservation of our cultural heritage The first four chapters cover wall and easel paintings sculpture drawings and prints from the late Middle Ages to the present day They examine with numerous examples how these works have been produced how they might have been transformed and how efforts regarding their preservation can sometimes be misleading or result in controversy The final two chapters look at how photography new techniques and modern materials prompted innovative ways of creating art in the twentieth century and how the rapid expansion of technology in the twenty first century has led to a revolution in how artworks are constructed and seen generating specific challenges for collectors curators and conservators alike This book is primarily directed at undergraduates interested in art history museum studies and conservation but will also be of interest to a more general non specialist audience     Reframing Albrecht Dürer Andrea Bubenik, 2013 Focusing on the ways his art and persona were valued and criticized by writers collectors and artists subsequent to his death this book examines the reception of the works of Albrecht Dürer The author traces carefully how Dürer's paintings prints drawings and theoretical writings traveled widely and were appropriated into new contexts and charged with different meanings The volume includes illustrations of numerous imitative works after Dürer     Printmakers of the Baroque Susan Dixon,2014 The essays in this volume complement the recent exhibition of Printmakers of the Baroque 17th Century Explorations of Space and Light at La Salle University Art Museum during winter 2013 2014 Co curated by La Salle Associate Professor of Art History Dr Susan Dixon the exhibition also provided a foundation for a Baroque art history course taught in spring 2014 This catalogue includes essays and labels written by undergraduate students enrolled in the course along with reproductions of all 40 artworks included in the exhibition     Mapping Ethnography in Early Modern Germany S. Leitch,2010-09-27 As the first book length examination of the role of German print culture in mediating Europe's knowledge of the newly discovered people of Africa South Asia and the Americas this work highlights a unique and early incident of visual accuracy and an unprecedented investment in the practice of ethnography
