The Media and Sino-American Rapprochement, 1963-1972 Guolin Yi, 2020-11-11 Winner of the ACPSS Research Award. An important new cultural study of the Cold War. Guolin Yi's The Media and Sino American Rapprochement 1963 1972 analyzes how the media in both countries shaped public perceptions of the changing relations between China and the United States in the decade prior to Richard Nixon's visit to Beijing. This book offers the first systematic study of Cankao Xiaoxi Reference News, an internal Chinese newspaper that carried relatively objective stories the Xinhua News Agency translated from world news media for circulation among Communist cadres. As the main channel for the cadres to learn about the outside world, this newspaper provides a window into China's evolving foreign policy, including the reception of signals from the Nixon administration. Yi compares this internal communications channel with the public accounts contained in the more widely circulated newspaper People's Daily, a chief propaganda outlet of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) directed at its own people and China watchers all over the world. A third level of communication emerges in classified CCP instructions and government documents. By approaching the Chinese communication system on three levels: internal public and classified, Yi's analysis demonstrates how people at different positions in the political hierarchy accessed varying types of information, allowing him to chart the development of Beijing's approach to the U.S. government. In a corresponding analysis of the defining features of American reporting on China, Yi considers the impact of government media relationships in the United States during the Cold War. Alongside prominent magazines and newspapers, particularly the New York Times and the Washington Post, in their differing coverage of key events, Yi discusses television networks which proved vital for promoting the success of Ping Pong Diplomacy and the impact of Nixon's visit in 1972. With its comparative study of news outlets in the two countries, The Media and Sino American Rapprochement 1963 1972 presents a thorough and comprehensive perspective on the role of the media in influencing domestic Chinese and American public opinion during a critical decade.

Qualitative Methods in Africana Studies James L. Conyers Jr., 2016-07-20 This survey of methodology provides a framework for understanding Africana Studies. Correlating this book to research and writing in Africana Studies helps to extend the perplexity paradox and parley of social science and humanistic research. This book attempts to answer what is Africana Studies with reference to an interdisciplinary body of knowledge. Among those scholars who contribute to this interdisciplinary body of knowledge, perspective signals the commonality in the school of thought. This book offers general definitions and descriptions of the qualitative and quantitative research Lyotard Reframed Graham Jones, 2013-12-13 Lyotard's claims concerning the postmodern have often been misunderstood or misrepresented. Lyotard Reframed provides an analysis of Lyotard's most influential writings on the postmodern alongside a detailed commentary on his broader philosophy, demonstrating and clarifying his work's ongoing relevance to creative endeavour and debates concerning the value and significance of the visual arts. It also situates Lyotard's discussion of the postmodern within the context of his other key concepts: the figural, the libidinal, and the sublime. Accessible in style and approach, Lyotard Reframed employs numerous examples drawn from the arts to critically examine and evaluate the nature, history, and significance of these important concepts and explore their respective links with phenomenology, Marxism, structuralism, psychoanalysis, and deconstruction. Emotional Expressionism E. Deidre Pribram, 2024-01-04 In Emotional Expressionism: Television Seriality, the Melodramatic Mode, and Socioemotionality, E. Deidre Pribram examines emotions as social relations through the lens of dramatic television serials as contemporary melodrama. She develops the concept of socioemotionality, addressing sociocultural forms of felt experience and exploring the role of emotions in forging narrative worlds. Through detailed analyses of serials like Killing Eve, How to Get Away with Murder, and The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel, Pribram argues that the prominent role emotions play in popular mediated narratives demonstrates the crucial impact of collective emotions activated through aesthetic attributes on cultural storytelling. Scholars of television communication, media, and cultural studies will find this book of particular relevance. International Books in Print, 1997 Sexual Difference in European Cinema F. Vighi, 2009-01-29 What can film tell us about enjoyment and sexual difference? Can cinematic fiction be more Real than reality? Fabio Vighi looks at Jacques Lacan's theory of sexuality alongside some of the best-known works of European cinema, including films by Fellini, Truffaut, Antonioni, and Bergman. This People's Navy Kenneth J. Hagan, 1992-08-21 A sweeping account of the American naval experience from the wooden Continental Navy to contemporary projections for the service's high-tech mission in the next century.
