Raptors of the World James Ferguson-Lees, David A. Christie, 2005

Raptors of the World Helm 2001 is the definitive handbook to this most popular group of birds. This new field guide uses all of the plates from Raptors of the World with a concise revised text on facing pages to create a conveniently sized lightweight field reference covering all 340 raptor species. Several of the plates have been reworked and repainted for this guide. The book also has an updated colour distribution map for each species. Much of the extensive introductory material has been retained in this guide with the addition of a complete species list containing all subspecies and brief details of their ranges. Armed with this guide, birders will be able to identify with confidence any raptor encountered anywhere in the world.

Raptors of the World David A. Christie, James Ferguson-Lees, 2010-07-30 Covering every species of raptor on the planet, this book is perfect for anyone with an interest in birds of prey. Birdwatch This guide covers all the world's 313 raptor species illustrated with adult, juvenile and selected immature plumages as well as main geographical races. There are illustrations of over 2000 perched and flying birds, some with typical prey and facing texts summarising length, wingspan, male to female proportion, shape and flight. The text is further enhanced with line drawings illustrating specific points about identification and behaviour.
