

A portrait of Horace Campbell, an older Black man with long, grey dreadlocks and a full grey beard. He is smiling slightly and looking towards the camera. Rastafari Ennis Barrington Edmonds, 2002-12-26 Once an obscure group of outcasts from the ghettos of West Kingston Jamaica the Rastafarians have transformed themselves into a vibrant movement firmly grounded in Jamaican society and beyond In Rastafari Ennis Barrington Edmonds provides a compelling portrait of the Rastafarian phenomenon and chronicles how this group much maligned and persecuted became a dominant cultural force in the world today Edmonds charts the evolution of the relationship between Rastafari and the wider Jamaican society from confrontation and repression to grudging tolerance and eventually to cultural integration Edmonds focuses in particular on the internal development of Rastafarianism as a social movement with its network of houses small informal groups that form around leading Rastas and mansions larger more communal associations to track the process of this strikingly successful integration He further demonstrates how Rastafarian artistic creativity especially in fashioning the music and message of reggae was a significant factor in the transition of Rastas from the status of outcasts to the position of cultural bearers

Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean Debbie Lee-DiStefano, Luisa Marcela Ossa, 2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in Latin America and the Caribbean Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history literature art and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities What this interdisciplinary collection presents is a more cohesive approach that strives to place them at the center together and view their relationships in their historical contexts

Citizenship and Rights in Multicultural Societies Michael Dunne, 2019-07-29 This topical book examines the debates around contemporary conflicts between liberal democracies and increasingly vociferous special interest groups within society It analyses the way a new sense of difference and the growth of multi culturalism are straining modern notions of citizenship and rights looking in particular at how ethnic conflicts in Eastern Europe have escalated to international tragedies while in the US and Canada race ethnicity and radical feminism are at the heart of a social conflict which challenges national identity and the unity of the state

Born a Sufferer Quito J. Swan, 2025-02-20 This book evaluates modern Black internationalism through the sonic insurgencies of Reggae and Dancehall Born as a sufferer in the 1970s Dancehall is often framed by its lyrics of hyper masculinity This has distorted its intertwined engagement with the politics of its older sibling Reggae largely Rastafari s critique of the West as being of a Biblical Babylon Both strains grappled with questions of a decolonizing and migrating Caribbean hard times concrete ecologies and promised lands But if Reggae s radical soundings of Black liberation repatriated East beyond Babylon s rivers then to what extent did Dancehall imagine Zion amidst the contradictions of the gully sided West In the global 1990s Reggae and Dancehall sound systems curated sites of Black cultural insurgency across the world Stretching beyond the bombastic business of moving crowds with music they were amplifiers and receivers of Caribbean political epistemologies In the dancehall these cultural innovators remixed Western modernities and compressed timelines of Black radicalism fashioning myriad sound driven Zions to move against the traffic blocking of Babylon s street sweepers and lookout fetishes Their frequencies of subaltern clap back thrived in night clubs nyabinghis and favelas where subversive musical practices were documented on dubplates and globally distributed on cassettes An expansive grassroots audio archive of Black insurgency sound system culture was a radically complex space of Ubuntu place making sonic cartography and Black internationalism

Ideology and Class Conflict in Jamaica Abigail

Bess Bakan,1990 Abigail Bakan argues that there has been a recurrent ideological tradition of resistance to oppression among the black labouring classes in Jamaica She reveals this pattern through analysis of three periods of mass resistance the 1831 rebellion led by slaves the revolt of 1865 in which former slaves demanded greater control over and entitlement to agricultural land and the 1938 rebellion provoked by the Jamaican working class Jah Kingdom Monique A.

Bedasse,2017-08-11 From its beginnings in 1930s Jamaica the Rastafarian movement has become a global presence While the existing studies of the Rastafarian movement have primarily focused on its cultural expression through reggae music art and iconography Monique A Bedasse argues that repatriation to Africa represents the most important vehicle of Rastafari s international growth Shifting the scholarship on repatriation from Ethiopia to Tanzania Bedasse foregrounds Rastafari s enduring connection to black radical politics and establishes Tanzania as a critical site to explore gender religion race citizenship socialism and nation Beyond her engagement with how the Rastafarian idea of Africa translated into a lived reality she demonstrates how Tanzanian state and nonstate actors not only validated the Rastafarian idea of diaspora but were also crucial to defining the parameters of Pan Africanism Based on previously undiscovered oral and written sources from Tanzania Jamaica England the United States and Trinidad Bedasse uncovers a vast and varied transnational network including Julius Nyerere Michael Manley and C L R James revealing Rastafari s entrenchment in the making of Pan

Studies of African derived religious traditions have generally focused on their retention of African elements This emphasis says Dianne Stewart slights the ways in which communities in the African diaspora have created and formed new religious meaning In this fieldwork based study Stewart shows that African people have been agents of their own religious ritual and theological formation She examines the African derived and African centered traditions in historical and contemporary Jamaica Myal Obeah Native Baptist Revival Zion Kumina and Rastafari and draws on them to forge a new womanist liberation theology for the Caribbean African

Americans and the Bible Vincent L. Wimbush, 2001-01-01 A unique study of how the Bible constructs African Americans and how African Americans construct the bible From literature and the arts to popular culture and everyday life the Bible courses through black society and culture Despite the enormous recent surge of interest in African American religion scant attention has been paid to the diversity of ways in which African Americans have utilized the Bible African Americans and the Bible is the fruit of a four year collaborative research project directed by Vincent L Wimbush and funded by the Lilly Endowment It brings together scholars and experts sixty eight in all from a wide range of academic and artistic fields and disciplines including ethnography cultural history and biblical studies and also music film dance drama and literature The book is less about the meaning s of the Bible than about the Bible and meaning s less about the world s of the Bible than about how worlds and the Bible interact in short about how a text constructs a people and a people construct a text It is about a particular socio cultural formation but also about the dynamics that occur in the interrelation between any group of people and sacred texts in general African Americans and the Bible offers a critical lens through which the process of socio cultural formation can be viewed
