Rationality study Of Religion:

Rationality and the Study of Religion Jeppe Sinding Jensen, Luther Martin, 2013-09-13 Does rationality the intellectual bedrock of all science apply to the study of religion Religion arguably the most subjective area of human behaviour has particular challenges associated with its study Attracting crowd healers conjurers the pious and the prophetic alongside comparativists and sceptics it excites opinions and generalizations whilst seldom explicitly staking out the territory for the discussions in which it partakes Increasingly scholars argue that religious study needs to define and critique its own field and to distinguish itself from theology and other non objective disciplines Yet how can rational techniques be applied to beliefs and states of mind regarded by some as beyond the scope of human reason Can these be made empirically testable or comparable and replicable within academic communities Can science explicate religion without reducing it to mere superstition or redefine its truth in some empirical but meaningful way Featuring contributions from leading international experts including Donald Wiebe Roger Trigg and Michael Pye Rationality and the Study of Religion gets under the surface of the religious studies discipline to expose the ideologies beneath Reopening debate in a neglected yet philosophically significant field it questions the role of rationality in religious anthropology natural history and anti scientific theologies with implications not only for supposedly objective disciplines but for our deepest attitudes to personal experience Interesting and important Religion has long been associated with irrationality both by its defenders and its critics and the topic of rationality has been unjustly neglected The book certainly deserves to be widely circulated Greg Alles Western Maryland College

Law of Evidence and Rationality Applied in the Johannine Christology Henry Hock Guan Teh, 2016-02-10 Those who give primacy to evidence in the apologetic task have long maintained that 1 this is exactly the biblical writers' approach maintaining as they do that they saw and heard the things of which they speak and 2 such reasoning is fundamental to society in general as exemplified in every civilised legal system Henry Hock Guan Teh concretises these vital points by way of the Gospel of John where the Apostle consistently marshals eyewitness evidence to show that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God and that believing you might have life through His name John 20:31 No finer or more scholarly support for a biblically grounded factual juridically sophisticated defence of Christian truth is available Professional and lay evangelists and anyone endeavouring to preach the gospel to every creature simply must obtain and be benefited from this book And sceptical lawyers needless to say owe it to themselves to wrestle with the author's case for the only historical religion that holds up in court John Warwick Montgomery Ph.D. The OLLD Professor Emeritus of Law and Humanities University of Bedfordshire England Distinguished Research Professor of Philosophy Concordia University Wisconsin USA Director International Academy of Apologetics Evangelism and Human Rights Strasbourg France Dr Teh's book is in the same genre as those by Simon Greenleaf professor Dr John Warwick Montgomery Craig Parton Esq and Prof Dr Ross Clifford As can be seen by the title Dr Teh concentrates on the Gospel of John chapter by chapter His powerful argument can even be comprehended by those of us not legally trained Recommended Dr Rod Rosenblatt Professor of Theology Concordia University Irvine

1517legacy.com This book will greatly help people understand the legal historical and rational case for Christianity Dr Henry Teh uniquely focuses on John's gospel and establishes the Case for Jesus' Resurrection through the best evidence principle This emphasis on John's gospel establishes that it is a key text for Christian apologetics The book is a compelling read for those who take 1 Peter 3:15 seriously And for those who believe Jesus is a fairy tale it will cause them to reconsider the fact of his Resurrection It is well written and a must addition to one's apologetic armoury Rev Dr Ross Clifford AM Principal of Morling Theological College Sydney Australia Author of John Montgomery's Legal Apologetic Henry Hock Guan Teh obtained his Ph.D. from Trinity Theological Seminary Indiana USA where he studied apologetics under Prof John Warwick Montgomery

Reason, Freedom, and Religion Lorne L. Dawson, 1988 This book argues the advantages of using an unconventional method of social science the argument from rationality to ameliorate the disruptive methodological schism which exists between humanistic and social scientific perspectives in Religionswissenschaft and the sociology of religion The argument from rationality curbs the reductive thrust of conventional scientific accounts of religion by integrating the power of human choice and religious references to the transcendent into a viable mode of explanation for social and religious action Attention is focused on the role character and limits of the judgements of rationality undergirding the practice of the social sciences

Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

The Perception of Christianity as a Rational Religion in Singapore Clive S. Chin, 2017-03-23 This book evaluates the common criticism that Christianity in Asia is westernized Since the 1980s Asian evangelical theologians and missiologists argue that the intrusion of Western theology is responsible for the Western and hence alien expressions of Christianity in Asia Yet in Singapore the number of Christians has increased over the last few decades Empirical evidence demonstrates that younger Chinese Singaporeans convert from Buddhism or Taoism to Christianity partly because they perceive it as a rational religion over Buddhism or Taoism which are viewed as irrational or superstitious Not only do many converts favor Christianity as a rational religion but they do not regard Christianity as a Western religion at the point of their conversion What accounts for those recent developments This study explores the processes of modernization and globalization as important factors impacting religious change in Singapore Personal contextual and structural elements actually influence one's religion of choice In facilitating effective mission one must qualify the use of the categories Asian and Western because religious and cultural boundaries overlap What matters most in missiology is discerning how the gospel of Jesus Christ engages the self understanding and lived realities of ethnic and religious others in diverse cultural settings

Rationality in Science, Religion, and Everyday Life Mikael Stenmark, 2016-09-15 Mikael Stenmark examines four models of rationality and argues for a discussion of rationality that takes into account the function and aim of such human between Swedes in general and the perceptions of Swedish clergy The answer is based on sociological studies on science and religion in Sweden and the United States Furthermore the book contains a study of Swedish theologians from Nathan Soderblom to the present Archbishop Antje Jackelen and their shifting understanding of the relation between science and religion The philosophical aspects of this relation are given special consideration What models of the relation inform the contemporary scholarly discussion Are science and religion in conflict separate or in mutual creative interaction

Church, Market, and Media Marcus Moberg, 2017-07-13 Marcus Moberg offers a new model of religion and religious life in the post war era through focusing on the role of markets and media as vectors of contemporary social and cultural change and therefore institutional religious change While there is wide agreement among sociologists of religion that there this area is transforming on a global scale there is less agreement about how these changes should best be approached and conceptualized In a time of accelerating institutional religious decline institutional Churches have become ever more susceptible to market associated discourse and language and are ever more compelled to adapt to the demands of the present day media environment Using discourse analysis Marcus Moberg tracks how new media and marketing language and concepts have entered Christian thinking and discourse Church Market and Media develops a framework that approaches changes in the contemporary religious field in direct relation to the changing socioeconomic makeup of contemporary societies on the whole Through focusing on the impact of markets and media within the contemporary religious setting of mainline institutional Christian churches in the Western world the book outlines new avenues for further theorizing the study of religious change

The Centrality of Religion in Social Life Eileen Barker, 2021-11-18 James A Beckford s work is internationally acclaimed not only in the sociology of religion but also in other fields of the social sciences Beckford has long been arguing that the barriers that have grown up between the different sub disciplines should be broken down with those specialising in religion becoming more cognisant of new theoretical developments and sociologists in general becoming more aware of the significance of developments in the religious scene This book is a collection of essays written in Beckford s honour drawing on a number of religious themes that have been central to Beckford s interests whilst also offering a significant contribution to our understanding of the wider society A central theme is modernity and its relation to the post modern and how religion affects and is affected by the dynamics of contemporary society with the primary focus of many of the chapters being a concern with how society copes with the minority religions that have become visible with the globalising tendencies of contemporary society The contributors who come from America Asia and various parts of Europe are all internationally renowned scholars Beckford s most important publications are listed in an Appendix and the volume opens with a short account of his contribution to sociology by Eileen Barker the editor and James T Richardson Patterns of Rationality Tommaso Bertolotti, 2015-04-29 This book proposes an applied epistemological framework for investigating science social cognition and religious thinking based on inferential patterns that recur in the different domains It presents human rationality as a tool that allows us to make sense of our physical or social surroundings It shows that the resulting cognitive activity produces a broad spectrum of outputs such as scientific models and experimentation gossip and social networks but also ancient and contemporary deities The book consists of three parts the first of which addresses scientific modeling and experimentation and their application to the analysis of scientific rationality Thus this part continues the tradition of eco cognitive epistemology and abduction studies The second part deals with the relationship between social cognition and cognitive niche construction i e the evolutionarily relevant externalization of knowledge onto the environment while the third part focuses on what is commonly defined as irrational thus being in a way dialectically opposed to the first part Here the author demonstrates that the irrational can be analyzed by applying the same epistemological approach used to study scientific rationality and social cognition also in this case we see the emergence of patterns of rationality that regulate the relationships between agents and their environment All in all the book offers a coherent and unitary account of human rationality providing a basis for new conceptual connections and theoretical speculations Sacred Markets, Sacred Canopies Ted G. Jelen, 2003-04-01 Can individual decisions concerning whether or where to attend church to contribute time or money to religious organizations or to forgo certain activities be explained as a special case of economic theory In Sacred Markets Sacred Canopies Ted G Jelen brings together the leading scholars in the sociology of religion to debate market theories of religion As the contributors examine whether or not religious choices can be understood as responding to the same laws of supply and demand as other forms of consumer behavior they bring out many of the issues controversies and concerns surrounding this innovative theory The result is a concise source for the arguments evidence and criticism of the market model of religious economies a perfect starting point for students and scholars approaching this set of problems
