range of major artists Dominic Johnson presents a new oral history of performance art From uses of body modification and physical extremity to the creation of all encompassing personae to performance pieces lasting months or years these artists have provoked and explored the vital limits between art and life Their discussions with Johnson give us a glimpse of their artistic motivations preoccupations processes and contexts Despite the diversity of art forms and experiences featured common threads weave between the interviews love friendship commitment death and survival Each interview is preceded by an overview of the artist s work and the volume itself is introduced by a thoughtful critical essay on performance art and oral history The conversational tone of the interviews renders complex ideas and theoretical propositions accessible making this an ideal book for students of theatre and performance as well as for artists scholars and general readers The Ultimate Guide to Sex and Disability Cory Silverberg, Miriam Kaufman, 2016-09-06 The Ultimate Guide to Sex and Disability is the first complete sex guide for people who live with disabilities pain illness or chronic conditions Useful for absolutely everyone regardless of age gender or sexual orientation the book addresses a wide range of disabilities from chronic fatigue back pain and asthma to spinal cord injury hearing and visual impairment multiple sclerosis and more Expertly written by a medical doctor a sex educator and a disability activist The Ultimate Guide provides readers with encouragement support and all the information they need to create a sex life that works for them The authors cover all aspects of sex and disability including building a positive sexual self image positions to minimize stress and maximize pleasure dealing with fatigue or pain during sex finding partners and talking with partners about sex and disability adapting sex toys and more When the Body Is the Target Sharon Klayman Farber, 2002-11-05 In this comprehensive and insightful work Dr Sharon K Farber provides an invaluable resource for the mental health professional who is struggling to understand self harm and its origins Using attachment theory to explain how addictive connections to pain and suffering develop she discusses various kinds and functions of self harm behavior From eating disorders to body modifications such as tattooing Dr Farber explores the language of self harm and the translation of that language and its psychic functions in the therapeutic setting She tells us When the body weeps tears of blood we need to wonder what terrible sorrows cannot be spoken Brilliantly illustrated with rich clinical material this book offers a practical approach to the diagnosis assessment and treatment of the increasing number of patients whose emotions are expressed through bodily harm The challenges of working with patients who tend to view the world of relationships in terms of predator and prey are clearly explicated and the stormy countertransference responses that threaten to destroy the treatment are given a full hearing Finally she shows how the attachment relationship formed in treatment can repair the traumatic attachment in mind body psyche and soul and can serve as the cornerstone of therapeutic change A Jason Aronson Book Provoking Religion Anthony Michael Petro, Petro, 2025 In the late twentieth century artists were on the front lines of the culture wars Leaders of the Christian Right in the U S made a national spectacle out of feminist and queer art blasting it as sacrilegious or pornographic and sometimes both On the bully pulpits of television and talk radio as well as in the halls of Congress conservatives denounced artists ranging from Robert Mapplethorpe and Judy Chicago to Marlon Riggs and David Wojnarowicz Conservatives alarmed by shifting sex and gender norms collided with progressive artists who were confronting sexism homophobia and racism In Provoking Religion Anthony Petro offers a compelling new history of the culture wars that places competing moralities of gender and sexuality alongside competing visions of the sacred The modern culture wars he shows are best understood not as contests pitting religious conservatives against secular activists but as a series of ongoing historical struggles to define the relationship between the sacred and the political Through captivating case studies of subversive artists Provoking Religion illuminates the underside of the culture wars revealing how progressive artists and activists rendered from those most apparently profane aspects of human life the stuff of conservatives worst nightmares their own haunting visions of the sacred

Media, Performative Identity, and the New American Freak Show Jessica L. Williams, 2017-10-04 This book traces how the American freak show has re emerged in new visual forms in the 21st century It explores the ways in which moving image media transmits and contextualizes reinterprets and appropriates the freak show model into a new American freak show It investigates how new freak representations introduce narratives about sex gender and cultural perceptions of people with disabilities The chapters examine such representations found in horror films including a prolonged look at Freaks 1932 and The Texas Chainsaw Massacre 1974 documentaries such as Murderball 2005 and TLC's Push Girls 2012 2013 disability pornography including the pornographic documentary Sick The Life and Death of Bob Flanagan Supermasochist 1997 and the music icons Marilyn Manson and Lady Gaga in their portrayals of disability and freakishness Through this book we learn that the visual culture that has emerged takes the place of the traditional freak show but opens new channels of interpretation and identification through its use of mediated images as well as the altered freak norm relationship that it has fostered In its illumination of the relationship between normal and freakish bodies through different media this book will appeal to students and academics interested in disability studies gender studies film theory critical race theory and cultural studies
