

Glossary of Literary Terms

ACTION

The events that take place in a literary work.

ALLEGORY

An extended metaphor that presents objects, events, or characters in a narrative.

ALLUSION

A small reference to a person, place, passage, or object in another literary work.

CHARACTER

A person, human or non-human, in the story. Character may also refer to a person's traits and personality.

CONFLICT

The struggle between conflicting forces. The conflict often provides the main ACTION and spotlights the literary PLOT.

CONTEXT

Conditions beyond the literary work that may hold relevance to understanding the story's meaning.
Example: England's historical context in the 1600's gives the reader a greater understanding of Shakespeare's plays.

FORM

A literary work's structure or external appearance.

IMAGERY

The use of images, descriptions, or figures of speech like METAPHORS and SIMILES to help the reader visualize a mood, concept, or CHARACTER.

INTERPRETATION

The general idea or explanation of the literary work's meaning.

IRONY

A technique in which a character or plot device is not as it would actually seem.

METAPHOR

A comparison of two different things, revealing similar intriguing qualities which states the two are actually the same.

MOOD

The atmosphere in a literary work meant to evoke certain feelings from a reader.

NARRATOR

The speaker in a literary work of prose.

PLOT

An account of the literary work's ACTION, as well as all other surrounding circumstances that moves the story along.

POINT OF VIEW

The perspective of the story's NARRATOR. There are three different classifications:

1) First Person

Speaker uses the pronoun "I".

2) Second Person

Speaker uses the pronoun "You."

3) Third Person

Speaker uses the pronoun(s) "He", "She", "It", or "They."

PROTAGONIST & ANTAGONIST

The protagonist is the central character in a literary work that moves the PLOT forward. The antagonist moves against the story's plot.

SETTING

The time, place, and CONTEXT in which the literary work's ACTION takes place.

SIMILE

A figure of speech that compares two unlike things, usually using the words "as", "as if", or "like".

SYMBOL, SYMBOLISM

Something that represents or stands for another thing. SYMBOLISM may convey many different meanings and dimensions, unlike ALLEGORY.

THEME

The literary work's meaning or general idea.

TONE

The author's attitude towards the story and/or the story's readers.

VOICE

The author's style, attitude, personality, and feelings towards the world around him/her.

Readers Guide To Literary Terms A Dictionary:

A Reader's Guide to Literary Terms Karl Beckson, Arthur Ganz, 1961 Literary Terms Karl E. Beckson, Karl Beckson, Arthur Ganz, 1989-06 Explains and gives examples of over 900 literary terms A Reader's Guide to Literary Terms Karl Beckson, Arthur F. Ganz, 1961 A Reader's Guide to Literary Terms Karl E. Beckson, 1972 A Reader's Guide to Literary Terms Karl E. Beckson, 1961 A Guide to English Literature F. W. Bateson, 2017-09-04 At first glance A Guide to English Literature may seem to be no more than a short bibliography of English literature with perhaps rather more extensive and certainly more outspoken comments on the principal editions commentaries biographies and critical works than bibliographies usually provide But it is something more this guide contains long inter chapters that provide reinterpretations of the principal periods of English literature in the light of modern research as well as two final sections summarizing in unusual detail the literary criticism that exists in English and recent scholarship in the field The purpose of this book then is to provide the reader with convenient access to a disciplined study of the texts themselves This guide proposes itself as a new kind of literary history The conventional history of literature has often tended to become a substitute for the reading of the literature it describes the better the history the greater the temptation to substitute it The present combination of reading lists and inter chapters cannot be a substitute for anything else Meaningless as literature in themselves they nevertheless provide the necessary preliminary information to meaningful reading Since oddities of arrangement derive from these assumptions the authors are not arranged alphabetically Instead there are chronological compartments with the divisions circa 1500 1650 and 1800 in which authors succeed each other in the order of their births This pioneering handbook is primarily a bibliographical laborsaving device It is meant mostly for students and the general reader in that it stops where original research by the reader is expected to begin However the last chapter on literary scholarship is devoted specifically to the research specialist and provides indispensable equipment for the reader There is also a general section on literary criticism which will be of use to all The Guide to Literary Terms (MAXNotes Literature Guides) Gail Rae, 2013-01-01 REA s MAXnotes Guide to Literary Terms REA s book is a concise easy to use guide to the literary terms and devices which high school and undergraduate students encounter most often The main body of the book is an alphabetical listing of approximately 150 of the most commonly encountered literary terms or devices The entries are simplified to enable students with no knowledge of the terms to become comfortable with their uses in a short time Each entry in the book includes a definition of the literary term or device a history of the term s use and origin and specific references to texts in which the term has been used Literary Terms Karl Beckson, Arthur Ganz, 1975 A Dictionary of Literary Terms and Literary Theory J. A. Cuddon, 2012-11-07 With new entries and sensitive edits this fifth edition places J A Cuddon s indispensable dictionary firmly in the 21st Century Written in a clear and highly readable style Comprehensive historical coverage extending from ancient times to the present day Broad intellectual and cultural range Expands on the previous edition to incorporate the most recent literary terminology New material is particularly focused in areas such as gender studies and queer theory post colonial theory post structuralism post modernism narrative theory and cultural studies Existing entries have been edited to ensure that topics receive balanced treatment

The Oxford Dictionary of Literary Terms Chris Baldick,2015-05-15 The bestselling Oxford Dictionary of Literary Terms provides clear and concise definitions of the most troublesome literary terms from abjection to zeugma It is an essential reference tool for students of literature in any language Now expanded and in its fourth edition it includes increased coverage of new terms from modern critical and theoretical movements such as feminism schools of American poetry Spanish verse forms life writing and crime fiction It includes extensive coverage of traditional drama versification rhetoric and literary history as well as updated and extended advice on recommended further reading and a pronunciation guide to more than 200 terms Completely revised and updated this edition also features brand new entries on terms such as distant reading graphic novels middle generation and misery memoir Many new bibliographies have been added to entries and recommended web links are available via a companion website

Reader's Guide to British History David Loades,2020-12-17 The Reader sGuide to British History is the essential source to secondary material on British history This resource contains over 1 000 A Z entries on the history of Britain from ancient and Roman Britain to the present day Each entry lists 6 12 of the best known books on the subject then discusses those works in an essay of 800 to 1 000 words prepared by an expert in the field The essays provide advice on the range and depth of coverage as well as the emphasis and point of view espoused in each publication

A Hermeneutic of Curiosity and Readings of Psalm 61 W. H. Bellinger,1995 A Grammar of the Ethics of John Jan G. van der Watt,2019-11-12 Jan G van der Watt analyses in detail the ethics of John s letters against their respective socio historical backgrounds He then compares the ethics of the Gospel and Letters showing that the basic core narrative overlaps in these writings although some ethical material is applied in different ways to different situations A rich ethical landscape is revealed addressing issues like the importance of interpersonal relations which results in co operation through mutual love The author shows that the focus in 1 John is pastoral aiming at convincing the addressees not to be deceived by their schismatics but to strengthen their relationships with the eyewitness group In 2 John advice is given about visitors who threaten the church with false teachings while 3 John deals with a conflict about receiving travelling missionaries In both cases ethical guidelines are given which aim at protecting the group Volume 2 Dust Jacket Inside front Flap

Bibliographical Guide to the Study of the Literature of the U.S.A. Clarence Gohdes,Sanford E. Marovitz,1984 This fifth revised edition features approximately 1 900 items most of which are annotated It addresses several interdisciplinary studies that have become prominent in the last decade especially on popular culture racial and other minorities Native Americans and Chicanos and literary regionalism It allots more space to computer aids science fiction children s literature literature of the sea film and literature and linguistic studies of American English and includes a new section on psychology The appendix lists the biography of each of 135 deceased American authors ISBN 0 8223 0592 5 22 50 For use only in the library A Primer of the Novel David Madden, Charles Bane, Sean M. Flory, 2006-06-22 When the first edition of David Madden's A Primer of the Novel For Readers and Writers was published more than twenty five years ago there were no other books of its kind available Since then many authors and editors have produced works that attempt the same comprehensive coverage of the genre However these works tend to be either written solely for writers or solely for readers More often than not those written for readers tend to be aimed at advanced students or critics of the novel In this revised edition David Madden Charles Bane and Sean Flory have produced an updated work that is intended for a general readership including writers teachers and students who are just being introduced to the genre This unique handbook provides a definition and history of the novel a description of early narratives and a discussion of critical approaches to this literary form A Primer of the Novel also identifies terms definitions commentary and examples in the form of quotations for almost 50 types of novels and 15 artistic techniques A chronology of narrative in general and of the novel in particular from 850 B C to the present is also included along with indexes to authors titles novel types and techniques as well as a selective bibliography of criticism Although all novel types present in the first edition are still represented many have become more clearly defined This revised edition also cites several types of novels that did not appear in the first edition such as the graphic novel and the novel of Magical Realism As well as keeping all of the original examples from representative texts the authors have added new examples of more recent works While this book was conceived for a general audience it will be a valuable resource for students teachers and libraries It may be used in any English literature courses at any level including graduate and is suited for creative writing courses as well With its clear and immediately accessible features this handbook Family of the King Jan G. van der Watt, 2021-11-15 Nearly all metaphors in the Gospel according to John relate to ancient family imagery Thus the disciples are born of the Father the Father provides them with bread and drink water He educates them and protects them and a dwelling is prepared for them and so on This family imagery which is interwoven throughout the Gospel in a complex network provides a key to the understanding of the message of the Fourth Gospel In this volume after exploring numerous state of the art theories on metaphor a customised metaphor theory is developed from the Fourth Gospel itself which can be applied to the analysis of the Gospel as a whole The theory is based on two of the best known metaphors in the Fourth Gospel I am the Good Shepherd and I am the True Vine Subsequently all other metaphors are analysed according to this theory Wilson Library Bulletin Stanley Kunitz, Marie Duvernoy Loizeaux, 1929 Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide to Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J.
