Gunaratne,2012-10-24

From Village Boy to Global Citizen Volume 2 The Travels of a Journalist is the last of my autobiographical trilogy The 74 chapters in this volume attempt to describe and dramatize the most memorable places I visited often accompanied by my family since I left the country of my birth in 1966 After my retirement in 2007 I found the time to compile this travelogue using the notes in my diaries and updating the material through online research with particular help from the constantly revised Wikipedia entries In this process I learned to make each travel essay an evergreen that would not perish soon after its publication as in the case of newspaper travel pieces Travel has shaped my personality Global travel to get to know culturally diverse people was one of my childhood ambitions Moreover travel is an essential aspect of a journalists life Therefore my travels constitute a very important part of my autobiography I included detail in the hope that the reader would keep this volume for long term reference My explorations of U S national parks and my camping expeditions should be of particular interest to family oriented travelers Each of the essays in this volume appeared in the Lankaweb starting December 6 2009 It carried the latest but not the last story chapter 109 on December 4 2011 Reacting to the essay chapter 106 on our mule ride in Mexican territory during the Big Bend adventure a reader commented As always it was very well written and visually engaging which made us feel we were there too We particularly liked the reference to Yankee Doodles
