On Wings To War:

Women Military Pilots of World War II Lois K. Merry, 2014-01-10 More than 2000 women in the United States Great Britain and the Soviet Union flew military airplanes in organized units during World War II yet their stories are largely unknown These pilots ferried aircraft flew targets for ground artillery practice tested airplanes and equipment and many of them flew in combat The women pilots proved that they could manage bombers and fighters as well as their male counterparts and several later remarked that the airplanes didn't care who flew them Topics covered include the training of female pilots how female flight units were developed and structured the hazards of conflict and how these women reintegrated into civilian life following the war Katanga 1960-63 Christopher Othen, 2015-09-07 In King Leopold II's infamous Congo Free State at the turn of the century severed hands became a form of currency But the Belgians didn't seem to have a sense of historical shame as they connived for an independent Katanga state in 1960 to protect Belgian mining interests What happened next was extraordinary It was an extremely uneven battle The UN fielded soldiers from twenty nations America paid the bills and the Soviets intrigued behind the scenes Yet to everyone's surprise the new nation's rag tag army of local gendarmes jungle tribesmen and controversially European mercenaries refused to give in For two and a half years Katanga the scrawniest underdog ever to fight a war held off the world with guerrilla warfare two faced diplomacy and some shady financial backing It even looked as if the Katangese might win Katanga 1960 tells for the first time the full story of the Congolese province that declared independence and found itself at war with the world On Wings to War Jan Churchill, 1992 On War Carl von Clausewitz, 1918 On Wings of War Jim Arnison, 2000 Sorrow of War Louis Golding, 1919 Final Report of War Department Special Committee on Army Air Corps.
